

Scholls-Laurel Unit Farm Union Slates Picnic

FARMINGTON—Scholls-Laurel unit of the Farmers' Union met at the schoolhouse last Thursday evening. Moving pictures shown by Tony Abts were enjoyed by everyone. All members and friends are invited to the Farmers' Union picnic at Shute park July 21. There will be a ball game in the forenoon, a basket dinner at noon, and games and skating in the afternoon.

Miss Hope Lareom is here spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Dalby. Miss Lareom was formerly with the marines and served two years at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, Cal., where she was a member of one of the first women's contingents in camp and was a sergeant.

School Board Named

Directors elected at the district consolidated school meeting at the Grabel schoolhouse last Thursday evening were W. T. Putnam, chairman; Earl Simantel for two years, and L. Hillecke for a three-year term.

Mrs. Eva Bagnell, who has been visiting for the past month at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edgar Rehn, went to Hubbard Thursday, where she is employed at the Sunset Mineral Springs, health resort.

Reunion Slated

Annual Farmington reunion will be held at the Christian church Sunday, July 29. There will be a Sunday school at 10 o'clock, followed by church services, a basket dinner at noon and a program in the afternoon.

Cecil Boge, who is employed at Coquille, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boge. Saturday evening guests at the Ed Boge home were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rice of Coquille and Mrs. Maude Baker of St. Helens.

Mrs. J. B. Mello and Mrs. Edward Puncoscher celebrated their birthday anniversaries on Monday with a family dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loyd of Chicago, Ill. visited at the home of Mrs. Loyd's brother, Peter Klein, and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Conway and family of Portland were Sunday visitors at the Peter Klein home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Keeling and family of Tacoma, Wash., spent last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nathan Weston, and family.

West Point Cadet Home on Furlough

BETHANY—Robert Graf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Graf, arrived Thursday morning by plane from New York for a 20-day furlough. Robert is a cadet at West Point and is in his third year. He is visiting with friends and relatives in Portland, Corvallis and California before returning east.

Miss Delores Planchet of Portland is a guest of Miss Marilyn Graf for several days.

Methodist Sunday school enjoyed its annual picnic at Columbia park Saturday, with races, a ball game and swimming as entertainment of the day. A picnic lunch was served at noon.

Intermediate young people of the Baptist church enjoyed a party and wiener roast at the church Tuesday evening.

Farmers Send Sugar Allowance Petition To Congressmen

CHERRY GROVE—Gaston Local No. 240 of the Farmers' Union met Thursday with a good attendance. The county Farmers' Union president, Henry Johnson, and Mrs. Johnson of Cedar Mill were present. Detleif and Johnson reported on the last county meeting. Resolutions were given by Beverly Anderson and Frank Mariner and there was group singing. A resolution was adopted by the local to be sent to Senators Morse and Cordon and to Representative Norblad concerning the allowance of more sugar to those who have fruit to can. The county Farmers' Union picnic will be held Sunday at Shute park in Hillsboro. All members and their families and farmer friends are invited to attend. The next August local meeting will be August 8 at the K. P. hall. The pot-luck lunch is to include watermelon and cantaloupe.

Held Reunion

Honor guest at a family reunion Sunday at the H. B. Allen home near Wapato was J. H. Jimmie Nickerson of Salem. Nickerson, who is an invalid, was brought from Salem by S. Cyrus Cottrell and Albert Lidice and son William. Nickerson has arthritis and has been a patient at the Deaconess hospital in Salem for nearly 30 years. His cousins, Mrs. Clara Cooper of Fern Hill, H. B. Allen of Wapato, Mrs. Edith Patton of Cherry Grove, Mrs. Ethel Cooper of Lakeview and Mrs. Mattie Newhouse of Philomath and their families greeted him at the Allen home and enjoyed dinner together. It had been seven years since this group had been together.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Hurlburt have returned to Cherry Grove after being gone about a year. Recently Hurlburt worked at the Menefee turkey ranch near Yamhill. At present he is employed at Simson's in Scoggins Valley. The Hurlburts are living in one of the G. A. Johnson houses.

Missionary Visits

Miss Margaret (Dolly) Hinman of Forest Grove, formerly a missionary in Turkey, and her sister, Mrs. Mabel Davis of Idaho, and Mrs. Jones and a friend of Forest Grove picnicked along the Tualatin at Cherry Grove Friday. They visited Mrs. Edith Patton in the afternoon and also went to the old Hinman place where Miss Hinman lived as a girl. The Hinman place was later known as the Pat Brown place and Joe Obermeier lived there for a number of years, leaving two years ago. Miss Hinman located the old Al Davis place where the Alder Creek mill now stands. She wanted to visit the McCann grave north of the main road in the valley. The old house near there was recently torn down by the new owners. Miss Hinman plans to make a visit to Idaho with her sister.

Gives Shower

Mrs. Walter Anderson was hostess for a bridal shower for Mrs. William Zinn (Lorraine Lee) Friday evening. There were 40 guests, including several from out of town. After some pleasant games the bride opened her many lovely gifts. Mrs. Anderson was assisted by her

THE OLD HOME TOWN

Approved by U. S. Patent Office By STANLEY

Miss Betty Ober, daughter of William Ober, fell and broke her leg last week while picking wild blackberries at Pike. She is able to be around on crutches now.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Pruett, a daughter, Barbara Rae, July 15 at the Hubbard maternity home at Forest Grove. Pruett and daughter Sonya are staying with Mrs. Pruett's sister, Mrs. Glenn Lee, this week.

Chet Hanson is recovering from severe injuries received when his team ran away with a drag horse, pulling it over him. X-rays showed no bones broken but he received severe bruises.

Mrs. Minnie Obermeier writes from Long Beach, Cal., where she is visiting her daughter, that it is very hot and she longs to be back in Oregon.

The Merle Spink house was sold last week to Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson bought the Hugu Davis place here about two weeks ago.

Considerable interest was shown last week by local people in the new shovel which moved into and up the valley at snail's pace. It took over half a day for it to make its way up the valley to the mill. It is the property of Fred Koenecke and will be used for loading gravel trucks. Mr. Koenecke has purchased two new gravel trucks. The gravel will be used on the new road being built back to his Trask river holdings.

Bridal Showers Honor Mrs. Wales

REEDVILLE—Miss Geneva Inlay and Miss Jonita Lorentzen entertained at a bridal shower at the home of Miss Inlay Monday night, honoring Mrs. William Wales (Marjorie Richards), who wedding was an event of July 1 Games, at which Mrs. Loren Slade and Mrs. Al Schappert won prizes, provided entertainment. Refreshments followed. The bride received many lovely gifts. Of the 24 present, four were from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Wales have returned from a wedding trip to Crater Lake and are now settled in one of the Ferry apartments in Reedville.

Honoring Mrs. William Wales at a bridal shower, a group of 29 relatives and friends from Portland and Metzger gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Richards, parents of the bride, Sunday afternoon. The bride received many practical gifts for the home, including two sets of dishes. Refreshments were served by the group.

Program Presented

An instructive program on the topic, "Know Your Church," was presented Sunday night by the Christian Endeavor young people at the schoolhouse. A panel discussion in which Rev. Harry Hampton, Kathleen Inlay, Kathleen Wheeler, John Geiger and Jack Kirkwood participated, gave many pertinent facts on the personnel of the Presbyterian church, and two reels of pictures showed the
