

Turner-Meyers Nuptials Held At Oswego Church

REEDVILLE. In a spring setting of daffodils, forget-me-nots and white stocks, Miss Carolyn E. Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers of Hammond, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Turner of Reedville, in the Congregational church of Oswego Wednesday evening, March 24, in the presence of members of the two families and close friends. Rev. Virgil Hicks read the ceremony.

Mrs. Bryan Truett played the wedding music. Bob Weyers sang "At Dawning" and "I Love Thee." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white broadcloth gown with long sleeves and train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a halo of orange blossoms, and she carried a spring bride's bouquet of yellow and white flowers.

Miss Joanne Kline of Portland was her only attendant. She wore a gown of aqua moire with a cascade of yellow roses.

Dean Wilcox of Grass Valley was best man. Ushers were Fred and Burton Westman, sons of the bride. Bill Baker, Sherwood Wilford, Ralph Bergeson and Stanley Whipple lit the candles.

Mrs. Meyers, mother of the bride, wore a rose-colored afternoon dress. Mrs. Turner, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green afternoon gown of Bonberg sheer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin Beverly. Marion Weidman, cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Harold Napper was in charge of the guest book.

After a short honeymoon at the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Turner will make their home in Forest Grove, where he is a sophomore at Pacific university. Mrs. Turner graduated from Astoria high school and attended Pacific university, where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

Congregational News of Week

The church school program received hearty approval. The children gave a good account of themselves. The juniors in their first appearance in a singing role justified the hopes of a junior choir. They will meet regularly and plan to sing at the worship service on Mother's Day.

Congregational-Christian ministers of the state met in convocation at Nelscott this week, Monday to Thursday. Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Nourse were in attendance.

The Church Night dinner date has been changed to Wednesday, April 2, in view of a conflict. The principal item of business will be the report from the planning committee. Things have shaped up to the place that it is quite possible that the church will be able to decide definitely on the nature of the improvements to be made. There will be some entertainment provided for.

Beginning next Sunday Mr. Nourse will have a class during the church school hour on "What It Means to Be a Christian." This is in preparation for church membership. The next reception of new members will be on Mother's Day.

The sermon theme for next Sunday will be "After Easter, What?"

Beaverton Grange Has Busy Month

Members of Beaverton Grange and their families met at the hall March 1 for pot-luck dinner, which was followed by the lecturer's program, in which a large number of the members took part. Between 55 and 60 attended.

The all-day meeting March 13 was also well attended, and pot-luck luncheon was served at noon. St. Patrick's decorations were featured in the dining hall and tables and a large decorated candle-lit cake honored the members having birthdays during the month. Special and most welcome guests were A. M. "Andy" Kennedy, who has not been able to attend Grange for more than two years, Mrs. Carrie Hansen, and Mrs. Louise Carter of Seattle, Wash. Several interesting antiques were brought by the members for the display table, which is a feature of each Grange meeting.

March 22 Beaverton Grange entertained members of the Scholastic and Kinton Granges, and first and second degrees of the order were conferred on six candidates, two of them being from Kinton. The lecture hour, prepared by Mrs. Dorie Peckins of Beaverton and Mrs. W. H. Decker of Scholastic, offered the following numbers: A "mixer" in which all present took part, two poems, given by Mrs. John Schmelzer, tableau and song, "Sowing the Seed," with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gilt and Mr. Alfio Wooden taking part in the tableau; two solos by Raymond McCann, accompanied by Mrs. Ina Sutherland, comedy skit, "The Day After Tomorrow," by Mrs. Carl Hansen and Harry L. Hudson; a peanut contest between five members from each Beaverton and Scholastic winners. The display table showed fancy-work articles brought by members.

Mrs. Carrie Hansen received special honors for 25 years of continuous membership in the Grange. Mrs. Hugh Lewis, formerly of Beaverton and now residing in Yamhill, was a visitor. Pot-luck refreshments were served to 70 members and friends.

Next regular meeting will be on Saturday, April 10, at 10:30 a. m., and the Home Economics club will meet in the hall Tuesday, April 13.

Miss Canutt is March Bride of Clarence Rice

Spring flowers and palms decorated the Grace Memorial Episcopal church of Portland for the wedding Sunday afternoon, March 21, at 4 o'clock, of Miss Dona Canutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Canutt of Portland, and Clarence G. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rice, of 3. Hillsboro. Rev. John Richardson performed the ceremony.

Songs preceding the ceremony were by Mrs. David Bell and Robert Hansmann.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional long gown of satinback crepe, princess style, with sweetheart neckline. Her floor-length veil with beaded lace was trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a cascade of pink and white roses.

Miss Bonnie Canutt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a teal blue marquisette formal and carrying a bouquet of spring flowers. Bridesmaids were Misses Maggie Lausback and Elizabeth Beebe, in pink marquisette formal and carrying bouquets of spring flowers. Best man was Duane Danielson and ushers were Frank Fennimore and Zane Winters. Bradley Canutt, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the parish house. Pouring were Mrs. R. L. Rice, Mrs. J. A. Saari, Mrs. A. H. Canutt and Mrs. L. R. Lausback. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Mario Lauer, with Mrs. Allan Strain and Mrs. Edgar Odenweyer assisting. Mrs. H. D. Edmonds was in charge of the reception. Girls helping to serve were Misses Betty Lou Elliott, Joan Saari, Jeanne Matteson, Beth Barker, Ann Akerson, Rosemary Isom, Ruth Christensen, Willetta Freeman, Helen Orton and Mesdames Lee Hunsaker, R. C. Hiatt, T. J. Langton and Zane Winters.

Leaving on her wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the bride wore a grey gabardine suit and green gabardine coat, with black accessories.

After April 5 the couple will live on route 3, Hillsboro.
