

GFWC Presidents Guests at Luncheon

Hillsboro received national recognition Monday afternoon when state presidents of the Federation of Women's Clubs of the United States were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. William B. Chandlee, president of the Oregon Federation. Fifty-five guests were present.

Friends of Mrs. Chandlee and members of the Hillsboro Coffee club, of which she is a member, were hostesses for the luncheon, including the Mesdames Ruben Kuratli, Neal Bush, Shelby Forney, W. H. Piercy, J. H. Romaine, Earle Bowman, Gilbert Forsyth, and Kenneth Davison.

Mrs. Chandlee, in introducing the luncheon hostesses, said that her friends had made it easy for her by being so co-operative in helping with arrangements for the convention.

Place cards were the work of Judy Schendel, a student of the art department of Hillsboro union high school. Each card was shaped like a map of the president's respective state with state flowers painted in water colors.

Corsages of gardenias for the guests were gifts of Hill Florists.

A musical program was given after luncheon by Mrs. Kenneth Davison, violinist, accompanied by Miss Jean Williams, pianist.

Mrs. Chandlee took moving pictures of the visitors as they arrived and later on the lawn.

New cars were supplied by the automobile dealers to transport the guests to Hillsboro and back to Portland. Cars, dealers and drivers were: Buick (Bradford-Streitwieser) Ray Bradford, driver; DeSoto (Dean Graham Motors) Vic Hodson; Dodge (Cady Motors) Don Cady; Hudson (Halvorsen) Donna Halvorsen; Kaiser (Doyle-Chapman) Jerry Doyle; Lincoln (MacKenzie) R. L. Burnett; Nash (Stranahan) Mrs. Homer Settemier; Oldsmobile (Morley) G. Johnson; Pontiac (Swank) Mrs. Jack Swank. A private car, that of Rev. John Schierling, was driven by Mrs. Edward Brown. Grant Johnson, member of the chamber of commerce, arranged for the caravan and police escort.

J. F. Senko Nursery, Cornelius, donated a lovely variety of rhododendrons for outside decorations at the Chandlee home, and also camellias.

Haley Cannery sent souvenirs of canned chicken products for the visitors, and Oregon Nut Shellers company (Chandlee) gave sacks of roasted filberts.

Other states sending souvenirs to Hillsboro for the occasion were Massachusetts, boxes of cranberry products, and from Elko, Nevada, chamber of commerce, picture and literature from that county.

The Oregon State banquet Monday night at the Shrine ballroom, Masonic temple, Portland, was the opening event of the General Federation of Women's Clubs being held in Portland this week.

Mrs. William B. Chandlee, president of the Oregon Federation, and Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, presided.

Mrs. Genevieve Baum Gaskins led in singing "Star Spangled Banner." Rev. D. E. Nourse of Hillsboro gave the invocation. Miss Olive Zimmerman of the Portland

D.A.V. Installs Officers Tuesday

The Washington county chapter No. 7, Disabled American Veterans, will meet in regular session Tuesday evening, June 1, in the Legion hall. On their agenda will be matters pertaining to instructing the delegates going to the state convention at Roseburg June 10-11-12.

The newly elected officers are to be installed by some ranking department officers. Indications are that quite a group of department officials will come to this meeting. The Auxiliary is also expecting its department president, Alice Tepolt, to be present at initiation ceremonies.

Headquarters of Membership for Concerts, PGE

Headquarters for the membership campaign of the Hillsboro Community Concert association will be open at the Portland General Electric office during the entire week of June 1 to 3. Mrs. Kitty May Crockett, secretary of the organization, has announced. Every day from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. a staff of volunteers will be on hand at headquarters to receive reports from the corps of workers being organized by Mrs. Kenneth Davison, general chairman, to enroll members in the association.

Dues received from members of the association will be pooled at the close of the campaign on Saturday, June 5, for the purpose of engaging artists for the series of concerts to be presented by the organization to the music lovers of Hillsboro and surrounding districts during the fall and winter months.

Membership in the association is open to every resident of Hillsboro, Forest Grove, Beaverton and surrounding areas. Mrs. Crockett stressed, however, that applications must be made on a seasonal basis during campaign week, either through one of the workers or at headquarters. No more memberships for the 1948-1949 season can be accepted after the drive ends.

The artists for the minimum of three concerts promised by the association will be selected by the officers and board of directors from a comprehensive list embracing virtually all the world's well known opera, radio and concert singers, instrumental virtuosos and orchestral, vocal and dance ensembles.

Launching the membership campaign will be a dinner on the evening, June 1, at the Episcopal parish hall, when the officers and workers will meet with Miss Margaret Blackburn, organization director of Community Concert Service of New York. Miss Blackburn will remain in town throughout the week to assist the officials in details of the campaign. Mrs. J. M. Person is chairman for the dinner.

Officers for the organization are: Mrs. William E. Hinds, president; Ronald Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Davison, general chairman; Mrs. Kitty May Crockett, secretary; Clyde Yount, treasurer.

Flower Show to Be Held Friday

Final plans are going ahead for the Hillsboro Garden club's flower show, which will be open to the public at All Saints Episcopal church parish hall, Fourth and Lincoln, Friday from 2 to 3:30 p. m., according to Mrs. L. L. MacIntyre, general chairman.

The public is invited to exhibit and entries will be accepted on Friday morning from 8 to 10:30 o'clock.

Prizes will include the following: Rose bushes, donated by Rich & Son Nursery, fertilizer and spray, by Chipman Chemical company, Portland Seed company, California Spray and Chemical company, and Swift & company.

Picnic Planned—The Needlecraft club will hold its picnic at the home of Mrs. Ray Sigler on Thursday, June 3. The affair will be pot-luck.

Royal Neighbors Have Memorial

Royal Neighbors met May 19 in the Moose hall with a good attendance and about 20 visitors from Portland, Forest Grove and Banks. A beautiful memorial and program of the charter was put on for Mary Jane Grey, past supreme chancellor of the Royal Neighbors and past district deputy of Hillsboro, Forest Grove and Banks for many years. Katie Fairfax gave the eulogy and Mae Logan gave a short talk. Ada Qualls sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

During the good of the order, the marshals presented Beulah Morley, Myra Upward, Harriet Evenson, Wilma Dally, Vena Ober and Mable Carlson to the Oracles' station, where they were complimented in their work and presented with corsages and gifts.

The state supervisor, Mae E. Logan, and district deputy, Katie Fairfax, both of Portland, and Groveline Prickett, past state oracle, were escorted to the Oracle's station and presented with corsages. These presentations were made by Ada Qualls.

After the meeting closed, a program, both comic and serious, was presented. The hall and dining room were decorated with baskets and vases of flowers. Refreshments were served by the committee. Captain Fay Ward was in charge of the evening.
