Middleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Middleton, also of route 1, Hillsboro. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by the Reverend Anthony Gerace before an altar decorated with white gladioli and white asters with pink gladioli on the side altars.

Miss Darlene Jarde was organist and soloists were Miss Lois Hunker and Mrs. K. Turner. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in the traditional white satin, princess style, with sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil was edged in lace and held with a headpiece of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with gardenias and staphanotis with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Doris Robinson, matron of honor, wore a lavender, moiré dress and carried a nosegay of lavender gladioli. Miss Doris Middleton, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of light blue taffeta and carried a nosegay of rose pink gladioli.

James R. Middleton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Henry J. Bishop and H. E. Middleton.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. The bride's cake was cut by Mrs. C. T. Schneiderman, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Charles Schabel presided at the punch bowl, and coffee was served by Mesdames Lillian Bishop and Elsie Middleton. Later a dance was held upstairs.

For traveling, the bride wore an aqua blue suit with black and white accessories and corsage of gardenias. They left for a wedding trip to Seattle and Eastern Washington.
