

Classified Ads Continued

For Sale—Real Estate

HILLSBORO
Mod 5-room home, 4 bks from business district. Good location, large lot. Terms, $5500.
New mod 2-bedroom home, plastered, hardwood floors, wired for range. Will pass G. L. $7500.
7-Room mod home, on large lot, concrete foundation, garage and workshop, 4 bedrooms, a good buy at $6000.

Cornelius
11 Acres within 1/2 mile of town, 3 acres of peaches, 2 A of full bearing walnuts and filberts, but of land in grain, good 6-room mod house, large barn, hen house and 20 garage. See this for money maker.
7 1/2 Acres, 2 mi town, 1 A filberts, 3 acres cherries, several apple and pear trees, mod 5-room plastered home on concrete foundation, dbl garage, 4 hen houses 20x30 ft each, 3 brooder houses, 800 laying hens go with place. Also new tractor Chev panel truck. This is a good farm with a steady income.
3-bedroom home, very well built on a large lot. A real bargain. $4750. 2 acres more land if buyer wishes.

FOREST GROVE
New 2-bedroom house sets on concrete foundation, is well built, wired for elec and plastered. Out of town on good highway for only $2700.
88 Acres of hill land, 48 A in cult, balance timber and pasture, 6 A strawberries, 3 Acres prunes, bal grain, 7-room modern home, family orchard, barn and 40x50 hen houses, some stock. $12,500.

W. L. D. REAL ESTATE
Cornelius, Oregon—Phone 1083
Rolf LeCone, Realtor
Res. Phone 1912, Hillsboro
Dist. for Scoggins Valley Bldg Logs

WELDING machine or small factory shop with or without machinery, 100x100 grounds, small modern home, oil heat, etc. Clean throughout. Must see to appreciate. $26,500 cash—Write R. J. Seethaler, 2044 N Willis Blvd., Portland. 45p

FOR SALE BY OWNER—New home, near Forest Grove, lived in only 6 months, all hardwood floors, 2 bdrms, garage attached—Turn S at Masonic Home, second house on left. Call after 6 p.m. 44-45p

5-ACRE tract for sale, small house and barn, 3 chicken coops, newly drilled well—Ivo De Vlamincik, Rt. 2, Forest Grove, 1/2 mi S of Hwy store. 44-46p

BRAND NEW 2 bedroom home, electrically heated, hardwood floors, fluorescent lights, modern plumbing, electric hot water heater, lovely kitchen, large living room, utility room, garage. Just completed never been lived in. On 1/2 acre land about 1 1/2 miles out of Hillsboro. Price $8000. One-half cash. Buy and move in at once.

FRANK O. EAGON
Hillsboro, (on hwy), Phone 801, 38

FOR RENT
Trailer Space for rent—Call at 1210 E. Oak St., Hillsboro. 38tr

Wanted to Rent 40
FOUR or five-room unfurnished house wanted to rent—C. C. Clifton, S. P. Depot, Hillsboro, 45p

WANT to rent 25 A of hill land suitable for raising strawberries—Iwasaki Bros., Rt. 5, Box 59, Hillsboro, Phone 18113. 44tr

WANT to rent about 6 to 8 A bottom land suitable for raising vegetables—Write Iwasaki Bros., Rt. 5, Box 59, Hillsboro, Phone 18113. 44tr

WANTED by couple, furnished house or apartment by February 1. No children, pets nor drinking—Phone 381, Hillsboro. 44tr

WANT to rent 2 or 3-bedroom home—Phone 231. 45tr

Blazing Fire Ruins Farm Buildings
By Mrs. Joe Baker Jr.
MOUNTAINDALE—Fire destroyed the home of Pat Murphy Monday, January 23, at Mountaindale. The fire started on the roof about 9:30 a. m. and spread until it completely demolished it. Later in the day the fire raged until the barn on the George Morrill Sr. farm was destroyed.

The 500 club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Williams Monday evening, January 23. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Janie Sanford, first; Mrs. Goldie Christensen, second; and the ladies and Charles Lee, first; Richard Sanford, second. The traveler's prize was won by A. K. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Connolly were guests of the club.

For Vacation Expense Money
Sell Stow-Aways the Argus Classified Ad Way—Phone 231. 44tr

MEMBER
OREGON ASSOCIATION
INSURANCE AGENTS
PROTECT YOURSELF
FAIR DEALING BY ANY MEMBER WHO DISPLAYS THIS EMBLEM!

