

Thieves Ransack More Homes in Progress Area

PROGRESS—Thieves were again active in the Progress district last week. Frank Kosmoski reported that a prowler entered their yard about dusk, passed a bunk bed where the boys were sleeping and fumbled about the tractor a few minutes, then entered the barn. The boys notified their father, but when he investigated the man had gone. The Jack Schlitz home was prowled last week while the family were at the beach. They found the house thoroughly ransacked. Ten dollars were taken from the little girl's bank. State police are investigating.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wisniewski and family of Olympia, Wash., are visiting this week at the home of Frank Kosmoski in Progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huff drove to Corvallis this week to locate living quarters before the opening of school this fall. Huff will enter Oregon State college.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skel of Los Angeles, July 5, a son, Edward Michael. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. Skel.

Mr. B. L. Steinberg of Port Townsend, Wash., is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. L. Andrews, this week.

Mrs. H. F. Ellender received word from her son, Harry Jr., who is stopping over in Boston, Mass., for a few days. Ellender reports that Boston is quite different from what it was a year ago. It has lost much of its busy atmosphere since the war activities have drawn to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Read of Lyle, Wash., visited at the W. D. Staats home over the week-end. Mrs. Read is an Australian. She arrived in states only a few weeks ago. They are living in Lyle temporarily and expect to move into this locality soon.

Mrs. Thurston Skel of Oakland, Cal., is spending a few days with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alred Skel.

Visits from South Dakota

MOUNTAIN HOME—Mrs. Allen Wilkie of Fort Pierre, S. D., and her nephew, Chester Barnes of Ontario, were visitors at the W. C. Edy home Saturday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ely's cousin, Emil Doughtie and son Frank of Oswego. Mrs. Wilkie and Mrs. Ely's parents were neighbors in South Dakota some years ago.

The Glensons conducted a most inspirational service at Mountain Home church last Sunday evening. A. P. Layton preached the morning sermon. Mr. Ryan will be preaching again next Sunday.

Company at the Ryan Ego home last week included Mrs. Lee Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lane of Elco, Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Lane of Cloverdale, Rector Jack of Venonia, Miss Zora Billings and J. P. Jones.

Strickler Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Harry Prather Strickler, who died Sunday at his home at Sheridan, were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Mountain Home church with W. E. Pegg, Mortuary, at Beaverton in charge. Interment was at Middleton cemetery.

Mr. Strickler was born in Greencastle, Pa., on June 23, 1885. When a small boy the family moved to Auburn, Neb. As a young man he went to Colorado and took up a homestead. He was married to Josephine Emily Ely on April 14, 1915. She preceded him in death on August 3, 1930.

The family moved to Sheridan in 1902, residing there until 1939 when they moved to Sherwood. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Lottie Scammon and a son, C. S. Strickler, both of Nebraska. He is also survived by four daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Peterson and Mrs. May Werre of Sherwood; Mrs. Lona Baugh of Portland and a son, Mrs. Laura Downey of Calhoun, Wash., and a son, Joseph Strickler of Sheridan, and eight grandchildren. His youngest son, John, died in August, 1944.

Harrison Club Sets Picnic Date

HARRISON—Harrison club met at the home of Mrs. W. S. Hahn Thursday evening, honoring Mrs. E. J. Trout with a picnic and blue shower. Mrs. W. V. Hahn was assisting hostess. After a brief business session the evening was spent playing games, after which Mrs. Trout opened the gifts, and refreshments were served. Mrs. C. I. Williams and Mrs. Homer Pierce are making plans for the picnic at Scout park August 4.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly visited at Ray Ocean and Netarts Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gillenwater of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl John. The Gillenwaters formerly lived in this community but due to his ill health they had to quit farming. He is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maller and family returned Monday from a trip to Canada where they had been visiting relatives.

Visitors at the C. I. Williams home last week were Mrs. Edna Zilly, formerly of Rockaway, and Mrs. Don Garrigus, who spent the week-end there while Mr. Garrigus went fishing at East Lake.

Miss Carlyle Speaks On Work in China

ORENCO—Ladies' Circle met for a pot-luck picnic dinner July 10 at the home of Mrs. Hulda Connell. A large crowd attended. Miss Beth Carlyle of Forest Grove gave an interesting talk about her work during the last two years in China. She was presented with a large bouquet of flowers and a good luck card. She will return soon to China.

Visits Sister

Mrs. Hilda Emerson of Minneapolis, Minn., visited with the week-end with her sister, Mrs. H. Harala.
