

Dorine Foelker Is Easter Bride Of Donald Smith

St. Matthew's church of Hillsboro was the scene of a lovely Easter wedding on Sunday, March 28, at 4 p.m. when Miss Dorine E. Foelker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Foelker of Hillsboro, became the bride of Donald T. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Smith of Sweet Home. Rev. T. J. Costelloe read the marriage rites.

Miss Corinne Wortman played the wedding music and Miss June McCrum, sorority sister of the bride, was soloist. Her selections were "Ave Maria" and "Pans Angelicus." The church was decorated with Easter lilies, snapdragons and white stock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with full train and white Bertha collar of Venetian lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a little Dutch cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white arm bouquet of calla lilies centered with white orchids.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Albert Bretthauer, who wore a dress of sky blue organza over tulle. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Foelker and Mrs. Donald Foelker; junior bridesmaid was Miss Nancy Watts. Their gowns were pastel shades of green, pink and yellow, fashioned with bustle blouses over full skirts, with cap sleeves. They carried primrose rosette bouquets clustered with violets.

Best man was Russell DeBont; other attendants were Kenneth Williams, Harold Hopper, ushers were Don Foelker and Jack Hulsman.

A reception followed the ceremony at the American Legion hall, which was decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. A. J. Foelker, aunt of the bride, poured; Miss Christie Germeroth cut the cake; Miss Carol Watts was in charge of the guest.

book. Misses Margaret Cousens and Clara Rickford were in charge of gifts. Miss Beverly Ellis and Mrs. William Weber presided at the punch bowl. Sorority sisters of the bride assisted about the rooms.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Decker of Seattle, Wash.

For her going-away the bride wore a petal pink suit with chocolate brown topcoat and accessories.

After a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after April 4 at Parkside apartments at Cornelius.

The bride attended Hillsboro High school, San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and Pacific university, where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

The bridegroom attended Forest Grove High school, Pacific university, where he is a member of Alpha Zeta fraternity, and will transfer to Oregon State next fall.

CDA Sets Plans For Card Party On April 9th

Court St. Cecilia No. 1467 has had a busy time this past month.

On March 14, eight members took four candidates to McMinnville for initiation. Congratulations to Mrs. Marie Allen, Mrs. Nora Beard, Mrs. Celia Boye and Miss Helen Kirmak on their new membership to this Court.

The officers of the court met at the home of Grand Regent Betty Waggonblast on March 15 to outline work for the following meeting and for the year. This is to be a regular event held prior to the regular meetings.

At the regular meeting on March 17, plans were discussed for the forthcoming card party to be held early in April.

The C. D. A. card party will be held Friday, April 9, at the home of Mrs. Altshin, just south of the Hazledale school, with pinoche and 500 in order. A charge of one dollar per couple is asked and refreshments will be served by the committee. Anyone interested in a fine time with good prizes is urged to attend.

Watch for our next meeting. It promises excellent entertainment.
