

Famous Chapel Eliander-Shaw Wedding Scene

The famous old New England chapel of the Nahant Village church at Nahant, Mass., was the scene of a candlelight ceremony July 14 when Miss Harriet Shaw of Boston became the bride of Mr. Harry Frederick Eliander, son of Mr. Harry F. Eliander, son of Dr. Henry A. Shaw, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride wore a lovely dress of dusty blue with a corsage of white gardenias. Mr. Maurice A. Shaw, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bridegroom recently returned from overseas duty in the Pacific area as a chief radio technician in the navy. He graduated from Beaverton high school and is now a student in engineering at Oregon State college.

The bride is a graduate of Nahant high school, Burdett college and Stoughton secretarial school. She also studied piano for 12 years under Nellie Akhurst and Albin Metcalfe, well known American concert artist and composer.

After a week to elope trip the young couple will make their home at Corvallis, where the bridegroom will continue his studies.

On Alaskan Vacation

Rita Doyle and Grace Himes left Tuesday, August 20, by plane for Vancouver, B. C., where they boarded the Princess Nevah for Skagway. En route they will make stops at Wrangell, Prince Rupert, Ketchikan and Juneau. Rita and Grace are employees of the Commercial National bank.

Ada Evans and C. J. Croeni Wed

LEBANY—Mrs. Ada Jane Evans became the bride of Clarence J. Croeni at an impressive service held at the bridegroom's home Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Frank Friesen of the Bethany Baptist church officiated.

Carl Eggman and Theo Rich, both sons, accompanied by Mrs. Lydia Croeni.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of egg blue with a corsage of white gardenias. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simon of Portland.

Mrs. J. Erickson was the attendant for her sister, and Mr. Solly Maurer was best man.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Julius Croeni, the bridegroom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simon, Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson, Mr. Bill Simon, Mrs. Al Simon, Miss Lydia Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Friesen and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boen, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Kirtland and Maud of Scappoose; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eggman, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Rich, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Friesen, Mrs. Lydia Croeni, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Croeni and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Croeni.

After a week's honeymoon at Olympia and British Columbia the couple will make their home near West Union.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Has Birthday Party

Members of the V. F. W. Auxiliary enjoyed a birthday party last Wednesday at the V. F. W. hall. Hostesses were ladies who had birthdays in April, May, June and July.

Cards and games were played and prizes awarded. Refreshments were served.

Hinsdales Have Golden Wedding Picnic at Park

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hinsdale of Hillsboro celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday with a picnic at South park.

The couple was married in Oakland, Ore. 50 years ago. They settled in Roseburg after a trip to Iowa, and later moved to Forest Grove, where Mr. Hinsdale was manager of the prune plant for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Hinsdale resided in Cornelius five years before moving to Hillsboro.

Of the eight children of this union, seven are living—Harold of Albany, George of Roseburg, Vernon and Wendell of Portland, Warren, Tillamook; Mrs. Lois Worthington, Salem, and Mrs. Opal Hartman of Eugene.

There are 14 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. All but one grandson (still in the navy), one grand-daughter, and one great-grandson attended the picnic. A few family friends made a total of 46 persons present.

The 50-year bride and bridegroom were presented with a four-tiered anniversary cake, and a beautiful pair of 17-jewel gold Waltham wrist watches by their children, and many other gifts.

Cornelius Couple Married Aug. 18

CORNELIUS—George Long and Mrs. Anna O. Long were married Sunday, August 18, 1946, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schriber at McMinnville.

Only members of the immediate family attended the wedding. After the ceremony the couple will make their home at the old Long home north of Cornelius.

Westerners Enjoy Oreno Gathering

Twenty-five members of the Washington County Westerners enjoyed a trail ride and watermelon feed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Paine, route 4, Hillsboro, Saturday night.

The Westerners and Forest Grove Ranch riders will put on a two-day show at the Washington county fair in Hillsboro this week, a show for kids on Friday and for adults on Saturday.

