

Seminar Planned Pilgrim Lutheran Church, Beaverton

Members of Pilgrim Lutheran congregation of Beaverton will meet at their church next Sunday for a congregational seminar, according to announcement by the pastor, Rev. Erwin Gerken. This seminar is presented under the auspices of the Oregon and Washington district of Missouri Synod Lutheran church in which the local church holds membership.

Assisting the local pastor in conducting the seminar will be Rev. William H. Hillmer of Portland, executive secretary of district, as well as the visitor of this circuit,

Rev. George Reule of Trinity Lutheran, Hillsboro.

The seminar program calls for a session Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time Rev. Hillmer will lead a discussion on the topic, "Church Officers and Their Duties." This will be followed by a fellowship dinner sponsored by the Ladies Aid.

The main seminar session will be held Sunday evening and will start at 7 o'clock. The topic for the evening will be "Building a Strong Church for the Right America Tomorrow."

The evening session will be concluded with the showing of some colored pictures on the work of the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes left Wednesday for a few days' sojourn at Dorchester House.

Miss Wyffels Weds Maurice Claeys At St. Matthews

Miss Marguerite Dorothy Wyffels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emiel Wyffels Sr. of route 4, Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. Maurice Claeys, son of Mr. Achiel Claeys of Hillsboro, at a Nuptial Mass at 9:30 Tuesday morning, November 12, in St. Matthews church, Hillsboro. Father J. T. Costello officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Rene Wyffels, who is also her Godfather. Her dress had a satin bodice with a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt and train of ruffled tulle. She wore a lace bordered finger-tip veil which was held in place with two clusters of orange blossoms. She carried an orchid with white streamers of bouvardia on a white prayer book which was given to her by the bridegroom and also her father's First Communion rosary.

Miss Celestine Waibel was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pink dress of brocade satin with a sweetheart neckline and a full net skirt over crepe with matching Juliet cap and shoulder veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white pompons and pink bouvardia with white satin streamers.

Albert VanAsche was best man and usher, wearing a tuxedo. Brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Francis Waibel, brother-in-law of the bride.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white pompons on the altars. There were palms and two baskets of chrysanthemums at the altar. The sanctuary. Along the aisle were draped streamers of white crepe paper.

Mrs. Winston Pool and Mrs. Edward Seus sang, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Finegan, who also played the wedding march.

Following the wedding ceremony dinner was served at the American Legion club to relatives and intimate friends of the young couple. Miss Lena Delaplanche was hostess, assisted by Miss Selina Van Moortel, and Misses Betty and Peggy Wyffels, cousins of the bride and Miss Leona Meier.

A reception followed from two until four. Mrs. Francis Waibel, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Claeys, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Betty Heinrich served the ice cream and Miss Julianna Sahfeld presided over the punch bowl.

In the evening the young couple entertained their many friends with a dance at the Grange hall in Hillsboro.

For going away the bride wore a grey wool suit with black accessories and an orange corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and attended the Northwestern Business college in Portland. Until recently she was employed by the selectivity service boards of Beaverton and Forest Grove.

The bridegroom is a veteran of World War II, having been in the service three and a half years, which were spent in the Pacific theatre of action.

After a wedding trip to California they will live in their new home north of Hillsboro.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Remi Kerckhoff and family of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wyffels Jr. of Yamhill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Bel of Klamath Falls, Mrs. De Groote of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Turner of Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Ray De Bover and A. De Bover of Washougal, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wyffels and family of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wyffels of McMinnville.

Miss Thomas and Richard Hendricks Wed November 11

On the morning of November 11 at 10 o'clock in St. Anthony's church at Forest Grove, a pretty wedding took place when Miss Willa Marie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Thomas of Portland, became the bride of Mr. Richard Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hendricks of Forest Grove. Rev. John Larkin officiated before about 100 guests.

The bride wore a white, yellow and pink chrysanthemum dress. Carl and Evon Meerswert, cousins of the bridegroom, served the Nuptial High Mass.

