

Campaign Week Scheduled for Coming Concerts

The officers of the Hillsboro Community Association met with Mrs. Kenneth Davison, general secretary, for a discussion of plans for the coming week. The organization of Campaign Week June 1 to 5 Mrs. William E. Hinds, president, announced headquarters for the week will be at the Portland General Electric office.

Advance notices and campaign folders have been received from the New York headquarters by the secretary, Kitty May Crockett.

Reports showed that the response of those interviewed to date was most gratifying and it is believed an enthusiastic corps of workers will be in readiness for the Campaign Week. A dinner for the complete staff of workers and officers will start the campaign on June first. Mrs. J. M. Person is in charge of the dinner.

Many top flight artists are making a special tour during the coming fall and winter, making this a propitious time for Hillsboro to organize. Over 1000 towns have already availed themselves of the opportunity of having these community concerts.

Mrs. Davison requests full cooperation in the accomplishment of the community project. Anyone willing to assist is requested to call Mrs. Davison at 2983.

RNA Makes Plans For Convention

Plans were completed at the last meeting, May 5, of the Royal Neighbors for all members who could attend the district convention at St. Johns, Hillsboro, put on a part of the work, and three candidates for officers from this camp will attend. Maude Stannard, past district orator, Myra Upward, chancellor, and Ada Qualls, song leader. Mrs. Qualls will also give the response to the address of welcome.

Eight members were initiated at this meeting. After the business session, Ada Qualls sang "Mother," and dedicated it to all mothers. The officers then formed an aisle and Mrs. Qualls escorted Mrs. Margaret Thompson, the oldest mother, and Dorothy McCain, the youngest mother, to the orator's station, where Captain Fay Ward presented them with pins and gifts, after which they were given the grand honors.

The hall and dining room were decorated with many baskets of flowers furnished by Mrs. Qualls. Tables in dining room were decorated with May baskets of flowers and long sprays of apple blossoms. Refreshments were served by Captain Ward and her committee.

Ludlows Return Home by Plane

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Ludlow of Twin Falls, Idaho, who have been visiting Mrs. Edna Ludlow in Hillsboro and Mrs. J. D. Hardon of Forest Grove, have returned to their home in Idaho by plane.

They are 83 and 81 years old and this was their first plane trip.

The pilot, Ernest Tresham, reported the trip. He had to change the regular route over the mountains because of ice and snow and flew over the John Day country instead. The pilot's father, James Tresham of McMinnville, accompanied him on the trip.

Miss Helm Bride Of Harold Hoyt At Trinity Church

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, May 1, at the Trinity Lutheran church in Hillsboro, Miss June Helm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Helm of Aloha, became the bride of Harold Hoyt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoyt of Portland. The Reverend George Reule performed the ceremony in a setting of salmon pink gladioli, white and rose snapdragons, stock, calla lilies and palms. A floral piece of white snapdragons and pink carnations decorated the organ.

Miss Kathryn Reule and Mrs. Ray Harns were the soloists, with Edwin Kieckhafer at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and marquisette, with full length veil held in place by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Rose of Shaws and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Helm, wore a frock of turquoise taffeta and carried a bouquet of dark pink carnations and snapdragons made in fan shape. The bridesmaids, Misses Kathleen Watts and Eileen Helm, wore similar frocks and carried bouquets of a lighter shade of pink.

Vyrle Morton was best man, and ushers were Harold Hughes and Robert Helm.

A reception was held in the social room of the church. Claude Bishop and Mrs. Elmer Tilden poured. Others assisting were Mrs. Richard Walters, Mrs. Erwin Walters, and Mrs. James Thurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt will make their home in Portland after May 15 upon their return from a wedding trip to California.
