Jersey Group Elects Lottman

W. E. Lottman of Cornelius was elected president of the Washington County Jersey Cattle club for the coming year at a meeting in the Hillsboro chamber of commerce rooms January 22. He succeeds Fred Knox of Gaston. The meeting featured a talk by I. W. Slater, western states field man, on the new registration of Jersey cattle.
Dennis Saunders of Gaston was elected vice-president of the club, succeeding Howard Robertson of route 1, Forest Grove. Bill Foster and Vic Foster, both of route 4, Sherwood, were re-elected secretary-treasurer and director, respectively. Knox replaces Harold W.
Waldron of Scholls as a director.
A proposed heifer sale for junior Jersey enthusiasts was tentatively set for March 22. Bidding is to be limited to F. F. A. and 4-H club members.

Local Business Changes Given

Work is underway for an office location for the firm of Walker & Nelson and for a new drug store in the local Commercial building, according to C. Henry Nelson, manager for Commercial Building corporation. Walker and Nelson plan to move to the former location of Hillsboro Studio at 109 South Second avenue as soon as new fixtures and office furniture can be installed.

A new drug store, owned and operated by W. Conners, formerly of Beaverton, will open in the former location of Smith's Grocery. Renovation on the location started this week. Conners is at present located in Oswego and hopes to open his business by April 1.

Walker & Nelson will have three divisions in the new office, insurance, finance and real estate. Lou Weathers, formerly with McGinnis of Portland, will handle the real estate separately. Leon Davis is joining the firm to handle insurance and finance. Mr. Walker has been in business in Hillsboro for 24 years and Nelson since 1937.
They went into partnership about a year ago. They also employ Miss Esther Swenson, Miss Connie Kennedy and Mrs. Beverly Ryan.

West Union Group Has "Child Study"

WEST UNION—Parents of West Union school district met for child study Monday evening at West Union school. They are following the course of study, "Behavior in the Making," presented by Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers over radio stations KOAC and KBPS every Wednesday at 2 p. m.
The January theme, "Emotional Maturity—How Does It Progress?" was carried out by a panel discussion composed of Frank Hofer, Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. John Puhols, and Mrs. Julia Loeden, with Charles Walker moderator.

Joe Arnold played several accordian solos. Jack York sang "Over the Summer Sea" and "For You Alone," accompanied by Mrs.
York. Mrs. Carl Berger read "That Boy" and Mr. Walker led group singing, accompanied by Mrs. York.

Carl Berger, chairman of the district school board, read a telegram received from Washington, D. C., regarding the future school construction. The school board members also announced a special meeting regarding school improvements and urged everyone to attend. The date will be made known later.

C. Walker invited the group to Sunday school at the "Old Baptist Church" (West Union) every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Voge extended an invitation to the high school P.T.A. meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the union high school cafeteria, Hillsboro.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. Hazel Yancy in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berger arranged the musical program.

Helveta members of the group will be hosts at the next meeting, February 23, at Helveta school.
