

Visitation Church Scene of Wedding Thursday, Feb. 6

Visitation BVM church at Ven-hout was the scene of a wedding Thursday morning, February 6, at 10:45 o'clock when Miss Virginia Vandehy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vandehy of near Forest Grove, became the bride of Clayton Alvin Barckman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Barckman of Hills-boro. Rev. Robert S. Neugebauer officiated.

The bride's dress had an em-broidered satin bodice with sweet-heart neckline, lace skirt with lace-trim and finger-tip veil. Her beau-quet was of gardenias and carnations.

The bride's sister, Miss Joyce Van chey, was maid of honor. Her dress was of blue net and her flowers were camellias. Ronald Vandehy, brother of the bride, was best man. William Van dehey played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a recep-tion was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting at the re-ception were Mrs. Bernard Van-dehey of Banks and Mrs. Leo J. Vandehy of Cornelius.

After a wedding trip to Tacoma, Wash., they will make their home in Hillsboro.

Mr. Barckman, World War II veteran of 33 months, served in the medical corps at Fort Lewis.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gorman, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Barckman of Carlton.

Radio Program Inaugurated Today Catholic Daughters, Court Chris-tie, have received announcement to the effect that a new radio program is to be inaugurated Feb-ruary 13 at 7 p. m. over the Mu-tual Broadcasting station enti-tled "The Family Theatre," which should be of interest to non-Cath-olics as well as Catholics.

This program is the result of great effort and the realization of many dreams of Reverend Father Patrick Peyton, C. S. C. These pro-grams which will run a course of 26 weeks are to be dramatized by many leading movie stars who have volunteered their services, and this week's booking will present Loretta Young with music by Meredith Wilson while James Stewart will act as master of cere-monies.

Catholic Daughters, Court Chris-tie at their regular meeting to-night (Thursday) in the Moose hall will entertain their members with a Valentine party. Each member is asked to bring a Valentine. Mrs. William VanLom is chairman.

Cotty College Representative Speaks at Hilhi

Miss Joyce Lemoreau of Elma, Wash., field representative of Cot-ty college, Nevada, who is also a graduate of Cotty and a member of P. E. O., gave a talk illustrat-ed with colored slides, at Hillsboro union high school Friday afternoon. The slides were views of the build-ings, class rooms and students at work and play.

This affair was sponsored by Chapter BH, P. E. O., and arranged by Mrs. George McGrath, chairman of the educational committee. Through the courtesy of the fac-ulty the junior and senior girls were given time from their afternoon studies to attend this program.

The Oregon P. E. O. offers two state scholarships to Cotty college and four scholarships to schools in Oregon. One Hillsboro high school graduate is now attending U. of O. on a P. E. O. scholarship.

After the program, Mrs. Alice Connell entertained the P. E. O. members a tea in honor of Miss Lemoreau.