St. Anthony's choir sang the Hallelujahs. Mrs. George Vandenberg played the wedding music, and Anthony and Omer Vandenberg sang before the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Loren Thomas, wore a traditional white satin dress with long train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book and orchid with streamers and yellow roses.

Miss Beulah Hendricks, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore pink net over satin with head veil and feather to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Bridesmaids were Carol Ann Thomas, sister of the bride, who wore blue net with head veil and feather to match, and Flora Hendricks, sister of the bridegroom, who wore pink net with head veil and feather to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Flower girls were Wanda and Joan Hendricks, sisters of the bridegroom, wearing pink and Sue Ann Thomas, sister of the bride, wearing blue. All wore head pieces to match and dropped petals of yellow, pink and white in the bride's path. Larry Kalsch, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer, and was dressed in white trousers with blue jacket.

Roland Hendricks, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Gene and Larry Vandenberg, cousins of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Vera Vandenberg and Nora Vuylsteke cut the wedding cake, and Miss Joyce Krugger poured. Those assisting were Misses Donna Hendricks and Virginia Hawaka, Mesdames Loren Thomas, George Vuylsteke, Edith Duyck, Wilford Miller, Frank Duyck and Walter Meerswert.

A wedding dance was given at the Grange hall in Hillsboro. Out-of-town guests were Miss Beverly Summers of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bennett of Newberg, Les Moore and Elmer Vanderveldien of Fort Lawton, Seattle.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Forest Grove high school and the bridegroom attended OSC at Corvallis.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks will live in Forest Grove.

Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters Visits Here Friday

Mrs. Marcella Middleton of Sweet Home, grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, will officially visit Phoenicia temple Friday night.

Mrs. Middleton is accompanied by two guests from Nebraska and one from Banks.

Hostess committee for the evening includes Mesdames Theresa Dillon, Agnes Brown, Emma Ferland and Ada Qualls.

Royal Neighbors Honor Members

Two members were initiated into the Royal Neighbors at the regular meeting November 12 at the Moose hall before a large crowd of members, two guests from Nebraska and one from Banks.

Under govt of the order Mesdames Etta Cook, Beulah Morley and Cornelia Johnson were escorted to the Oracle's station by Maude Stannard, where they were complimented for their work in connection with card party and treasure chest and each presented with a gift by Ada Qualls, Evelyn Mello Horlacher was escorted to the Oracle's station by Etta Cook, while Jessie Walker played the wedding march, and was presented with a gift from the camp. Mrs. Stannard also escorted to the Oracle's station and there presented with a gift from her secret pal in honor of her birthday anniversary that day. Mrs. Stannard made the presentation.

After the meeting closed, the Oracle escorted Mrs. Qualls, the rest falling in line to the reception room where a long table was decorated with autumn leaves, candles and American flags in honor of Armistice Day. There were two large birthday cakes for Mrs. Qualls, and the Neighbors sang "Happy Birthday."

The refreshment committee, Cornelia Johnson, Beulah Morley, Anna Woodward, Anna Peters and others, were complimented on the way they carried out the surprise party.

The contest is going strong, with Captain Evra Foster's side being 45 points in the lead.

Next meeting, December 10, will be election of officers.

Mrs. Johansen will be in charge of the next meeting, and plans will be made for the Christmas party when Capt. Foster will be in charge of arrangements.

Former Navy Officer Joins Alcoa Here

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stowell arrived Sunday to make their home here and he will be employed by Alcoa Mining company as a mining engineer. Following his discharge as a Seabee officer in July, Stowell secured a navy jeep here on the coast and drove to Arkansas and with his fiancée, Miss Julia Pitman, went to New York, where they were married. Shortly after their marriage, he was sent by Alcoa to Paramaribo, Surinam, Dutch Guiana, for two months. On his return he joined his bride in Arkansas and they drove on out here. They have made almost a circle of the United States by jeep.

Congregationalists Plan Rummage Sale

Congregational ladies have dated Saturday, December 7, for a rummage sale which will be held in the building formerly occupied by the Smith Grocery. It will be an all-day sale, and anyone wishing to contribute toward the sale is requested to bring their goods to the home of Mrs. Bailey, or Mrs. Enschel, or Mrs. Walworth will call for any articles which cannot be delivered.

