James Richters, route 4, Hillsboro, senior vice-commander; Don Becker, junior vice commander; Leon Davis, quartermaster; Ford Kenney, post advocate; Lowell Brown, chaplain; Jesse Snyder, route 4, Sherwood, surgeon; Albert Erickson, three-year trustee. Appointive officers installed were: Donald Braithwaite, adjutant; Tom Lusk, officer of the day; Elmer Rollins, patriotic instructor; Odell Brandaw, post historian; Dolph Stuart, post service officer; Fred Corn, post legislative officer; Chester Edgett, guard; John Kennelly and Al Erickson, color bearers; Francis Beach, public relations officer; Wally Folsom, post employment officer; Lowell Brown, sergeant major; Howard Davis, quartermaster sergeant.

NEW PRESIDENT — Mrs. John Kennelly, who was installed Friday night as president of the VFW Auxiliary.

Mrs. Clara Kennelly was installed as president of the Auxiliary; Charlotte Bucher, senior vice-president; Mildred Richter, junior vice-president; Amanda Spears, chaplain; Eva Braithwaite, secretary; Mildred Folsom, treasurer; Ida Smith, conductress; Lela Smith, guard; Lida Aiman, patriotic instructor; Derle Brown, historian; Mildred Hoover, musician; Vivian Beach, three-year trustee; Laura Lusk, Vivian Beach, Eva Muller and Clara Erickson, color bearers.

Ida Smith, retiring president, was presented with a past president's pin by Verdas Brown. She also received a gift and an invitation to join the Past Presidents' club.

Retiring Commander Smith presented Mrs. Smith with a bouquet of red rosebuds, and President-elect Clara Kennelly received roses from Ralph Hess, commander-elect of the post. Don Becker, singing "A Little Bit of Heaven," accompanied by Marie Morrison, made up the short program.

Mildred Hoover received a gift from the Past Presidents' club in appreciation of her work at the Veterans' hospital.

Auxiliary guests included Mrs. Windus, installing officer; Maybelle Stone, district president; Helen Barnes, president of the 41st Division Auxiliary, and Mary Hadley, president of the Legion Auxiliary.

The next meeting will be held May 14 at the V. F. W. hall on Ninth and Oak.

Clarence Heaton Weds April 10 at Columbus, Ohio

The Morgan Memorial Methodist church of Columbus, Ohio, was the scene of the wedding April 10 of Miss Thelma Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Johnson of Columbus, and Mr. Clarence Heaton, son of Walter Heaton, route 2, Hillsboro. The Rev. H. M. McAdow read the ceremony before an altar decorated with candelabra, greenery and lilies.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua dressmaker suit with gray accessories, and carried a bouquet of minuet carnations and ranunculas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Baird of Rochester, N. Y., sister of the bride, wore a russet colored dressmaker suit with brown accessories. She carried ranunculas in yellow shades and yellow carnations.

Albert Baird was best man, and ushers were Dale Johnson of Ostrander and Harold Mielke, brother and brother-in-law of the bride.

Vocalists were Misses Beulah Mathers and Shirley Mielke.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. V. Mielke.

The bride is the former secretary of the president of Motorists Mutual Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Heaton will make their home at Scholls.

Double Wedding Held at Vancouver

Wesley (Bud) Gibbens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Gibbens, and Miss Maribelle Melville, daughter of Mr. M. Melville of Forest Grove and Mrs. Frances Melville of Portland; also Robert Mead, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mead, and Miss Irene Hoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoff, all of Forest Grove, were united in marriage at a double wedding ceremony Saturday morning, April 24, at the Vancouver Bridal chapel at Vancouver, Wash.

After a short honeymoon at the Oregon beaches the young couples plan on making their homes in Portland, where the bridegrooms are employed.

Rev. Warren Starts Series of Sermons

The second in a series of sermons based on the general theme of Christianity and non-Christian personalities will be delivered by Robert L. Warren at Hillsboro Methodist church Sunday.