Rushlow Insurance
23 YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE
336 E. Washington St. Phone 111

Wanted—Real Estate 37
NEW modern homes, for sale, 5 and 6 rooms with radiat heat and reverse refrigeration heat, in Birchwood Park, Hillsboro, and Cedar Mill Park. Priced from $10,300 to $14,000. Small on payment, balance like rent—Fred McLain Construction Co., 1061 E. Jackson, Phone 4692 or Beaverton 3033. 44tr

LOTS for sale, in city of Cornelius, 50 x 115-foot—See Milford O. Barakman, city manager, Cornelius, Phone Forest Grove 408-R. 5tr

WASHINGTON COUNTY AGENCIES
"Complete County Coverage"
Sold by
WASHINGTON COUNTY AGENCIES
Listings wanted

Harry M. Seabold, Realtor
Office:
Hillsboro—337 E. Main
Forest Grove—News-Times Bldg.
Beaverton—735 Canyon Road
REAL ESTATE — INSURANCE 43tr

For Rent 38
SLEEPING room for rent—Ardel Buss, 123 W. Lincoln, Hillsboro. 45p

FURNISHED sleeping room with heat, for rent—Inquire 337 East Main, Hillsboro. 45p

FURNISHED one room apartment, for rent, for working girl, private entrance, plenty hot water, shower, close in—Phone Hillsboro 1211. 45p

DOWNSTAIRS 4-room apartment, unfurnished, for rent—Call 241 N 1st avenue, Hillsboro. 45p

MODERN duplex for couple for rent, Portland highway to Brookwood avenue—R. Frewing, turn left at Tyson's store, 1 block, turn left to end of road. 45p

ROOM for rent—404 E. Jackson, Hillsboro. 45p

FOR RENT by the day: Vacuum cleaner, 50c; hand model, 35c; floor polisher, 50c; paint spray outfit, $2.50—Selfridge Furniture Co., 136 S. Third, Hillsboro, Phone 21 38tr

RETURN from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Benefit Dinner Saturday Night At Manning; Installation Held
By Mrs. Elva Toike
BUXTON-MANNING—A chicken-noodle dinner will be served Saturday evening, January 24, from 5 to 9 p. m. at Manning Social club hall. Tickets are being sold at 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children, proceeds to be used for repairs for the hall. Mrs. Corbett Crowther, assisted by Mrs. Corwin Senior and Mrs. Jack Benefield, are in charge of the dinner and Bruce McCann is in charge of tickets. Public is invited.

Aid China Missions
Rev. and Mrs. Alden Whipple, representing China Inland missions, had charge of services at Manning Sunday morning. They showed colored pictures of China and the work being done there. The collection of $3.50 was donated to China missions. John Friesen will be at Hillside church next Sunday and Don Goss will be at Manning. Mr. Goss formerly had charge here.

Wesley Duncan is visiting his mother at Central Point.

Bonnette Strawn of Forest Grove spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Shields. Several members of the Thespian society of Banks high school from here attended a play at the Civic theatre in Portland Friday evening.

Jerry Congrove, Joyce and Jess McNeil and the Burk children are the latest victims of chicken pox.

Manning Social club held a meeting Wednesday evening and final plans were made for the chicken-noodle dinner. Mrs. Bruce McCann and Mrs. Joe Frydendall were appointed to audit the club books.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two weeks illness at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Birthdays Observed
Buxton Review No. 29 of the Woman's Benefit association met in their hall here Thursday with potluck dinner at noon in honor of members having birthday anniversaries in January. Honored members included: Mrs. Cora Conley, Tommy Lines and Mrs. Clara Allen whose anniversaries were January 4, 5 and 16, respectively. A business meeting and installation of officers was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Alice Estep as installing officer. It was voted to give a donation to the March of Dimes and also the cancer fund.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman of Junction City arrived January 20 and is visiting her brother, Bill and Fred Riegle, and families, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kelly.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman received word Saturday that her son-in-law, Albert Gentz, is in a Sweet Home hospital with an injured leg, suffered from a fall while working on a fuel bin at the power plant in Foster January 14.

Exton school has its projector and pictures of South America were shown last week. They plan to have films each week from the library of Oregon State college.

Buxton lower grades have a project in stores. They have a miniature store. Last week they visited Exton Mercantile store and the frozen food lockers where they were shown around by Cleo Hunter, clerk. The children have been busy goods in their store.

Return from Iowa
Mrs. Frances McKim arrived Sunday morning from Washington, Iowa, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Manley. Mrs. McKim formerly lived with Mrs. Manley but went to Iowa two and a half years ago to keep house for her brother, Jim Zeck, who died November 11.

Mr. A. E. E. arrived home January 13 from McChord Field, Wash. where she had visited her son and daughter-in-law, T. Set, and Mrs. Floyd Rye, and their son since before Christmas.

Hermodas Buy Home
The new home built by Earl Benson was just purchased by James Hermodas of Beaverton. Mr. Hermodas is a son of Mrs. McKim.

Young Johnnie Oliver Cunningham just returned home after two