

Friendship Temple Presents Three 25-Year Jewels

Friendship Temple No. 8 Pythian Sisters of North Plains, celebrated their 25th anniversary by holding a pot-luck supper at 7 o'clock and a hobo party afterwards. A large crowd was in attendance, with visitors from Delta Temple No. 13, Forest Grove. Two of the members, Mrs. Ella Lincoln and Mrs. Anna Miller, were presented with 25-year service pins, the presentation being made by Grand Senior Elma Friday of Delta Temple. Mrs. Anna Jones, stewardess of Sun Maize, Cal., who has also been a member of the temple for 25 years, was unable to be present as she is visiting in New York, and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Jones, was given her 25-year service pin.

Many clever routines were displayed at the hobo party which followed the supper.

Mrs. Stella Lee, "King of Hobos," received first prize for best sustained character, and Mrs. Betty Phillips received the prize for poorest dressed hobo.

Decorations on the pot-luck supper tables carried out the hobo theme, with a big pot of beans and a pot of corn, and a make-believe camp fire.