Makes Roseburg Visit

Mrs. Leon Brown, state president of the Legion Auxiliary, left Tuesday for Roseburg, where she will visit the Veterans' hospital and the Legion Auxiliary. She returned Armistice Day from a national meeting, department presidents and secretaries at Indianapolis, Ind.

Elementary PTA Met Monday Night

Hillsboro Elementary P.T.A. held its November meeting at the B. W. Barnes junior high school auditorium Monday evening.

Mrs. W. B. Gabelman presided at the business meeting, and various chairmen read their reports.

Mrs. O. C. Halverson spoke briefly on the P.T.A. magazine as an educational magazine most helpful to parents. Mrs. J. B. Thomas reported that during the week of P.T.A. membership next the number of members exceeded the goal set.

Those teachers whose rooms won the contest are: Edith Romig, fifth grade, and Etta Johnson, fourth grade at David Hill school; Mrs. Margaret Mosher, first grade, Victor Haysen school; Mrs. Jennie Ford, B. W. Barnes junior high.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Grace Hughes acted as program chairman. The following groups were included:

Three selections by the junior high girls' chorus, led by Mrs. Irene Burt; selections by fifth grade girls' chorus of David Hill school; play by Mrs. Haysen's junior high drama class, selections by mixed chorus of the fifth grade.

Refreshments were served following the program.

There will not be a P.T.A. meeting in December and the next program scheduled is to be January 23 at the B. W. Barnes school.

Osborn-Gregory Nuptials Held

Miss Betty Jean Gregory of Portland became the bride of Kenneth Eugene Osborn Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. H. F. Pemberton officiating.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room for about 40 relatives and close friends.

There are two ceilings to human progress—"I won't" and "I can't."

Protect Your Home from TB

EXPERT LUBRICATION

for the RIGHT oil or grease at the RIGHT places
in the RIGHT quantities

Bring Your Car to Us, and You'll Know
It Is Lubricated Right!

Don't Get Caught—
WITH YOUR TREADS DOWN—

Bring Your Tires to Casey's for Recaps!

CASEY'S MOBIL SERVICE

RAY J. CASEY, Owner
110 E. Baseline—Hillsboro Phone 3901
Hours: 7 a. m. to 11 p. m.—7 days a week

You'll look like a Queen and you'll feel like one after you've visited EVE'S BEAUTY SHOP. You'll want to look your best during the holiday season—glamour hairstyling is our specialty. Come in and find out for yourself!

Eve's Beauty Shop

TONI GARDNER, Prop.
Aileen Hermens — Eunice Bailey
141 S. Second Ave. Hillsboro, Oregon
Phone 1381

RADIOS

NOW IN STOCK

- ★ PACKARD BELL
- ★ EMERSON Radios
- ★ PLYMOLD Radios

The radio-phonograph combination goes every where—for pleasure. Compelling beauty and matchless performance are yours in the table models or console.

SEE OUR RADIOS
$30.00 UP

MELTEBEKE

FURNITURE CO.
158 S. 2nd Avenue — Hillsboro, Oregon
Phone 491

THE SHOP IS OPEN

and ready for YOUR car!

Body and Fender Work

And All Kinds of WRECK REPAIR
Expertly Done in a Minimum of Time.

PAINTING

SPOT WORK, or a COMPLETE PAINT JOB—You'll Be Pleased With Our Service.

"When you see us, don't think of wrecks. But when you see a wreck, think of us!"

MAIN STREET BODY and PAINT SHOP

George Mull — Bud Wilson — Tom Heitzman
365 E. Main Directly across from Post Office Hillsboro

GRAND CHIEF—Mrs. Marcella Middleton, Chief of Oregon, who will visit Phoenicia temple Friday night.

Royal Neighbors Honor Members

Two members were initiated into the Royal Neighbors at the regular meeting November 12 at the Moose hall before a large crowd of members, two guests from Nebraska and one from Banks.

