

FINISH FIRST EDUCATIONAL LAP—Students of the local B. W. Barnes school who have finished the eighth grade this year are pictured above on the steps of the new high school. A farewell banquet was held in their honor at the Peter Boscow school cafeteria Friday night,

May 14, and diplomas were awarded last week, according to Walter L. Henry, principal. Realizing that eighth grade students are only starting on the educational pathway, Henry stressed that the ceremonies are not a completion, but only a beginning, for the students. Because of the over-crowded condition at the school, it was impossible to invite the parents to attend the assembly at which the diplomas were presented, Henry said. Teachers for the eighth grade this year were Miss Betty Hansen, Miss Margwen Morgan and Jasper Rogers.—(Argus photo)

Each member is requested to bring a dish towel or pillow case to this meeting and these will be sent to the mission in the French American. Mrs. Richard Jossy led the devotion and the mission study was continued. Mesdames Ben Leu, Herman Schindler and Richard Wisner presented a dramatization of an article from the missionary magazine, entitled "Yakima Went to Encuejajah."

Friends are being told of the betrothal of Miss Eleanor Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schaefer to Jack Herman of Portland. No date has been set for the wedding.

Included in the Beaverton high school graduating class are Arlene Lundahl, Etta Dyle, Patricia Targett, and Mark Cornish of this vicinity.

Prize Won, Money Lost
Von Carstensen, who lives on Springfield road, received a $50 award for the best suggestion turned in by an employee of the Portland Gas & Coke Co. Von, who works in the Production Bureau Refinery plant, suggested an economical method of recovering pitch when the transfer pipe is steamed out. The company gives prizes for ideas every three months and $50 is the maximum award. A photo on the front page of the April "Blue Flame," the company paper, showed Mr. Carstensen receiving the $50 check from W. A. Kohlhoff, plant superintendent. After cashing the check, Von had the misfortune to lose the money while riding a motorcycle near his home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Graf, accompanied by daughters, Marilyn and Marjorie, and son Douglas have motored to New York state to attend the graduation from West Point Military Academy of their elder son, Robert. They will return about mid June.
