

Congregational Church Votes to Remodel Building

By a very enthusiastic and unanimous vote at the Congregational Church Night meeting the trustees were instructed to proceed immediately with the improvement program which has been under consideration. The items include: a new organ, hymnals, chancel, window drapes, painting of the exterior, entrance refinish, a linoleum tile for the basement floor, curtain arrangement for new classes and paving of Fifth avenue; these to be followed by a new pew arrangement, parlor improvement and new shelving and cabinets both upstairs and down. There is also a possibility that new lighting fixtures will be installed.

Dale Engelen was elected to fill the unexpired term of deacon created by the death of Charles L. Walker.

A committee to select those who will serve on the Church Night committees was appointed consisting of Mrs. E. A. Griffith, Mrs.

PRESIDENT—Mrs. Frank Young who has been elected president of the Cedar Mill Garden club—(Cut courtesy Oregon Journal)

W. A. Foster, Miss Lottie Butler and Mrs. Dale Engelen.

It was voted to release the minister during the month of July for a month's summer school work at Sylvanvale, Colo., where he has received a scholarship.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Davies were guests at the meeting.

Next Sunday will be Children's Day; instead of the regular worship service there will be a baptism of little folk and a program presented by the church school and junior choir. The children will come at the regular hour (ten o'clock) for class registration and preparation for the program.

Visits Daughter—Mrs. Florence Thomas of The Dalles came last week to visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pearson, and children. Because of flood conditions along the Columbia, the trip by train to Portland took six hours.

Boy Breaks Leg—Kent, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Michaelson, is confined to his home with a broken leg.

Knispel-Ruecker Marriage Rites Held Saturday

At a candlelight ceremony held in St. Peter's Lutheran church south of Cornelius Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Margaret Ruecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ruecker, became the bride of Maurice Knispel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knispel of Portland. Rev. O. H. Moeller, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony amidst a setting of white gladioli and carnations and pale pink snapdragons.

Ronald M. Clark, music instructor at Hillsboro high school, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the pipe organ by Mrs. C. A. Germeroth who also played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made on train with a sheer yoke and a wide bertha collar of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and pink Cecil Brunner roses.

Miss Helen Ruecker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of mauve iridescent taffeta with matching headband and a baby orchid in her hair.

The Misses Brenda and Clarice Germeroth were bridesmaids and wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor. All attendants carried crescent shaped bouquets of baby orchids.

Best man was Walter Foelker and groomsmen were Warren Knispel, brother of the bridegroom, and Walter Ruecker, brother of the bride. Ushers were Alvin Pfahl and Norman Ruecker, brother of the bride. Harold Ruecker and Fred Knispel Jr., youngest brothers of the couple, lighted the candles.

At the reception following in the church parlors Mrs. Walter Ruecker poured and Miss Anna Meyer, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Clara B. Palmer was at the punch bowl. Miss Ernestine Schulenberg was in charge of the guest book and Misses Irene and Joyce Gnos and Alice and Elaine Funtz helped with the gifts. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Donna Scholz and Esther Meyer and the Mesdames Oscar Pfahl, John Stark, Ernest Meyer and Albert Meyer.

For her going away ensemble the bride chose a Kelly green suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. After a trip to San Francisco, Cal., the couple will be at home in Hillsboro.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and Pacific university and attended the University of Washington. She is a member of Theta Nu Alpha sorority and Oak Leaf honorary. At present she is teaching speech at Hillsboro high school.

The bridegroom, graduated from Nebraska State Teachers college and received his advanced work through the Oregon System of Higher Education. He is a member of Phi Tau Gamma, and Xi Phi, honorary fraternity. In 1942 he served in the U. S. Army and in the U. S. Maritime service, Pacific theater, 1944-45. He is now teaching world history at Hillsboro high school.

Out-of-town guests were from Seattle, Wash., Salem and Portland.

Recovering from Operation—Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foster, is recovering from an appendectomy.

In the Window

Colonel Joseph L. Meek's obituary in a Washington (Hillsboro) Independent, dated Thursday, June 25, 1935, is on display in the Hillsboro Argus window. Col. Meek died June 20, 1935. His granddaughter, Mrs. John Gates Jr. is the owner of the old newspaper.

Iris from the famous National Iris Gardens, owned and managed by Mrs. Edna Weed of Beaverton, are also on display. Mrs. Weed extended a cordial invitation to the public to see her eight acres of iris atop Cooper Mountain that feature over 800 varieties. The gardens may be reached by taking Wheeler avenue at Aloha and traveling approximately four miles south.

Hillsboro's National Guard unit has loaned World War II souvenirs from the European and Pacific theatres of operation to the Argus for window display. Among the articles are a Japanese rifle, German pack, arm bands, caps, helmet, pistol, bayonet, etc.

Past Oracles Conduct Last RNA Meeting

Past Oracles of the RNA were in charge of the last meeting of this group, with Mrs. Mabel Campbell as oracle. Three were initiated as members.

The committee which had been appointed to select a candidate for Goddess, reported that Carol Coslett, daughter of Mrs. Ida Hart had been chosen as candidate for the Royal Neighbors.

A reception will be held at the next meeting, June 17, for the Goddess candidate and to celebrate the 28th anniversary of the order. At this meeting charter members will be honored.

Membership and attendance contest is active, with Captain Mabel Campbell's side still in the lead.

Only one meeting will be held in July and August, the first Wednesday of each month.

Refreshments were served under direction of Thyra Foster, chairman. The dining room and hall were decorated with baskets and vases of flowers.

Art Show in Store

A clipping has been received from a San Francisco paper telling of a benefit art show held in the studios of Mrs. Carl Kennedy, interior decorator, formerly of Hillsboro. Madam Hedy Mearns, star of Wagnerian Opera in Europe, was guest soloist. Proceeds from the benefit exhibit of art were used for the building fund of St. Mary the Virgin Episcopal church.

Bible Study Classes Held Every Thursday

The Assembly of God church, 246 East Lincoln street, will hold Bible study classes every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock for special Bible study. Rev. Emerson of Portland will conduct these classes, which are open to the public.

Sunday night the pastor, Rev. C. E. Freeman, will speak on the subject "One Minute Before Midnight."

Named on Committee—Mrs. F. Abendroth has been elected to the Social Action committee of the state conference of Congregational churches.

Annual Picnic Dated—June 20 has been set as the date for the annual picnic of the Congregational church, with the Men's club in charge of arrangements. Place will be announced later.

Leaves Hospital—Mrs. L. P. Stranahan, who has been under treatment in the Jones hospital, was taken home Friday and is convalescing.

Lay Cornerstone Sunday, June 20

Professor R. B. Cameroner, M. S. T. Ph. D., St. Louis, Mo., will officiate at the cornerstone laying services at Trinity Lutheran church. The stone, supplied by the Oregon Monument Works, is beautifully wrought with the name of the church in gold. The service will be conducted on Sunday, June 20, at 3 p. m.

Home from College—Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Fox and family of Hillsboro returned home Saturday from Port Angeles, Wash., where they spent a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fox.

Home from Vacation—Doris Anderson returned home last Friday to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Anderson. She has been attending the Northwest Normal College, in Nampa, Idaho.