Attend Gresham Fair

Mrs. W. R. Manley and her mother, Mrs. Hattie Brownhill, attended the Gresham county fair at Gresham Thursday. Mrs. Brownhill, who lived in Gresham many years ago, when her husband, Timothy Brownhill, taught school there, recalled that the first fair was organized as a school fair. It has been continued through the years until it is now one of the largest (if not the largest) to be held in the state.

While in Gresham she met Theodore Brugger and Mrs. Charles Cleveland, who were instrumental in the first fair. Madames Manley and Brownhill also visited Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jensen, formerly of Hillsboro.

Former Residents Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Glenn and son Lowell left Friday to attend to their home at Exeter, Cal., following a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Amacher. He was in the quality control department of the cannery here for a number of years and is now with a packing concern at Exeter.

Miss Kohlstrand Weds Mr. Hawkins

In a setting of pink delphiniums and white asters, Miss Agnes Kohlstrand, daughter of Mrs. Louisa Kohl, and Mr. Warren, became the bride of Mr. Ivan L. Hawkins, Hillsboro, August 25 at the bride's home. Rev. E. Bjorkquist of Warren officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Verne Kohlstrand, wore a white eyelid embroidered gown over blue taffeta, her finger-tip veil held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and blue delphiniums.

Maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Mattson, cousin of the bride, who wore pink net over pink taffeta and carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers. Flower girl was Miss Diane Carlson, niece of the bride, who wore yellow net over yellow taffeta and also carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers. The bridegroom was best man.

Mr. Robert Mattson, sister-in-law of the bride, sang "Because" and "Always."

A reception was held at the bride's home following the ceremony with Miss Doris Hawkins, sister of the bridegroom, pouring, and Mrs. Evelyn Carlson, sister of the bride, cutting the wedding cake. Mrs. Ed Simon and Mrs. W. Elsborg assisted.

For going away the bride wore a gray suit with blue accessories. After a wedding trip to Oregon beaches the couple will make their home in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins are both employed at the Columbia county courthouse in St. Helens and as Mr. Hawkins is deputy county clerk he was able to write his own marriage license.

Picture Scheduled For Church Sunday

The Man that Forgot God is the title of the picture to be shown by Oscar Leeper Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the Free Methodist church at Fifth and Oak. This is an educational picture and, according to the minister, George G. Edwards, "May keep some young person from being wrecked."

The Gospel Chapel people have changed their schedule so that the Gideons will have their service at 11 a. m. and the congregation will attend the showing of the picture at 8 p. m. The general public is invited to attend the showing, which will be free. An offering will be taken for expenses.

Family Reunion Honors Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wall and son Billie of New Orleans, La., were honor guests at a reunion of the Hahn family and other relatives at Raftery grove near Mountaineer Sunday, August 18. Mr. Wall and family were visiting his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee of Shady Brook.

Other relatives attending from a distance were Mrs. Emily Wall Downing of Santa Barbara, Cal., Mrs. Flora Rockstroff of Napa county, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. A. Schuering of Portland.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Gawley of Yreka, Ore., are announcing the birth of a son, Thomas Arthur, August 7 at Portland Sanitarium. The arrival is a grandson of Mrs. Harriet Lieallien of Portland, formerly of Hillsboro. Mrs. Gawley was on the Hillsboro union high school faculty for several years.

Miss Kidney Honored

Miss Dorothy Kidney, bride-elect of John McCormack, was honored guest at a shower Friday evening, with Mrs. Gene Stone and Mrs. C. K. Cason as hostesses. It was given at the home of Mrs. Cason's mother, Mrs. A. W. Havens. Miss Kidney received many lovely gifts. The girls present were schoolmates of the bride-elect.

Visit Friends Here

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spain and son Robert of Seattle visited from Saturday until Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hartman. Monday they visited the Oregon beaches. Spain, who was in the service, is a former Hillsboro resident.
