

Miss Grell Bride Of A. Gurske in Afternoon Rites

Miss Elva Grell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grell of Albany, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Gurske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gurske of Cornelius, in the Lutheran church at Albany June 1 at 2 p. m. Rev. Weiland officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a white net dress with embroidered bodice over satin and a finger-tip veil of net with a pink tulle bow. Her bouquet was pink roses and gardenias tied with net and ribbons.

Mrs. Jimmy Riddell of Independence attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of pink crepe. The bride's cousin, Miss Margaret Freudenfeld of Hillsboro, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of yellow net. Both carried similar bouquets of roses and gardenias. Judith Ann Krahmer of Cornelius, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a long white dotted Swiss dress and carried a basket of roses.

Mr. Elmer Gurske was best man. Messrs. Fred Grell and Henry Gurske Jr. were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors.

Mrs. Gurske attended Oregon State college and is a graduate of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. She has taught the past few years in Bend.

Mr. Gurske is a veteran of World War II, having served two and a half years overseas in the African and European campaigns. He is now employed in Cornelius.

After a trip to British Columbia they will make their home in Forest Grove.

A number of friends and relatives from Cornelius attended the ceremony.

Local Dancers to Present Program

Helen Wick Walters will present her pupils in a full-length dance revue at the Hillsboro auditorium Thursday evening, June 13, for the first time in five years. This year, as in the past, the youngsters will do group numbers with bright costumes.

Songs of the gay nineties will be featured. "The Bowery," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," "If You Knew Susie" and the "Easter Parade" starring the bunnies.

Rita Schneider will furnish the music and Mrs. M. Wick designed the costumes for the 33 talented local dancers.

The public is invited to attend this song and dance festival.

Piano Students Present Recital

Intermediate-advanced piano students of Mrs. Jessie Hanson-Saxl will appear in recital at the Christian church at 8:15 p. m. Friday.