Last Sunday "The Story of Mrs. Twaddle" was told by the minister. In coming weeks sermons entitled "Joe College and Betty Co-ed" and "The Story of Rev. Sanctimonious" will be included in the series.

MARRIED IN OHIO—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heaton (Miss Thelma Johnson) married April 10 in Columbus, Ohio. They will make their home at Scholls.

Degree Conferred On Eight Persons

Hillsboro Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening with a large attendance including a number of visitors. The Rebekah degree was conferred on eight candidates, three being from Ruby Rebekah lodge No. 174, Scholls.

This was "Friendship" night and a friendship degree was given all guests and each presented with a gift from the Noble Grand. Refreshments were served in a unique manner at beautifully decorated tables. Friendship songs were sung. Heading the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ramey.

First meeting of the month was "Surprise" night and all members who were not officers or past noble grands were considered special guests and seated as honorary officers and presented with a gift of a primrose plant. The noble grand also received a "Surprise" gift.

Delegates to the Rebekah Assembly at Eugene May 18 were elected as follows: Olive Ramey, Mildred Fisher, Jessie Young; alternates: Ina Bowman, Varie Dean, Charlotte Bucher. Mildred Fisher was recommended as district deputy president.

In looking over the register it appears that the "Reds" are in the "Red" in the attendance contest. "Greens" seems to have a big majority.

Hillsboro C.D.A. Members Attend State Convention

A number of Hillsboro members attended the state convention of Catholic Daughters held at Klamath Falls Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Wilma Lewis of Los Angeles, representative of the National Court, attended.

Registration took place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Knights of Columbus hall, followed with "call to order" at 10:30, with the address of welcome by Commander Lynn Roycroft of the Klamath Falls American Legion Post preceding the morning business session. An afternoon business meeting was held at 2 o'clock.

A banquet at 6 o'clock was served at the Willard hotel to about 200 members, state officers and speakers. The toastmistress was Mrs. Minnie McCroskey of Court Klamath Falls. Others on the program were Mrs. Rose O'Leary, grand regent, Court Klamath Falls; Mrs. Rose Bell, state regent; Rev. E. J. Murnane, state chaplain; Miss Harriet Lovenik, vocal solo, accompanied by Patsy Clark; Rev. Timothy Casey, chaplain, Court Klamath Falls; Mrs. Nellie Franzwa, "Mother" of the C. D. A. in Oregon; Mrs. Wilma Lewis, national representative; selections by the Cecelian ensemble of Sacred Heart academy, Klamath Falls.

At 8 o'clock following the banquet an initiation of new members took place in the KC hall with the ritualistic degree work put on by the degree team of Court Capitol City, Salem, using the new ritualistic degree.

Sunday mass and holy communion in a body was at Sacred Heart church with Father Murnane, state chaplain, celebrant, followed by breakfast at the Winema hotel.

At 11 o'clock state officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Rose Bell, Stayton, re-elected state regent; Mrs. Mildred Smith, Klamath Falls, vice-regent; Mrs. Hazel Holboke, Salem, secretary; Miss Helen C. Welch, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. Clarissa Trembley, Tillamook, monitor; Miss Anne Erwert, Mt. Angel, and Mrs. Helen White, Salem, delegates to the national convention at Pasadena in July.

At 1:45 a luncheon was served at the Pelican grille.

The state convention, which is held every two years, will be at Pendleton in 1950. The place of the state conference next year will be announced later.

Attending from Court Christie were Mrs. Charles Duyck, grand regent, who gave the reports for her court; Miss Lena Delplanche, Miss Emma DeVlaeminck, Mrs. Joseph H. Seus, Mrs. Edward Seus of Tule Lake, Cal., who was the alternate delegate for Court Christie. The Hillsboro members were accompanied by Mrs. Duyck's daughters, Mary Ann and Carol, Mrs. William VanDyke and Joseph H. Seus. All were dinner and overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seus Sunday evening at their home at Tule Lake, Cal.
