

Miss Gembella, Mr. Kraus Married At Portland Church

In an evening ceremony, Miss Hazel Mae Gembella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gembella, became the bride of Mr. Alvin L. Kraus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kraus, at the First Evangelical United Brethren church in Portland, Friday, June 18. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Robert Wagoner, Don Hite sang "Because" and "At Dawning" accompanied by Mrs. Inez Farnham, organist, who played the wedding music. Candelights were Robert Ficken and Miss Annabelle Ficken.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with sweetheart neckline and a long train, her veil was of French tulle held in place by orange blossoms worn by her mother at her own wedding. She carried a recent shaped bouquet of carnations, stock and bouvardia centered by an orchid.

Miss Dorothy Ficken, maid of honor, wore a blue organza, bustled gown, and the Misses Kathleen Inay and Viola Bierly, bridesmaids, wore pink organza, bustled gowns. The junior bridesmaid, June Lindow, wore a white organza gown. Flowers were provided, carnations and stocks.

W. K. Meierhagen was best man, and Richard Kraus and Arthur Kraus were ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated with sweet peas, stocks, snapdragons, and ferns. Mrs. L. F. Ficken and Mrs. Walter Lindow poured, assisting about the rooms were Mrs. P. Lindow, Mrs. Floyd Bierly, and the Misses Emma and Hattie Mueller. Mrs. Dan Smith, Mrs. Arthur Kraus, and Miss Doris Heaton were in charge of the gifts, and Miss Marjorie Wheelan, the guest book.

The bride was a going away suit of black tulle with pink accessories. After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will live near Beaverton.

The bride was a student of Lewis and Clark college and the bridegroom is a student at Multnomah college. Mechanics' Union, the bridegroom served three years in the Army Air Corps, which included ten months in the Pacific theatre of war.

Decorations and floral arrangements were by Mrs. Dolly Flint of the Doll House.

Out of town guests were Miss June Lindow of Independence, Mrs. Floyd Bierly and Miss Viola Bierly of Gervais.

Rebekahs Initiate Five Candidates

Over 100 guests and members attended Hillsboro Rebekah lodge Tuesday evening when five candidates were initiated.

Hillsboro Rebekahs completed the ritualistic work and Forest Rebekah lodge No. 44 of Forest Grove put on the drill. This drill, which included many intricate snap-dragons, was beautifully done. Mrs. D. E. Brigham is drill captain.

Nine fathers present were introduced from the center of the floor and each presented a little gift.

Refreshments followed lodge. Table decorations were lovely. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jones and Mesdames Rose Sloan, Mary Farnham, Anna Weaver, Alberta Hargrave and Emma Long were the committee in charge.

Next meeting will be July 13, and will be short. Then members will go to the I. O. O. F. home in Portland for a program.

Church Dedication Postponed a Week

Due to inclement weather the service originally scheduled for the cornerstone laying of Trinity Lutheran church had to be postponed. Present plans are to proceed with the service next Sunday at 3:00 p. m. Rev. E. Eichmann of Trinity Lutheran church, Portland, will be the speaker.

Two Hillsboro Girls Go to Camp Westwind

Two Hillsboro girls, Virginia Patterson and Wilma Ready, members of the Hills Y-Teens, have registered for a vacation at Camp Westwind, and Evelyn Kramien won the scholarship from Hills Y-Teens permitting her one week's attendance at the camp.

The camp is four miles from Otis, and will be in session from July 2 to July 30 in one-week periods. Westwind has 2 1/2 miles of river frontage (Salmon) and 1 1/2 miles of ocean beach. There will be all kinds of camp activities and sports under capable and experienced leadership at all times. A trained nurse is always in camp, and a dietitian, as well as competent Red Cross swimming instructors.

For further information contact Miss Tennessee Weathered, Joan Kovaly, camp chairman, Hillsboro or YWCA, Portland 3, Ore.

Grange Donates Help

Hillsboro Grange meets Thursday (tonight) at 8 o'clock for its regular meeting. At the Saturday meeting the members donated $25 toward flood relief.
