

Betty Clapshaw Becomes Bride of Kenneth St. Pierre

St. Matthews church at Hillsboro was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 10 o'clock in the morning of July 6, when Betty Ann Clapshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clapshaw of Hillsboro, became the bride of Kenneth St. Pierre, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. St. Pierre of Portland. Rev. Anthony Terborgh, O. S. B., officiated at the nuptial mass. The church was decorated in blue and lavender streamers. Royal lilacs, calla lilies and roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with full train and seed pearls at the neckline. Her finger ring, set with a diamond, was held in place by a spray of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Miss Virginia Clapshaw, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pink, velvet, and carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations. Miss Laura Clapshaw, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length gown of pale yellow, velvet, with matching head-dress and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations.

Mr. Cabot St. Pierre of Portland, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Vernon Haskell of Portland and Mr. Clifford Van Lier of Forest Grove were usher.

Mrs. Loran Carver of Vermont, cousin of the bride, sang, accompanied by Miss Darlene Jarlee of Hillsboro, who also played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a reception and dinner were held at the Grange hall. Assisting were Mrs. W. F. Van Loo, Mrs. Joe Olesby, Mrs. Vincent Hennessy, Mrs. Charles Popcorn, Mrs. Verle Hayes, Mrs. Jim Vanderzanden, Miss Berle Van Loo, Miss Rosanna Eaton and Miss Dorothy Meyer. Mrs. Calvin St. Pierre, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake.

For going away the bride wore a gray wool gabardine suit with black and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon Caves they will make their home in Portland.

Mr. St. Pierre recently returned after serving three years in the army air corps.

Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McAllister of Fort Scott, Kan., cousins of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peppard of Vancouver, Wash., cousins of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. John Jager and Jack and Patricia of Aberdeen, Wash., uncle, aunt and cousins of the bride.

To Make Home Here

Ray Gillenwater and family of Hot Springs, Ark., are now making their home here. He expects to enter business here soon. Mr. Gillenwater is a former county assessor of Hot Springs. He is a brother of E. E. Gillenwater, who was with Alcoa Mining company here for some time and is now with Alcoa in Alaska.

Abendroths Return From Chicago Trip And Convention

Mr. and Mrs. F. Abendroth returned Friday from a three-week trip to Chicago, leaving here June 12. They made the trip both ways by train while in Chicago they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Gun, and Mrs. Abendroth attended the General Federation of Women's clubs as a delegate from the Hillsboro Coffee club.

Mrs. W. B. Chandler, president of the Oregon federation, and eight other delegates from Oregon also attended the national meeting. Mrs. Chandler met her husband in Denver en route home and went for a trip from there.

The Abendroths report good weather during their visit with exception of a few electric storms and hot days. They visited a cousin at Milwaukee where they witnessed the worst electric storm. They also visited a cousin who is connected with the Victor Memorial hospital at Waukegan, Ill.

Mrs. Abendroth, who traveled 14 miles each day from her daughter's home to the Stevens hotel, where the convention was held, says that Chicago is a work of art and that pedestrians almost have to be escorted across the streets. She had the following to say about the convention:

"On entering Chicago a most friendly and courteous atmosphere took immediate possession of the delegates attending the General Federation of Women's clubs June 17-22.

On entering the Stevens hotel they knew the world's largest hotel had opened its doors to the largest women's organization in the world. There are two and a half million members grouped in the 16,500 clubs; including the 31 foreign and territorial club delegates, there were upwards of 3000 present."

Honorable Dwight H. Greene, governor of Illinois, welcomed the bride and the state. Honorable Edward J. Kelly, mayor of Chicago, welcomed them to the city.

Questions discussed ranged from high cost of kitchen commodities to problems of providing food for hungry millions overseas; from intra-club politics to building international law adequate for new age scientists springing on the world when they split the atom.

The Illinois Federated clubs were organized into most charming and complete hostesses and committees and everyone was well cared for.

