

"Goddess" Candidates To Be Entertained

"Goddess" candidates are the inspiration for a number of entertainments by sponsoring groups. Legion Auxiliary entertained the candidates at a Flag Day program last night at the Legion hall. Pythian Sisters and Coffee club will entertain them at a Flag Day program Friday night, and the Business and Professional Women's club will entertain them at dinner Friday night, June 21, at the chamber of commerce.

On the program committee for the meeting Friday night are Mrs. Maude Starnard and Mrs. Emma Ferland, and the joint refreshment committee from the Pythian Sisters and Coffee club includes Mesdames Lottie Gifford, Emma McKinney, Margaret Donaldson, Joanna Vandenberg, Gladys Douglas, and Miss Angie Harrington.

The program and reception for the "Goddess" candidates will follow the regular temple meeting, and is scheduled to begin at 8:30 or as soon thereafter as possible.

Haffner-Schwartz Nuptials Read Saturday Evening

In a setting of palms with white streamers and pink and red garlands at the First Evangelical Reformed church in Portland a quiet wedding ceremony was performed Saturday evening, June 8, at eight o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Schwartz, formerly of Des Moines, Iowa, became the bride of Mr. Adelbert H. Haffner, son of Mrs. Augusta F. Haffner of Hillsboro. Rev. C. W. Sauerwein, pastor of the church, officiated. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Louis Zuercher, an aunt of the bridegroom, and she also accompanied Mr. Otto Zuercher, who sang, "The Sunshin' of Your Soul," and "Because."

The bride was gowned in a lovely pale pink all over net dress with a pink bridal veil.

Mrs. Barnard McQuinn, matron of honor, wore a blue net formal. Mr. William J. Haffner, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Mr. Louis Zuercher was usher. After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. Don Hall, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake and Mrs. H. Byerley presided at the punch bowl. Miss Rosemary Wilken assisted.

For going away Mrs. Haffner wore a dusty rose colored suit with white accessories.

The young couple are enjoying a honeymoon south after which they will make their home in Hillsboro.

Barbara Barrows Grand Historian

Bringing honor to the Hillsboro Rainbow Girls, Barbara Barrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Barrows, was installed Saturday night, June 1, as grand historian at the 20th anniversary of Grand Assembly of Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Miss Barrows, who just finished her sophomore year at Hillsboro union high school, fulfilled all requirements for grand officer such as being regular in attendance, good in office and committee work, and other outstanding qualifications.

Catholic Daughters To Install Officers

Installation of officers will be held tonight (Thursday) at the regular meeting of Catholic Daughters of America at the Moose Hall, at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Barrows, who just finished her sophomore year at Hillsboro union high school, fulfilled all requirements for grand officer such as being regular in attendance, good in office and committee work, and other outstanding qualifications.

Move to New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christener, who have lived in the North Plains community for about 25 years, sold their home there and moved this week to their recently purchased timber orchard ranch three miles south of Scholls, formerly the C. W. Foote place. They sold their North Plains place to Werner Schallberger.

Mrs. Mabel Grass, editor of the Woodburn Independent, visited Hillsboro friends Sunday. Mrs. Grass had just returned from a visit with her son in La Crosse, Kan., and her daughter and family in St. Louis, Mo.

Coffee Club Holds Last Meeting; Elect Officers

Coffee club will hold its last meeting of the club year Friday afternoon at the chamber of commerce. Officers will be elected and other business transacted.

Mrs. Clyde Yount will be the soloist accompanied by her daughter, Leola Mae, who arrived last week from Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N. Y.

In the evening Coffee club members will be joint hostesses with the Pythian Sisters at a Flag Day program and reception for Goddess candidates.

An out-door picnic had been planned for June, but due to the unpredictable weather a pot-luck picnic luncheon will be held at the chamber of commerce at 1 o'clock. Bring baked luncheon for yourself and guests. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished.

Leaves on Vacation

Lloyd Magnus of the Argus office left this week for a month's vacation at Foley, Minn. He was accompanied from Portland by his wife and daughters.

Showers Fetes Alice Vanasche

A shower honoring Miss Alice Vanasche, bride-elect of Lawrence Harrison, was given by Mrs. Mildred Harris and Mrs. Florence Vanasche at the Vanasche home Thursday with 17 present.

The evening was spent playing games, and preparing a scrap-book for the honored guest, after which refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Emmy Beradori and Miss Emma Devaefleming. Miss Vanasche and Mr. Harrison will be married June 25.

Davidsons on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson of Helvetia left Friday on a trip through the east as far as Vermont and Toronto, Canada. They will visit Mrs. Davidson's three brothers and three sisters who live in the east, whom she has not seen for 41 years.

On Trip East

Paul Patterson left Sunday by plane for Atlanta, Ga., Washington, D. C., and New York on business. He expected to be gone about 10 days.

Miss Meyers Wed At Home Rites

Miss Elsie Meyers and Mr. Thomas G. Garver of Portland were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8:30 at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garver, in Portland. The candle-light ceremony was performed in the presence of 40 guests. Rev. R. C. Mann of the Alberta church of the United Brethren in Christ officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Jesse Meyers of Willamina.

Miss Meyers graduated from Banks high school, and is employed at Duerr's Furniture company. Mr. Garver served with the army in the European theatre, and is now employed with the Otis Elevator company.

They will make their home in Portland.
