A good program will be presented, followed by the business meeting.

The moving picture "Human Growth," was shown to the parents and teachers of Barnes school on Walker road January 9. Dr. Adolph Weinzil, representing the E. C. Brown Trust, had the present film on questionnaires for an opinion survey as to the suitability of showing this film in a course of study in the schools.

Before showing the film, Dr. Weinzil told of how the E. C. Brown Trust originated. After the death of Dr. Brown, the interest in his estate was to be used for the teaching of social hygiene to the young people of Oregon, especially the subject of venereal diseases.

The work has progressed seven years, so now literature on any question of family relation can be answered reasonably. Movies and slides have been made to promote a word discussion in groups and possibly class room study.

After showing of the film, refreshments were served. The acting hostesses were Mesdames B. L. Templeton, E. H. May, C. Daniels and Varner.

Church Honors Mrs. Sewell; Officers Named

Mrs. F. J. Sewell was honored at the annual meeting of the Congregational church Thursday night for her many years' service as organist at the church. Mrs. Sewell, who recently gave up the position of organist after more than 20 years, was presented with a cameo pin chain and earrings on behalf of the church by Verne McKinney, chairman of the board of trustees.

Church officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Blanche Brice, church clerk; Dr. J. O. Robb and O. B. Gates, trustees; emeritus, Ralph Barnes, financial secretary and trustee; Clark Patton, treasurer; trustee, J. W. Barney and J. T. Kovsky, re-elected trustees; Reinhard Maier and Dr. D. E. Wiley, trustees two years; Lynn Judy, trustee two years; P. W. Peterson, trustee one year; Charles Walker, head usher; S. T. Wildbain, deacon; Miss Lattie Butler and Mrs. John Woodward, deaconesses; Francis Stanley, Sunday school superintendent; and Mrs. F. Abenduth, Mrs. Lester Johnson, Mrs. Ada Peterson, Dale Engelen and Richard Wiley, social action committee.

Dr. Paul A. Davies was the speaker and brought a message full of stimulating earnestness.

In spite of conflicts with three other activities, the annual meeting attendance was unusually good, reports indicated a growth in every department, especially in the church school. All bills were paid, including the missionary apportionment and the Post War Emergency quota paid in two years instead of three as originally planned. Thirty-three new members were received.

A new planning committee is to be appointed to work out the program for the expansion or building improvement.

Sermon theme for next Sunday, "It Really Happened."

Arthur Pearson, president of the Men's club, announced that the next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dora Nelson, Monday, January 19.

District Meeting Held at Astoria

Mrs. Vernon Hadley, president of Hillsboro unit No. 6, and Mrs. Ralph Stuart, rehabilitation chairman of the unit, went to Astoria Monday to attend a conference of District No. 1 of the American Legion Auxiliary. The meeting was held in the Elks temple.

Mrs. Edna Bradley, district president, presided, and the main speakers were department officers, Mrs. Craig Covner of Bend, president; Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, Portland, secretary; and Mrs. Mitchell Thorne, Seaside, vice-president. The main topics were child welfare and universal military training. Rehabilitation and Americanism were also stressed.

Hillsboro unit paid its challenge to Seaside, the challenge being that loser of membership drive by November 11 would pay. If Seaside lost it had to pay with canned clams and if Hillsboro lost the forfeit was to be a bag of nuts. The presentation was made by Mrs. Hadley to Mrs. Sally Burgoyne, president of the Seaside unit, the Seaside three year sized clothes pin bag resembling a child's dress and filled with nuts.

Dinner was served at 5:30 in the Legion hall and the evening session completed in the Elks temple with a dance following.

Return Home from East—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Weik, Mr. and Mrs. Elman Schumacher and daughter Karen returned home last Saturday evening from a two month's visit in North Carolina. While back there they visited Mrs. Weik's mother, Mrs. Annie Young, and other relatives.

Encampment Host To Lodge Groups

Hillsboro Encampment No. 84, IOOF, was host last Friday to about 150 members of the encampments at Monmouth, McMinnville, Vernonia, Dayton and Tigard, for joint installation of officers. As retiring chief patriarch, Dr. Kanneman welcomed the large delegations from each town. District Deputy W. H. Hedges, after giving the invocation, installed the new officers. For Hillsboro, Wilfred L. Marshall was seated as chief patriarch and W. W. Constantine as senior warden.

Grand Patriarch J. M. Bennett of Albany outlined his program of publicity and co-operation, and enlarged upon the value of the principles of Odd Fellowship in our modern world. A. R. McLaughlin, grand senior warden of McMinnville, spoke briefly. Other grand officers present were William Dean, grand patriarch of Beaverton; Graham Young, deputy grand master, Tigard; Merrill Maxwell, grand marshal, Tillamook; Ralph Ramsey, grand guardian, Hines; Young, past grand master; E. M. Lewman, past grand patriarch, all of Hillsboro; J. S. Robins, special deputy, Independence.

At the close of the ceremony, the large dining room was completely filled, the treat being a big plate of hot chili.

Lorsung Recalls Early School Days

Shades of early school days were brought to mind when John Lorsung of Hillsboro saw a photograph in the Hillsboro Argus of David Hill grade school children sealing records in the cornerstone of the new addition. Lorsung recalls the early days when his classmates sealed records and buried them with the trees that were planted for the occasion. The trees now surround the historical old school.
