

Miss Briggs Bride Of William Cyrus Friday Afternoon

The Congregational church in Hillsboro was the scene of the wedding Friday afternoon, December 21, at 2 o'clock, of Miss Peggy Ann Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Christensen of Midway, and Mr. William F. Cyrus Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cyrus of Hillsboro. Rev. D. E. Nourse performed the double ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Lancel C. Kramien sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sewell, who also played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a gown of white nylon organza with semi-train and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and bouvardia, centered by an orchid.

Her only attendant was Miss Alice Bannister, maid of honor, who was dressed in blue pink lace and carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations combined with net. Jack Schube of Hillsboro was best man, and the ushers were Jack Lewis, John and William Gorman of Hillsboro, and Herb Penson of Beaverton.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, pink snapdragons, palms, evergreens and candles in three seven-foot candelabras. John and William Gorman lighted the candles. White satin ribbon streamers and bows formed the aisle for the wedding party.

At the reception in the church parlor, Mrs. C. E. McRoberts and Mrs. C. E. Stitt of Beaverton served the wedding cake. Miss Helen Laver and Mrs. Robert Hunt presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Miss Doris Heaton and Mrs. Ed Demmin. Miss Pat Cyrus, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book and Miss Virginia Gorman and Miss Audrey Benge were in charge of the gifts.

The bride's going-away suit was mass green with black accessories. The couple spent a few days at the beach before going to their home at Alair Village, near Corvallis, where Mr. Cyrus is a student at Oregon State college.

The bride is a graduate of the 1943 class of Hillsboro union high school and attended Oregon State college last year. The bridegroom graduated from Hillsboro high school, class of 1942, attended OSC one term and then enlisted in the U. S. armed forces, serving overseas three years with the third division of the seventh army. He held the rank of sergeant at time of his discharge.

Miss Andrews Weds Mr. Hunt
CORNELIUS—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wagoner was the scene of a candlelight wedding Christmas eve, when Miss Ruby Andrews of Beaverton became the bride of Mr. Martin Hunt of Marquette, Kansas. Rev. R. C. Leonard, assistant pastor of the Hillsboro Christian church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in blue with an orchid corsage. The mother of honor, Mrs. W. C. Lehman of Beaverton, wore black with an orchid corsage. Mr. Lehman was best man.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frye, Fern Gordon and children, all of Forest Grove; Miss Margaret Lehman of Portland; Mrs. Sena Straghan and son Everett of Cornelius; and Mrs. Leonard. The bride was formerly of Marquette, Kansas. The young couple plan to make their home in this community.

Camp Fire Girls Thanked; Leaders Meet
Mrs. Zola Morgan of the Washington County Public Health association wishes to thank through this column every Camp Fire Girl who assisted in the Fortieth Annual Seal sale. The success of the sale this year was due in part to the effort of the girls.

A meeting of the Blue Bird Leaders will be held in the Camp Fire office in the library building on Friday morning, January 3, at 10. There will be a program planning discussion and craft demonstration. The leaders are asked to bring a knife and a potato and a piece of white fabric.

They may bring their lunch if they wish. No one drink will be provided. Any woman who is interested in girls is invited to attend.

Lee-Kincheloe Nuptials Held Here Saturday

Miss Lois C. Kincheloe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Kincheloe of route 3, Beaverton, became the bride of Mr. Vernet C. Lee Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernet C. Lee of Eugene, Saturday afternoon, December 28, at the First Methodist church in Hillsboro. Rev. D. Lester Fields of Nehalem performed the double ring ceremony in a formal setting of pink and white with candlelight.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with full length train and a finger-tip veil held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink roses and white bouvardia.

Miss LaRae Kincheloe, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink net and carried a colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink bouvardia.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Kathleen Imay sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied at the organ by Miss Doris Webster, who also played the wedding music.

James M. Lee acted as best man for his brother, Paul and Robin Lee were ushers.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. E. O. Bell, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. M. H. Ryan, Mrs. Harold Shaper, Misses Nina Hoffman, Flora LaRue and Virginia Engstrom.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and Oregon College of Education at Menlo Park, and the couple left for a wedding trip through Washington and Southern Canada. Future plans are not completed.

Beaverton IOOF, Rebekahs Have Xmas Program

Beaverton IOOF held its annual Christmas party December 23 at its hall in Beaverton.

The Rebekahs had a pot-luck supper with the "hoon of plenty" well displayed. While the dishes were being put away, the subordinate lodge held a short business session which was followed by the Christmas party.

A vote of approval and thanks is due the committee, which put on the following program:

"Welcome" recitation by Bobbie Taylor; "A Cyprian Dance" by Mary Ann Kokich, accompanied by her instructor from West St. net; a solo, "Oh Holy Night," by Carol Shively, accompanied by Mary Pointer; recitation, "The Day After Christmas," Fred Rader; tap dance by Carlton Gestring and Mary Barker; piano duet by Ruby Taylor and Betty Jean Malley; recitation, "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star," by Lince Lusk; song, "Winter Wonder Land," Joetta Finches, with Ruby Taylor, accompanist; dance by Wanda Benson, and last but not least a reading, "The Night Before Christmas," by Mae Lusk.

Then all the children from one to 100 sang carols and were given a bag of candy and nuts. The party was attended by more than 100 persons.

Have Family Reunion

A Christmas dinner and family reunion were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mead in the Shady Brook community. This was the first time the children had all been home for Christmas in six years. Jack and Jim were employed at Kodiak, Alaska, for two years and then Jim served in the army for three years. Those present at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mead and son Jackie; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mead, all of Banks; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williamson and daughter Mary of Rydewood Wash.; and Leon and Larry at home. Mr. and Mrs. William Mead formerly lived at Banks.

Whole-meal soups
for January menus

After the rich foods of the holidays, simpler fare is welcome. Still menus need to be hearty to satisfy cold-weather appetites. These whole-meal soups make good eating these January days.

VEGETABLE SOUP WITH MEAT BALLS

This typical Mexican whole-meal soup is extremely versatile because canned vegetables may be substituted for the fresh and canned broth or consomme for the stock.

2 tbsps. shortening 2 tbsps. uncooked rice
1 medium-size onion, chopped 1/4 lb. ground pork
1/4 cup tomato sauce 6 mint leaves
6 cups chicken or beef stock 2 tbsps. chopped parsley
2 cups sliced peas (1 lb.) 2 eggs (1 lb.)
2 cups sliced string beans 1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper (1/2 lb.)

Lightly brown onions in melted shortening in heavy kettle with tight-fitting lid. Add tomato sauce and chicken or beef stock; bring to boil. Add vegetables. Make meat balls: Combine rice, ground beef and pork; mint leaves, parsley, egg, salt and pepper. Drop in boiling soup. Cover tightly, simmer 30 minutes, or until meat balls are done and vegetables tender. Serves 6 to 8.

CHILI BEAN CHOWDER

This meatless chowder makes a satisfying whole-meal soup for a cold day.

2 cups dried red kidney beans 2 buds garlic
2 quarts cold water 2 tbsps. chili powder
1 medium-size onion, chopped 1 tsp. oregano or marjoram
3 1/2 cups cooked or canned tomatoes 1/2 tsp. pepper
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk

Wash beans and drain. Add water, cover and simmer until tender, about 2 hours. Add onion, tomatoes, garlic, and seasonings. Cook until onion is tender and seasonings well blended. Remove garlic. Add milk; heat, but do not boil. Serve in soup plates or bowls garnished with thin slice of lemon. Serves 6 to 8.
