At the Women's fellowship meeting plans were made for the improvement of the church. When the project is completed it will make an agreeable difference in the worship atmosphere.

Sermon topic for Sunday: "Where Should a Christian Stop?"

Roxene McConkey Weds Joseph Mann

First Christian church of Vancouver, Wash., was the scene of the wedding Friday afternoon, January 18, of Roxene McConkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Sullivan of Forest Grove, and Joseph Mann of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Mann of Hillsboro. Rev. O. Cooper of Vancouver performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with corsage of gardenias. The matron of honor, Mrs. Richard McMahon, wore a black and white suit. Mr. McMahon was best man.

A reception was held at 7 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann will make their home in Hillsboro, where the bridegroom is employed.

Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Anton Mann Jr. of San Diego, Cal.

Mrs. Pascoe and Son Leave for Honolulu

Mrs. Gilbert Pascoe and little son left Sunday afternoon for San Francisco, from which place they will sail today (Thursday) for Honolulu to join Mr. Pascoe, SK 2/c of the U. S. Navy, who is stationed there. Mrs. Pascoe had planned to go several months ago but her trip was postponed. Miss Ellen Jackson, Mrs. Pascoe's mother, and Mrs. Lloyd Loring accompanied them to San Francisco, making the trip by auto and expect to return Saturday.

A surprise farewell dinner party was arranged by some friends for Mrs. Pascoe and Danny Friday night at the Legion hall. The table was decorated with tropical flowers and little favors of figurines with grass skirts were the place cards. The guest of honor was provided with a grass skirt for the evening and received some lovely gifts.

Barney Speaker At Men's Club

City affairs were discussed by City Manager J. W. Barney at the Congregational Men's club meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Treglow Monday night. He declared that a more intensive effort could be made to make Hillsboro a better place in which to live.

The outlook for Hillsboro is bright, according to Barney, who said it is now experiencing growing pains. The biggest problems, he said, are streets and sanitation. Operating costs, it was pointed out, have doubled in five years.

The club voted to take care of the upkeep of the graves of Rev. J. S. Griffin and David Hill.

It was decided to sponsor the showing of a religious moving picture at the church February 8.

Miss Herrold Feted At Bridal Shower

Miss Mary Herrold was honored with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Thomas W. Mayer in Portland Saturday evening. Miss Herrold is bride-elect of Allen Dille Jr. She received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Carterson, Mrs. Myrtle Briley and Mrs. Ruby Walker. Out-town guests were Miss Herrold's mother, Mrs. T. V. Herrold, and her sisters, Eleanor Herrold and Mrs. Charles Kennedy from Hillsboro. Mrs. Leola Schram from Beaver Creek was also a guest.

Shower Honors Dorothy Gilstrap

Miss Jackie Barney and Miss Beverly Douglas were hostesses at a bridal shower Thursday night at the Barney home honoring Miss Dorothy Gilstrap, bride-elect of Lester Aschenbrenner of Colfax, Wash. About 12 guests were present. After the honored guest opened her gifts refreshments were served. Miss Gilstrap and Mr. Aschenbrenner will be married January 30.

"Education and Vocations" Topic Of BPW Meeting

"Education and Vocations" was the theme of the Business and Professional Women's club meeting Friday night at the Peter Boscow school cafeteria, with Mrs. Irene Taylor, past president of the Portland club and state chairman of Education and Vocations committee, as speaker.

Mrs. Taylor, who is also on the committee of three women's groups of the state, AAUW, YFW and League of Women Voters, to make a survey of women for policy making posts, stated that names and qualifications of women had been referred to them and in turn to the governor of the state. She urged that all clubs co-operate in this project as it is a great help to the administration to have a list of eligible women for such posts in case of vacancies.

"This Is Oregon," a picture by Ernest Haycox of his travels through the state, was shown by A. H. Abts at the close of the business session.

School songs and others were led by Mrs. Ruth Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Sewell.

Decorations at the tables included a miniature school house, the head table and arrangements of pussy willows at the other tables. Mrs. Elizabeth Myers and her committee had charge of the program and dinner. Hand painted menus with a girl skier on the cover were made by Misses Mabel and Lela Weber.

Red Cross College Unit Entertains At Barnes Hospital

"Happy Birthday to You" had a real meaning for the patients at the Veterans' hospital in Vancouver last Thursday night when members of the Red Cross college unit at Pacific university presented a "bang-up" program of music, readings and magic.

