

Miss Dixon and Mr. VanDomelen Married at Roy

Miss Margaret Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon of London, England, and Vincent VanDomelen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe VanDomelen of Harrison community, were united in marriage at an impressive ceremony Tuesday morning, February 11, at 9:30 o'clock, at St. Francis church in Roy. Rev. Father Saal officiated.

The bride wore a dress of white satin and a finger-tip length veil which was held in place by a train of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and bouvardia. Miss Velma VanDomelen, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid and wore a dress of pink tulle. Her bouquet was pink carnations. Best man was Maurice McEwen of Roy.

The church was beautifully decorated with candles and flowers, with pink and white streamers along the aisle.

Mr. VanDomelen served three and a half years in the army, two and a half years being spent in England. The bride served with the British Auxiliary Territorial service (British WAC) for three years. They met in October, 1943, while both were on leave, at the Catholic Sunday club in London. They had planned to be married in England but Mr. VanDomelen was unexpectedly sent back to the United States and she had to wait several months before being able to get passage to join him. She arrived in January on the Queen Elizabeth and has been staying at the VanDomelen home.

Mrs. Joe VanDomelen, the bridegroom's mother, wore a green girdling suit with white accessories and a double gardenia corsage.

A wedding dinner was served at noon at the Kansas City hall to about 90 guests. The hall was decorated with pink and white, the table centerpiece being a three-tiered all white bride's cake.

In the evening the couple entertained their many friends and relatives with a wedding dance.

The couple left immediately for their honeymoon at the Oregon beaches. For going away the bride

Waibel-VanDyke Wedding Held at St. Paul Church

At a ceremony in St. Paul Catholic church on the morning of February 3 at 9:30, Miss Martha VanDyke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted VanDyke of St. Paul, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Waibel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Waibel of Hillsboro. Rev. James Maxwell officiated at the double ring ceremony. Assisting the Father at Mass were Leslie VanDyke and Robert Davidson. The church was decorated with daffodils and spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses, sweet peas, freesias, centered with a purple orchid, with white satin streamers.

Miss Eileen VanDyke, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a pink organza dress. Miss Bertha Waibel, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue organza dress. They carried identical bouquets of daffodils and blue iris. Joanne VanDyke was flower girl in a white organza dress and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweet peas.

Clarence Waibel, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Gerald VanDyke, brother of the bride, was the other attendant. Ushers were Edmund and Wilbert VanDyke and Raymond Waibel.

Mrs. Virgil Fisher, Frances Paul and Alfred Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Rose Coleman at the organ, sang during the ceremony.

The wedding dinner was served at the Community hall for relatives and close friends. A reception followed in the afternoon, with Mrs. Waibel cutting the cake, and Miss Clara Waibel serving the punch. Miss Ethel Waibel had charge of the bride's book. Others assisting were Mrs. Edward Davidson, Mrs. Leonard Fieschweiler, Mrs. Clarence Cook, Misses Dorothy Davidson, Kathleen Wolf, Frances Smith, Roberta McNamee, Bernice Blanchette, Mildred Bernard, Zeta King and Anna Hafner.

After a honeymoon to California they will be at home near Hillsboro.

Siren Black

Black chiffon nightgown.

By VERA WINSTON

BLACK CONTINUES to be the most popular color for fine lingerie, say the shoppers, exceeded only by delicate tulle and white. Here, black chiffon and black lace unite to form a delectable nightgown, a delightful gift, if ever we saw one. Black lace outlines all the edges, leaving a triangular cutout at the midriff. There are gathers from the waist in front and at either side. The gown features a lace waistband and hem edge.

Garden Club Hears OES to Honor Past Officers

An interesting talk was given by Mrs. Charles Lankin Monday afternoon at the Garden club meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Griffith. Her subject was "Large Specimens of Unusual Trees in Hillsboro."

Mrs. Lankin, who is chairman of the conservation committee in the club, mentioned specimens of trees in the courtyard and in the William Bossey yard, formerly the late Peter Bossey place. She said the time of planting was approximately 1884, and trees were usually four or five years old at time of planting.

The large oak at the northwest corner of Fourth avenue and Baseline street is about 65 years old. This oak is in the parking lot of the Mrs. Alice E. Cornell home. Other large unusual trees in town are the tulip, Scotch pine, myrtle and the rose bushes.

Talks and demonstrations were given on the forcing of spring bulbs by Mrs. Couch Wallace; pruning of rose bushes by Mrs. Paul Patterson, and growing of plants from seeds and bulbs by Mrs. Fred Beach.

Elmer Johnson told of interesting places visited on his recent trip to Arizona, including Christmas Tree lane at Fresno, California, and the Grand Canyon.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Mrs. A. H. Abbott assisted Mrs. Griffith as hostesses. Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Mrs. C. T. Smith presided.

The March meeting will be held in the evening at Episcopal parish hall, Forest Grove garden club members at the date of the meeting is Monday, March 10, at 8 o'clock.
