Miss Lodewick, Louis Meyer Wed In Floral Setting

In a setting of gladioli, calla lilies, delphiniums and palms, Miss Charlotte Lodewick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lodewick of Portland, became the bride of Louis W. G. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Meyer of Hillsboro, at the Rose City Presbyterian church, at four o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a fingertip veil and carried white roses centered with Talisman roses.

Mrs. George A. Houston, Jr., of Portland, matron of honor, wore a pale green gown and carried Talisman roses. Mr. Fred A. Anderson of Hillsboro was best man and Messrs. Kenneth and Walter Lodewick, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Miss Belva June Meyer of Portland sang "Because."

At the reception in the church, Misses Gladys and Dorothy Meyer, sisters of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake, and Mrs. William E. Carothers, also a sister of the bridegroom, served the punch.

After a short trip to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will make their home in Hillsboro.

Safeway Food Price Policies Pledge Protection for You!

Regardless of what happens to OPA ceiling prices on food, these Safeway price policies are a pledge that Safeway prices will be kept as low as possible:

1. In setting its retail prices Safeway will continue to give consumers the benefit of savings resulting from our way of doing business by pricing at the lowest point that will yield a reasonable profit. For many years Safeway's profit has averaged less than two cents on every dollar of sales.

2. Safeway will do no speculative hoarding. Stores will maintain the largest possible supplies of foods at all times and they will be made available to all customers.

3. Safeway will pay full legitimate market prices to farmers and other producers of food.