Tons of yardage was contributed to the Marathon Mound and a large number of relatives at the home of the bride's parents, with a reception in the evening. Mrs. John Ems served the wedding cake. Miss Irene Minger cut the loaves, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Ellison, Mrs. Anna Thielke, Mrs. Everett McKeehan and Mrs. Rudolph Boshart.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe left Wednesday for Philadelphia, Pa., where they will spend a month visiting Mr. Monroe's relatives.

Mary Ann Jessop Plights Troth In June Ceremony

Miss Mary Ann Jessop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jessop of Milwaukee, became the bride of Mr. Albert H. Troutman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Troutman of North Plains, June 15 at a double ring ceremony performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church in Portland. Dr. John Board officiated. Mr. Albert C. Hington sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Greg's "I Love You." Mrs. Mary Francis Mattison was bridesmaid. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jessop and also played the wedding march.

The bride's gown was white satin with long sleeves, a fitted bodice and full skirt with full-length tulle veil held in place with a corsage of seed pearls. She wore pearls and carried staphanotis and white rosebuds.

Miss Susan Jean Jessop, wearing blue net, was maid of honor for her sister. Her flowers were rosebuds and sweet peas. Misses Jane Ann Troutman, Emma Jean Williams and Mary Francis Mattison were bridesmaids. Their dresses were pink, green and blue net. They carried pastel colored sweet peas. The flower girl, Miss June Ann Troutman, carried a nosegay of spring flowers. She wore a long dress of yellow eyeslet.

Mr. Ed Troutman was best man. Ushers were Messrs. Max Snyder, David Gottmann and Lloyd L. Morrison.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor of the Oregon beaches. They are now at home at North Plains.

Alice Cleveland Nurse Graduate

Miss Alice Cleveland, a graduate of Hillsboro union high school of 1943, was graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School Department of Nursing June 14.

Miss Henrietta Doltz, M. N., director of department of nursing, presided at the program and awarded the diplomas. August Leroy Strand, Ph. D., president of Oregon State college, gave the commencement address.

Other county girls graduating in nursing were Mary Jane Fullen and Jean Warrens, Forest Grove; Virginia Parks, Tigard; and Bethel June Wilson, Sherwood. Adele Harris Walleit, Forest Grove, received a certificate in public health nursing.

Nuptials Held At St. Cecilia

The marriage of Miss Patricia A. Fleskes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fleskes of Cedar Mill, to Mr. Wilbur T. Monroe of Philadelphia, Pa., was solemnized July 6 in St. Cecilia's church of Beaverton by Rev. George Soderberg.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown made with a fitted bodice and insert of ivory lace. A wreath of orange blossoms held her train-length tulle veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and boyarinas.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, with a reception in the evening. Mrs. John Ems served the wedding cake. Miss Irene Minger cut the loaves, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Ellison, Mrs. Anna Thielke, Mrs. Everett McKeehan and Mrs. Rudolph Boshart.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe left Wednesday for Philadelphia, Pa., where they will spend a month visiting Mr. Monroe's relatives.

Hammers Observe Golden Wedding At "Open House"

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hammer celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home, 222 East Baseline street, with an "open house" from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Walter Hammer and Miss Alice Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clarke, formerly of Hillsboro, Wash. July 8, 1896, and have lived in this community many years. They are the parents of five children, three of whom are living: Arthur Hammer of Hillsboro, Dean of Los Angeles, and Glen of Santa Cruz, Cal. One son, Floyd, lost his life in World War I. The daughter, Pearl Evva Sparks, died about nine years ago.

Assisting in serving were Betty and Virginia Sparks, granddaughters of the couple, and Betty May. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hammer greeted the guests. Mildred Bellamy had charge of the gifts.

The rooms were decorated in sweet peas, wild foxglove and fern from the beach, brought over by their son Arthur.

About 100 guests attended to felicitate the 50-year bride and bridegroom, and many lovely gifts were received.

Among out-of-town relatives here to celebrate the event is Mrs. Eva Holbrook of Angus, Cal., sister of Mr. Hammer.
