

Annual School Election and Budget Meeting Slated Monday at Banks

BANKS—Annual school election will be held Monday evening at the Banks grade school. A director and clerk will be elected and the school budget will be voted on.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Devine of Forest Grove, June 4, a girl, Patricia Marie, in the Forest Grove General hospital. Mrs. Devine is the former Gladys Cop of Banks and the baby is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cop of Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hopkins and children of Sherwood and E. E. Hopkins of Banks are vacationing at the Hopkins cottage at Manzanita.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Dais of Yakima, Wash., spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harve Shook and family. The two families attended the rose show parade in Portland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Shook and children of Tillamook spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clark of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cass Wilson.

Ruth and Neil Bradford are visiting relatives at Modesto, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilbert moved last week from Portland to the home they recently purchased from Mrs. Ada Sellers. They also have taken over the Benefiel hardware store which they purchased.

Kay Lien, an employee of the Washington county bank, is a candidate for Goddess of Liberty at the July 4 celebration in Hillsboro. Miss Lien is a member of this years graduating class of Banks high school.

The Mother's club cleared $51 on the rummage sale held three days last week in the Legion hall. The money will be added to the funds for repairing the church.

West Point Cadet Visits
Ed Heesacker, a cadet at West Point, arrived Sunday for a furlough, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Heesacker, and family.

Orval Berdan and sister, Mrs. Alta Harp of Richmond, Cal., spent several days last week transacting business in Banks. Orval sold his house and lot where his father has been living to Cliff Sandy N. Berdan went to California with his son and daughter and will make his home there with his daughter.

Mrs. Chester Davis, who spent several weeks in Forest Grove receiving care while ill at the home of her son, George Davis, returned to her home here Sunday. She is improving and able to be up part of the time.

Schallbergers Move
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schallberger and son, Walter, who have been operating a dairy farm on the Bertha-Beaverton highway, have moved to their dairy on the Scholls Ferry road.

The Schallbergers have operated a retail dairy for the past six years but do not plan to continue this business.

Riding Enthusiasts Take Trip to Coast

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones, Ruth Simpson, John and Bruce Jones, Ray Ego, Bob Galinat, Marvin, Neely and Gordon Holbrook left Tuesday for Hebo. All but Mrs. Jones and sons Larry and Darrel rode horses. Mrs. Jones took camping equipment in a car. They arrived at the Lee Lane home at Hebo Thursday, where Mrs. Ray Ego, Carolyn and Hosken McCormick joined them for the day.

Mrs. Dessie Griffin and daughters, Mrs. Imalee Mason and Joan Griffin, of Porterville, Cal., arrived Thursday to visit Mrs. Ray Hutchinson.

Mrs. Lewis Robinson and daughter of Valsetz and Mrs. John Hamblin and Bonnie of Yamhill visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shuck Sunday. Bonnie returned Wednesday for several weeks' visit.

Many from here attended the Rose Festival parade.

Correction: List of eighth grade boys read Mary Brown instead of Mary Williams.

Joins ATC
Don Versteeg has joined the army transport command. He flew to Seattle last Wednesday, where he was assigned to a ship. Versteeg was a member of this year's graduating class at Newberg union high school.

Bruce Clark, who is working in Portland, was home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark, over the week-end.

Mrs. Shuck Entertains
Mrs. Stanley Shuck served a luncheon to 21 Thursday when she was hostess for the Book Heaven Varieties club. A motion was presented by Mrs. S. Pemberton to raise the limit of club members from 24 to 30. This will be voted on at the next meeting. The club friendship quilt was awarded to Mrs. J. E. Basser. It was voted to hold the annual picnic at Ocean-side August 11. Mrs. Ansel Tykeson will be hostess at the next meeting, June 29 when roll call will be "My Most Interesting Trip."

Ruth Simpson was appointed second vice-president by the executive board.

Mrs. F. L. Shook entertained with a birthday party Tuesday honoring her two small children, Mildred and Russell. Two beautifully decorated birthday cakes and ice cream were served to 16.

Mrs. Diane Haynes visited her mother, Mrs. F. L. Shook and other relatives last week. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes are moving from Lonerock to Seaside, where Haynes will operate a sawmill with his brother, Don.

Strawberry picking started here last week. This week it will be in full swing. There is a good crop. Most growers seem to have an adequate supply of pickers.

Mt. Home Group Plans Annual Homecoming

MOUNTAIN HOME—Ladies Aid held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Cecile Strickler June 7 with an attendance of 23. The Aid will meet again until the regular September meeting. They will have a clean-up meeting at the church June 19 in preparation for the annual homecoming June 23. All old members and friends are invited to come and join in the pot-luck dinner that follows.

Miss Betty Joyce will work in the state forestry department office this summer. She will live with Mrs. Donna Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer were entertained at dinner on their 12th wedding anniversary at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmeltzer.

The Evangelical Youth Fellowship group had a party Friday evening at the Cecile Strickler home.

Mrs. Emma Aebischer and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Aebischer of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aebischer and family of Newberg, were guests at the Fred Aebischer home Sunday in honor of his birthday.

The Harold Aebischers and Mrs. Aebischer recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Aebischer's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Heister, and family in Seattle. While there they made a short trip into Canada.
