Howdy Folks: After reading all the best authorities on horse racing, we have finally made up our mind as to what horse is safe to put your shirt on—a clothes horse.

Even so, we'll never bet on a horse race. We're afraid of the "Bookie-man."

And horse sense is what teaches a girl to say "neigh."

It's good horse sense too to see that your car is brought to CHAPMAN'S regularly for MAIFAK LUBRICATION.

Zion Group Delegate To Attend Convention

SCHIEFFLIN — Zion Ladies' society met Thursday with opening devotions by the pastor. Plans were made to clean the church for Easter. One delegate will represent the society at the Missionary League convention in Tacoma April 23. Ladies of the church will clean the parish hall. All ladies who were present with more than 10 years were presented with corsages. Committee in charge of arrangements was Mesdames Herbert Sahnaw Jr., Robert Fowler, and Elmer Hergert. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. H. Ruecker and Mrs. E. Wulf.

Walter League met Sunday evening with devotion and topic led by the pastor. A free war offering was taken to be sent to Rev. E. Becker to enable him to purchase the leaflet, "Good News," and distribute it in his work as institutional missionary in Salem.

The next meeting May 10 will be a reception for the newly confirmed members and election of officers. The society thus far has contributed $22.50 toward the purchase of a district camp. Emily Kerkman was elected to assist in news to the district supplement. The society has been asked by Pastor Gerken of Beaverton for the evening were Lois and Curtis Sahnaw.

Ruth Beyerlein spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Beyerlein of Corvallis. Harold, Leonard and Walter Schwank were Sunday guests at the Beyerlein home.

Rock Creek Unit Votes Scholarship

ROCK CREEK — Rock Creek home extension unit, at its March meeting, voted a summer school scholarship at Oregon State college, to be awarded to a student in 4-H activities from a school within the unit. It met Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Jossy near Bethany with 26 members and five visitors present.

Mrs. Fred Jossy reported on legislation pending, and urged the members to write to congressional representatives regarding the critical livestock feed situation in the northwest. Mrs. Daniel Basiek reported on state 4-H activities, stressing 4-H club activities. Officers elected to serve next year were: Mrs. Robert Lawrence, chairman; Mrs. Albert Hiehe, vice-chairman; Mrs. Ben Graf, secretary-treasurer. In a short recreation period, Mrs. Robert Lawrence tested the members' knowledge of common garden vegetables, using botanical descriptions. In the afternoon, Miss Faye Nichols of the home extension service, presented "Succeeding as a Family," discussing family relationships, parent education and child development, with particular stress upon successful everyday family living.
