

Home Owners Asked to Cut Low Limbs; Baseball Game Slated

CORNELIUS—Home owners in Cornelius are asked to cut low-hanging limbs over sidewalks so that it is safe to pass under them in darkness.

Sunday at 2 p. m. there will be a baseball game on the grounds at St. Peter's Lutheran church between the married men and the single men.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Nash and family left Monday for an extended visit in Nebraska with friends and relatives.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mrs. Martha Mann celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary July 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mooberry in Hillsboro. Gifts were presented to her and in the afternoon pictures were taken and refreshments served. Mrs. Henry Tines, whose birthday was also that day, cut the cake. Places were laid for 14 guests in the evening. Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Rebecca Goodin were entertained with a dinner at the home of Mrs. Tines. Sunday, Mrs. Mann's birthday was observed at the Methodist church in Cornelius.

Mrs. A. Stronker is at Canby at camp meeting with her daughter. Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner and sons have moved from the L. C. Mooberry farm to the L. C. Mooberry farm in the South Dakota picnic Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Davis is ill at her home. R. E. Tanner is still in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. He is still critically ill. Tanner is staying in Portland with friends to be near her husband.

Picnic Slated
August 9 the Walther League of Washington county will have its picnic at Blooming.

Funeral Tuesday For Mrs. Wescott
Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Wescott, 54, of Timber, who died July 1 at Coffey Memorial hospital in Portland, were conducted Tuesday morning at the St. Anthony church, Forest Grove, with Father John Larkin officiating. Burial was in Forest View cemetery with the Forest Grove Undertaking Co. in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Wescott was born July 19, 1891, at Milwaukee, Wis., and came to Oregon at the age of three. She spent most of her life in Washington county.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph H. Wescott Jr. of Timber; two sisters, Mrs. Mona Johnson of Portland and Mrs. Mary Willis of Raymond, Wash.; and two brothers, Tony Rinck of Buxton and Frank Rinck of Rainier, Wash.

HOME COMMENTARIES

SOMETHING FROM NOTHING!
Whether it's in attic, scrap or bag or junk yard, there are always possibilities of a bright future for many a thing thrown into discard!

PAGING CINDERELLA!... 'Memor those camp stools whose covers gave way on the last trip out! Turn them into luggage racks for the guest room by stripping them of the canvas seats. Varnish, stain or paint the wood. For each, make three trench wood strips of chintz or other material having a pattern with the room, doubled, and neatly seamed. Firmly tack them across the frames, one in the middle, one near each end. A good idea to bring into the living room—as a tray holder. The strips may be of needle point, cross stitch or some of the room's upholstery or drapery material. Quite easily it may become a permanent coffee table!

DRANGE GRATE MAGIC...
There's an orange crate on the kindling pile, isn't there? May be two. And you could use bed-side tables. Line them with oilcloth if the desired color, cut, fitted and pasted in place. You'll need a yard of 46-inch oilcloth for lining each crate. Make gathered skirt pieces of chintz, cretonne or a gay print, and tack to the top of the sides and back (it doesn't have to go clean around). Then make a top cover with a 5-inch all-around frill to thumb-tack or baste into place. The shelves can hold books, magazines, bed-side radio, water jug. Imagine them red oilcloth-lined, with red and white checked cotton material, and crisp frills of white muslin, organdy or eyelet embroidery. It will take 2 1/2 yards of the checked material, depending upon width, and 1/2 yard material for ruffles for each table.

By connecting the two covered crates with a piece of heavy glass or a long board, covered and be-ruffled, this something-out-of-nothing trick becomes a dressing table. Now you need a dressing table stool! Using a butter tub, nail lid to bottom. Make cushion of cotton batting, stretched to fit. Dress in ruffled skirt with big ribbon sash.
