

Buxton-Manning PTA to Meet; Snow Closes School, Logging Camps

By Mrs. Elva Tolke
BUXTON'S ANNUAL Regular P.T.A. meeting will be held at the school Wednesday at 8 p. m. Mother-Teacher club will sponsor a shower for the school kitchen Thursday afternoon at the Social club hall. They have also planned a picnic for February 1.

Snow covered the ground here Sunday and continued to fall all day and night Monday morning. All logging camps closed.

Petersons Celebrate 61st Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary at their home here January 10.

Manning school children held a cake and lemon sale at school last Friday noon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fine at Hillsboro January 11, a daughter, Mrs. Dora Reister and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dora Reister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dora Reister and five children, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. C. A. Morgan, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Morgan's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed St. Clair, and family, at Bunkerfield.

Officers installed
The following W. B. A. officers were installed Thursday: Mrs. Edna Davis, president; Mrs. Mildred Turk, vice president; Mrs. Carrie Goodrich, acting president; Mrs. Cora J. Conley, recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Estep, treasurer; Mrs. Goldie Whiteside, chaplain; Mrs. Elva Tolke, lady of ceremonies; Mrs. Jessie Tillman, sergeant; Mrs. Mildred Manley, inner hostess; Mrs. Sam Hilliker, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Clara Allen, captain; Mrs. Lucille Pieren, officer of the day; Mrs. Carmela Joan, junior supervisor; Mrs. Elva Tolke, fraternal welfare supervisor; Mrs. Elsie Kelly, press; Color bearers are Mrs. Shirley Feltz, Mrs. Hazel Stowell, Mrs. Alta Carstens and Mrs. Pearl Watson. Mrs. Ellen Goodrich and Mrs. Prudie Morgan are standard bearers. Miss Beverly White is Miss America. Miss Vivian Cleary is Miss W. B. A. and Mrs. Elsie Kelly is financial secretary.

Buxton teachers have been finished and the teachers, Mrs. Ruth Spatz and Miss Josephine Tople, have taken possession. Two electric heaters have been installed in the building by the school board.

Despite the snowy weather there was an attendance of 50 at Buxton Sunday school.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thomas of Beaverton January 6, a daughter, Judy Noreen. The baby is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buck. Mrs. Thomas formerly lived here.

John Turpen, Vern Lohing and Ray Freeman spent Sunday fishing on Wilson river. Long caught a steelhead.

Gilbert Frost, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Walter Fum of Junction City, drove here Friday for his mother, Jessie Tillman, to care for Mrs. Frost and infant son, Ronald Edward, who are ill.

An epidemic of colds and flu has hit this vicinity. Two cases of measles, one at Buxton and one at Swedley, have been reported.

Have Perfect Attendance
Perfect attendance at the Manning school for the second nine weeks included Lyle, Jim and Kay Davidson, Marion Heesacker, Mary Jones, Helen Neuman, Norma Tolke, Bertha and Ellen Duncan in the upper grades. Shirley Anderson and Dorothy Herb were only ones in the primary room to have perfect attendance.

Mrs. Harold Tammann of Gresham spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Crawford.

Mrs. Jimmy Badell of Willamina arrived Sunday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Goodrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haberman are vacationing at Astoria. Harry McCall is looking after his chores during their absence.

Many Attend Services
A church of God church's monthly fellowship was well attended at Buxton last week. About 60 attended the afternoon service, at which Rev. William Hayles, pastor of Dauntless church for 1947, a hot supper was enjoyed by about 100 persons in the W. B. A. lodge hall, served by ladies of the Buxton church.

The Christ's Ambassadors service featured three speakers, Mrs. Murray of Gresham, Mrs. McElroy of Vernonia and Rev. Heath Lowry of Rainier. At the evening service District Prebyster Rev. C. E. Freeman of Hillsboro, preached a stirring sermon on the text in Mark 9: 43-48. One of four special numbers was a violin quartet by George Berge and three sons, Bruce, John

Medical Society Elects Dr. Waltz

Members of the Washington County Medical society named Dr. R. S. Waltz of Forest Grove president of the group at their recent monthly dinner meeting at the Forest Hills Country club.

Other officers of the society named for 1947 are C. E. Mason, M. D., Beaverton, vice-president; C. L. Kaufman, M. D., Forest Grove, secretary-treasurer; A. O. Pitman, M. D., Hillsboro, delegate-at-large; and W. H. Pierce, M. D., Hillsboro, alternating delegate.

Monument Works To Erect Building

H. H. Stannard and Mande Stannard have purchased an acre of land on the highway east of Hillsboro and are erecting a building which will be occupied by the Stannard Memorial company.

Stannard and associates are purchasing new machinery and the plant will be modern in every respect with an inside display room with a large assortment of the latest in monuments and markers.

Cupid Loses Ground; Many Divorces Filed

Cupid took a beating in Washington county last year—as usual! Records show that 323 divorce cases were filed in the county during 1946 as compared to 297 marriage licenses, according to County Clerk W. A. Tunner.

Local 4-H Girl State Champion

Margaret Freudenenthal of Hillsboro has been judged girl champion for Oregon in the national 4-H Holstein dairy club contest and her records have been submitted by the state club office to the American-Freisian association of America to be entered in competition for the national championship according to Joe Cox, assistant county agent. Robert Anderson of Portland has been named champion boy for Oregon.

Miss Freudenenthal, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Freudenenthal, won the title of outstanding Holstein club member last year and was given Hall Rose Cynthia, a purebred heifer, by S. R. Hall, prominent Multnomah county breeder. She has carried dairy projects since 1942 and now has 16 animals in her herd.

Total value of her dairy projects for five years, including prize money, is approximately $4,000. She has also carried projects in beef, sheep, and swine raising and in clothing. She is leader of the Hillsboro dairy club this year.