Under govt of the order Mesdames Etta Cook, Beulah Morley and Cornelia Johnson were escorted to the Oracle's station by Maude Stannard, where they were complimented for their work in connection with card party and treasure chest and each presented with a gift by Ada Qualls, Evelyn Mello Horlacher was escorted to the Oracle's station by Etta Cook, while Jessie Walker played the wedding march, and was presented with a gift from the camp. Mrs. Stannard also escorted to the Oracle's station and there presented with a gift from her secret pal in honor of her birthday anniversary that day. Mrs. Stannard made the presentation.

After the meeting closed, the Oracle escorted Mrs. Qualls, the rest falling in line to the reception room where a long table was decorated with autumn leaves, candles and American flags in honor of Armistice Day. There were two large birthday cakes for Mrs. Qualls, and the Neighbors sang "Happy Birthday."

The refreshment committee, Cornelia Johnson, Beulah Morley, Anna Woodward, Anna Peters and others, were complimented on the way they carried out the surprise party.

The contest is going strong, with Captain Evra Foster's side being 45 points in the lead.

Next meeting, December 10, will be election of officers.

Mrs. Johansen will be in charge of the next meeting, and plans will be made for the Christmas party when Capt. Foster will be in charge of arrangements.

McALISTER'S

327 E. Main St. HILLSBORO Telephone 3684

RECORDS for the Children!

SANTA SAYS—
Give the Kiddies RECORDS!

At McAlister's you'll find special records for the children. Fairy stories and special music the children love in attractive folders.

FOODS FOR YOUR THANKSGIVING Celebration

Prices Effective Friday, Saturday and Monday — November 22, 23 and 25

FRUIT MIX LYONS RADIANT. 1-lb. pkg. 37c	Beans and Ham KINGWOOD'S. No. 2 can 30c
CHEESE TILLAMOOK TRIPS. Pound 59c	Beans and Bacon KINGWOOD'S. No. 2 can 30c
PUMPKIN, Del Monte. No. 2 1/2 can 2 for 33c	Chinese Rice Dinner IN CHICKEN FAT. Shing-Li. 10 1/2-oz. can 19c
MINCE MEAT, Armcur's Veribest 2-lb. jar 65c	Chili Con Carne WITH BEANS, Hormel's. No. 1 can 25c
PICKLES, Columbia Dills 1 1/2-quart jar 73c	Tamales ARMOUR'S. 16-oz. glass 25c
OLIVES, Libby ripe No. 1 tin 39c	SPAGHETTI with MUSHROOMS PAN AMERICAN. No. 1 can 15c
ASPARAGUS TIPS, Hunt's No. 2 can 49c	EGG NOODLES and CHICKEN LYNDEN. 1-lb. jar 32c
ALMONDS, California Peerless 1-lb. 39c	EGG NOODLES and TURKEY LYNDEN. 1-lb. jar 32c
CANDY MINTS 10-oz. box 69c

SUSAN BERRY AFTER-DINNER MINTS

TOMATO JUICE 47-oz. Can 27c	Sperry's PANCAKE FLOUR 4-lb. Sack 39c
V 8 COCKTAIL 18-oz. 35c 1-quart 1-lb. 17c
CHILI SAUCE LIBBY'S. 12-oz. bottle 33c

Produce Features for Friday and Saturday Only

CELERY Fresh, Crisp, Utah Type. 1-lb. 5c	MUFFIN MIX DUFF'S. 14-oz. 27c
CRANBERRIES RED, FIRM. 1-lb. 39c	GINGERBREAD MIX Duff's. 14-oz. 27c
SWEET POTATOES No. 1. 1-lb. 9 1/2c	POPCORN 2-lb. cello pkg. 29c
GRAPES RED, RIPE EMPEROR. 1-lb. 15c	CUSTARD PECTIN MCP 3 pcks. 29c

Wheaties Individual Boxes 1c Ea.

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities.

FAIRWAY SUPER FOOD VALUES MARKET

INDEPENDENTLY OWNED

SOAP Hydrex Liquid 57c Qt. In your container