

Miss Guerber Weds Mr. Teufel at Evening Rites

At an evening ceremony on July 27, in the First Evangelical Reformed church of Portland, Miss Ruth Rose Guerber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Guerber, route 1, Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. Alfred Burkhardt Teufel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Teufel, Cedar Mill. Rev. C. W. Sauerwein officiated.

The church was attractively decorated in all white, with gladioli, delphinium and calla lilies being used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white embroidered marquisette dress with long train and full veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and roses.

Miss Edna Berger was maid of honor for her cousin. Bridesmaids were Miss Rosalie Teufel, twin sister of the bridegroom, Miss Marge Guerber of Corvallis, and Miss Nancy Teufel. All wore identical dresses of pink net with matching floral headpieces, and carried bouquets of sweetpeas and roses. Miss Sally Hornecker and Virginia Berger, also wearing pink net, lighted the candles before the ceremony.

Mr. Don Smith was best man and Messrs. Don Guerber, Robert Teufel and Frank Setniker were ushers.

Miss Dorothy Kirkwood played the wedding music, while Mrs. William Jeune sang "Always" and "Through the Years."

Pouring and assisting at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. Frank W. Connell, Mrs. Roland Hornecker, Mrs. R. Alvin Mohr and Mrs. Frank Setniker, Misses Betty and Jean Youngen, all of Hillsboro, Mrs. Robert Isler, Mrs. A. J. Gray, Mrs. Oliver Groce, Mrs. F. G. Leary, Mrs. Charles Schielke of Portland, Mrs. R. L. Guerber of Corvallis and Mrs. E. Pickett and Miss Hulda Berger of San Francisco also assisted.

After a trip to the Canadian Rockies, the couple will live at their home on Cornell road. For going away the bride wore a gray suit with gray accessories and an orchid corsage.