Enthusiastically received by the veterans, the program and party honored patients whose birthdays occur during January. The affair, sponsored by the Washington county chapter, American Red Cross, as part of a new nation-wide service, was under the general supervision of Mrs. S. J. Forney of Hillsboro, county coordinator of community service to camps and hospitals.

The college chapter arranged the entertainment and members of various committees of the county chapter acted as hostesses, providing refreshments and small remembrances for the patients and transportation of the students.

The nearly two-hour presentation marked the first big undertaking of the college unit this year. "Emceed" by E. B. Castled, the program was planned by Everett Simpson, president, and Jane Gabeck, secretary of the college unit, working with Mrs. H. D. Stites of Forest Grove, county chairman of the college unit.

Elaine Crist, accordionist, presented several novelty numbers and Crystal Vokes entertained with a group of readings. Harriet Kaohu, Pacific university student from Hawaii, appeared in two graceful native dances.

Douglas Culbertson offered a sharp contrast in types of music with his boogie-woogie numbers on the piano. Vocal soloists included June Savage, accompanied by Iris Roy, and Mary Lee McGraw, with Douglas Culbertson at the piano.

Orchestral selections combined the talents of Les Warner, Gene Dawson, Charles Dick, Maurice Twelt and Jean Stephenson, under the baton of Max Snyder. Ann Dawson doubled as vocalist with the orchestra and tap and soft-shoe dancing star.

Mr. Bishop, Portland, former University of Oregon student, was guest performer, delighting the veterans with his feats of magic.

Another group of 15 students from Pacific university also attended the party, visiting and playing cards with the patients during the program.

Coffee and birthday cakes were provided by the Washington county chapter, canteen chairman and her co-workers. Other hostesses included members of the county's newly organized Gray Ladies, the volunteer service chairman, executive secretary and members of the motor corps service.

The county chapter also provided small remembrances for each of the patients, having birthdays this month. Favors for the veterans were made by the Junior Red Cross members of the county.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT—Mrs. Ray Casey, new president of the Hillsboro Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., who took office Friday.

Camp Fire Council Holds First Meet

On Friday, January 16, the members of the Hillsboro Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., met at noon for a pot-luck luncheon and meeting. Mrs. Ray Casey, president of the council, presided at the meeting. Her official family includes Mrs. Newton Thompson, vice-president; Mrs. Warren Haley, secretary, and A. L. Reeling, treasurer.

Kawani Alan Horizon club, with Miss Blanche Britton as adviser, is planning a program for their sponsor, the American Legion Auxiliary, to be given February 3 at K P hall. The theme of the program will be "A Day at Camp" and the girls will show how much fun they have at camp and how much they appreciate Camp Adahi. The new officers for the Horizon club are Chloe Winjum, president; Pat Kennedy, vice-president and treasurer; Mary Jane Kovaly, secretary and scribe.

Wahanka Camp Fire group under the guardianship of Mrs. J. C. Lowe, has elected the following new officers: Ila Mae Beam, president; Barbara Senko, vice-president; Barbara Lowe, secretary; Kara Lee Newell, treasurer; Ellen VanDyke, scribe; Lenore Fox and Elaine Flint, program committee. At the recent cake sale held by the Wahanka group, the girls made a profit of $13.50. Out of this amount, a case of canned milk was purchased and given to the Christmas Ship.

Wetomachick Camp Fire group held its last two meetings in the Camp Fire Girls' office while their guardian, Mrs. L. H. Hewitt, was out of town. The girls have been knitting squares for an Afghan for the Red Cross.

The Watanda Camp Fire girls, under guardianship of Miss Margaret Perry, registered their group in the national Camp Fire Christmas card contest. Through the cooperation of friends, parents and sponsors the girls were able to sell 350 boxes. To date no word has come from national as to their final standing in the contest. The money from the sale of Christmas cards is kept on an individual basis and each girl has the profits from her sales to pay her registration fee, to apply toward her camp expense, or to purchase necessary equipment for Camp Fire.

The girls made needle holders from felt for Christmas gifts for their mothers.

All girls in this Camp Fire group are working on Wood Gathering rank.

David Hill Blue Birds met Monday afternoon and elected the following new officers: Nancy Watts,
