Local Firemen Lose To Seaside Outfit

Hillsboro Volunteer Fire department's softballers traveled to Seaside for the big annual trophy game against the coast city's firemen Sunday, but lost out, 8 to 7, in an extra inning. Manager Bud Hamm's boys needed only a victory this year for a third leg on the trophy and permanent possession.

The win leaves both teams with two legs on the trophy and next summer's game in Hillsboro will settle the issue. The rivals are scheduled to play an exhibition tilt here in a few weeks if it can be arranged.
