

Anniversary Honored At Cooper Mt. Picnic

(By Mrs. Isabelle Thomas) COOPER MOUNTAIN—Cooper Mountain Community club spent Sunday at the Elsemore park on the Tualatin river. It was pot-luck with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas serving the cake, as it was their 27th wedding anniversary. There were 60 present.

Grain Crop Harvested Mrs. Tom Bye just finished harvesting the grain crop. It is a government test crop and is to be used for seed. M. Swanson had a new well drilled. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nelson entertained the combined junior and senior leagues of the Central Lutheran church at Portland, August 11, at their place on the Tualatin river. Mrs. Gene Sipe received a lengthy letter from Mrs. Walter Savage, who is in the Tacoma hospital and has undergone several major operations. Her condition is good. Club Gives Housewarming Anniversary Honored A number of neighbors visited at the O. Thomas home Saturday night and celebrated Mr. and Mrs. Thomas' 27th wedding anniversary. The East Cooper Mountain Ladies club had a surprise housewarming on Mrs. W. S. Stridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Thomas, who recently moved to Lake Grove. Put-
