

Bernadine Smith Becomes Bride Of Texas Man

Sacred Heart church, Portland, was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony at 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 15, when Miss Bernadine M. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Smith of Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. Richard A. Crampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crampton of San Antonio, Texas. Rev. Father Paul Benedict, uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white street length dress with matching small white hat. She wore a corsage of gardenias interwoven with silver and white bows of ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens, cousins of the bride, acted as matron of honor and best man.

After the ceremony, dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and close relatives. Rev. Fathers Paul

Former Resident Visits Relatives

John Engeldinger, who spent his boyhood days here, has been visiting his wife and children, Jane and Jack. Mr. Engeldinger has been in Los Angeles for 30 years, and is construction estimator for the Twentieth Century Fox company. The Californians visited with Mrs. Engeldinger's relatives at Seattle and with his relatives at Portland and Hillsboro. A family dinner was given in their honor Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engeldinger and family, other guests being George and Matt Engeldinger and families of Portland, and Miss Anne Engeldinger of Vancouver. They left this morning for Los Angeles.

and Anthony Benedict were also present for the dinner.

The young couple left immediately for Denver, Colo., where Mr. Crampton is employed as airplane mechanic with the Transcontinental Air Lines.

MARRIED JULY 6—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sattler (Maxine McPherson), who were married Saturday, July 6, at the Methodist church in Cornelius.—(Story in Argus of July 11.)

BPW Picnic Held Friday Evening

The lovely garden of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Luedtke was the scene of a picnic Friday night for the Business and Professional Women's club meeting. Tables were set on the lawn near the fireplace, decorations being low bowls of roses, a gift of Teufel's greenhouses. The Teufels also sent a large basket of gladys and gardenia corsages for the officers.

Mrs. Margaret Mooberry, new president, and her staff of officers, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Maude Stumard, chairman of the Goddess candidate committee, being absent, Mrs. Zola Morgan gave the report. Miss Gustavie Bogler gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Audrey Seabold, the new treasurer, and other reports were given.

It was announced that executive council meetings would be held this year on the second Wednesday of each month. The next council meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elva Batchelor, past president. Next meeting will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. Eunice Kimmelerle on Friday night, August 16, at which time Miss Virginia Moore, of Jones, will report on the national convention at Cleveland, Ohio.
