

Miss Glascoe and Mr. Maloney Wed At McMinnville

St. Barnabas Episcopal church of McMinnville was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Frances Juana Glascoe became the bride of Mr. John Thomas Maloney of McMinnville. Rev. Charles Ketter, vicar of the church, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. George Mead of Portland, wore a dress of white satin with silver beading. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley with white satin streamers.

Miss Ellen Louise Stone, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She was dressed in champagne brocade taffeta. Bridesmaids were the Misses Betty Mae Jackson and Dorothy Christensen, dressed in blue taffeta. All attendants wore mits and their bouquets were autumn shades of chrysanthemums.

Mr. James Cline was best man and ushers were Messrs. Pierre Mead, Kelton Perry Jr., Jack Walker and Earl Ayres.

The bride's mother was walked in periwinkle pink and wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. In the receiving line were the wedding party, the bride's mother and the bridegroom's grandmother and aunt Mrs. A. Mahie.

Miss Helen Elford of Everett, Wash., a student at Linfield college, sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte, preceding the ceremony, and at the reception she sang "I Love Thee," "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Flora Maloney, an aunt of the bridegroom, accompanied the soloist and played the wedding music.

The bride, a former Hillsboro girl, is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Glascoe of Portland and Lester L. Glascoe of Alaska. She was a student at Linfield college, McMinnville.

The bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Maloney. He was a flier in the naval air corps, serving from 1941 to 1945 inclusive, and at time of discharge was a lieutenant. He re-entered Linfield college after returning home and graduated in the class of June, this year.

The young couple left immediately for a honeymoon trip and upon their return will make their home in McMinnville, where the bridegroom is with the First National bank.
