

Lasleys Celebrate 60th Wedding Date Sunday, at Aloha

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Lasley of near Hillsboro, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, January 11, at a family dinner at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Salzman, at Aloha. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lasley of Aloha will also be guests. Open house will be held during the afternoon, when other members of the family, and friends will pay their respects to the guests of honor.

F. N. Lasley married Leola Davis at Sterling, Kansas, on January 12, 1888, and came to Oregon a year or two later, living first at Portland. Later they moved to Corbett, Oregon, and still later to Tall. They came to Hillsboro in 1944.

Mr. Lasley was 80 years of age July 26, 1947, and Mrs. Lasley was 75 years old on April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Lasley have six children: Mrs. Leola Thompson of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Myrtle Wilson and Mrs. Gladys Woodie of Wilson; Mrs. Clara Salzman of Aloha; Ray Lasley of North Bonneville, Wash.; and Edwin Lasley of Portland.

Fuhrwerk-Bussell Nuptials Held in Portland Church

Miss Margaret Bussell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bussell of Sherwood, became the bride of Victor C. Fuhrwerk of Ames, Iowa, at an afternoon ceremony December 31 in Portland. Dr. Raymond H. Walker officiated at the double ring services in the parlor rooms of the First Congregational church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Craig Smith of Rochester, N. Y., who came out for the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua suit with black and white accessories, and a corsage of white roses. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Myron H. Bussell, Robert C. Bussell, brother of the bride, was best man.

The couple stood before a fire-place decked with white flowers. Tapers on either side were lighted by Miss Grace Himes of Hillsboro, a cousin of the bride. Miss Lois Lafay of Sherwood sang "On Promise Me." She was accompanied by Miss Elinoz Steels, cousin of the bride.

Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ivan Koerber and Mrs. H. W. Vaughn, Beaverton, and Mrs. Clarence W. Street of Portland, all cousins of the bride.

The couple went to the coast for a short wedding trip, spent Christmas with her family and are now in Ames, Iowa, where he has another year in school at Iowa State college.

Horizon Club Decorates Office

Kawani Alan Horizon club, with Miss Blanche Britton as adviser, has spent several meetings redecorating the local Camp Fire office in Hillsboro. They painted a large cupboard, washed all the windows, made two bulletin boards and decorated the tops of the bulletin boards with drawings of Camp Fire Girls swimming, hiking, boating, cooking, etc. The girls also gave the office two Philodendron plants in gay red pots with wall holders cleverly made from tin cans which were first painted white and then decorated with small painted flowers.

Home from Canada

Miss Angie Harrington returned home New Year's Eve from a 10 weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Julia Stockman, and niece, Mrs. S. S. Jorgenson, and family and other relatives at Calgary, Canada.

She said the weather was not too cold, about 20 below zero, with Chinook winds. The place is called Sunny Alberta.

Miss Harrington stated that while Calgary is a city of more than 100,000, no picture shows or other places excepting churches are open on Sunday. Churches, however, are crowded. She said she had a wonderful visit and fine trip, but was glad to get back to Oregon.
