Hazeldale Pupils Plan Bird Study

By Mrs. O. W. Hesterlee HAZELDALE — The 22 pupils of the intermediate grades of Hazeldale school have organized the Tualatin Valley Junior Audubon club with officers as follows: Raymond Watson, president; Bethelie Ehler, vice-president; Georgia Birch, secretary; Martin Wright, program chairman; Allen Tauscher and Beverly Calhoun, assistants. Meetings will be held the first and third Fridays of the month. Local birds will be studied.

Intermediate grade pupils contributed $9.30 to the March of Dimes. Hazeldale Happy Hour club will meet February 25 with Mrs. John Smith.

Attendance at Hazeldale Sunday school was 59. Barbara O'Neil observed her fourth birthday. The local churches were distributed for the coming quarter, and it was announced that for every dollar brought in through the small churches two dollars will be given for the building fund. Everyone who has a small church in his home is asked to return it.

A group of business men representing the Glendon association, which places Bibles in hotels, motor camps, hospitals and distributes New Testaments in the public schools, will have charge of the service next Sunday at 10 a. m. at Hazeldale Sunday school. At 7:30 p. m. Doctor Douglas Taylor, a graduate of Beaverton high school and the University of Oregon medical school and returned from the European theatre with the rank of captain, will be the speaker. All persons are cordially invited to attend these services.
