

Service Office Space in Court House is Urged

The county court is urged to make provisions for proper office space in the court house for the county service officer, to pay an adequate salary and provide for good maintenance in a motion passed by the Allied Veterans Commanders' council in session at the chamber of commerce rooms Monday.

Plans for the Memorial Day observance here were made by the council. The day's activities will start with a parade from the American Legion hall with all patriotic groups in the community participating. The line of March will be on Main to Fourth, south to Washington, west to the Veterans theatre where the patriotic program will be held. Les Alter will be grand marshal of the parade.

The American Legion will give the Grand Army of the Republic Memorial Day ritual at the G.A.R. tomb at the Hillsboro cemetery following the program at the Veterans Legionnaires have given the G.A.R. ritual in keeping with a request made by the G.A.R. at the time the charter was given up.

Veterans of all wars are invited to take part in the day's observance in memory of departed comrades. World War II veterans are urged to wear their uniforms if possible.

The council will meet again June 3 to make plans for the Fourth of July patriotic program and on October 7 to plan for the Armistice Day observance.

Plans for an all-veteran picnic at Shute park June 30 were considered.
