CHEERY GROVE — Descendants of William and Mary Patton gathered at the Patton picnic grounds along the Tualatin for their twenty-first annual picnic Sunday. There were fifty-four relatives and friends present to enjoy the dinner. Ice cream was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Patton, Jr., and Mrs. A. B. Snider of Portland who will celebrate their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary August 9. The annual picnic was the first time they have been able to be with the group since they celebrated their fifty-fourth anniversary the previous year. Construction to Start on Bridge

CHEERY GROVE — The bridge crew tore the old bridge down across the Tualatin on the South road last week. They are getting the timbers in place for the new structure. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps, former residents of Cheery Grove, write that they are nicely located at Hilo, Hawaii. They are enjoying the sunshine. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lee and Ronald went to Newberg Thursday evening to hear a fourteen-year-old preacher, Mr. Griswal, at the Assembly of God church. Dr. and Mrs. Levi Lovegren preached in Medford and Ashland Sunday. Mr. Joe Stevens is home from Hillsboro hospital, recovering from a having accident in which she broke her leg. A load of hay upset at the Stevens farm in Patton Valley formerly known as the Pete Pearson place.

Two Youths Hurt In Gun Mishaps

Two county youths were hospitalized last week-end following shooting accidents near their homes. Richard Earl Haney, 15, was taken to Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, Saturday with a thigh wound from a .38-caliber bullet. The bullet entered the right thigh and exited the left. The boy was reportedly aiming the gun at birds when it was accidentally discharged.

Francis Cop, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cop of Banks, was taken to Forest Grove general hospital in a serious condition following an accident Friday afternoon. The boy suffered wounds from a .22-caliber bullet which entered the front of the abdomen. Cop and two friends were reportedly aiming the gun at birds when it was accidentally discharged.
