

Eleanor Park and H. H. Skeels Wed At Cedar Mill

At a three o'clock wedding Saturday afternoon, June 18, Miss Eleanor Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Park of Portland, became the bride of Mr. H. H. Skeels, son of Mr. H. H. Skeels of Cedar Mill. Against a background of an arch covered with orange blossoms, yellow roses and blue delphiniums, the wedding took place on the lawn of the Skeels home. Rev. Joe Mitchell of the Hazeldeale Community church performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in an informal aqua dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. She carried yellow roses and a white prayer book.

Miss Dixie Lee Skeels, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, dressed in an aqua dress and carrying pink roses.

Lyric Skeels was his brother's best man and Wallace Park, brother of the bride, was usher.

A reception followed at the Skeels home with Mrs. Treglow. Wives of several Portland and Hillsboro members were present.

After closing members and guests had a wicker roast at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Treglow. Wives of several Portland and Hillsboro members were present.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Nancy Pitman, Sue Searcy and Gloria Schiffer.

The Episcopal church held a picnic Sunday after services at the Lutheran picnic grounds east of Hillsboro. A large crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huhman and daughters Ada and Betty attended the wedding.

Brosher-Giesbers Nuptials Held Tuesday, June 22

Evelyn Anna Giesbers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Giesbers, became the bride of Harvey Frank Brosher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brosher, at the St. Matthew's Catholic church Tuesday morning, June 22, at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. T. Costelloe performed the ceremony.

Musicians were Darlene Jarde and Jacqueline Barney, who accompanied Larry Pearson in "Our Father," "Pans Angelicus," and "Adoro Te." The church was decorated with orange blossoms and blue delphiniums with yellow and white streamers edging the aisles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net with lace waist and net yoke, short puffed sleeves and long lace gloves. She carried a white prayer book with a lavender orchid corsage in white carnations and streamers.

Miss Lorraine Van Beveren, maid of honor, wore a gown of yellow organza and headdress of yellow roses. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses and white sweet peas. Altar boys were Dennis McCoy and Douglas Giesbers.

Allan Giesbers, brother of the bride, was best man. Francis Brosher and Russell Brown were ushers. The bride's mother wore an aqua dress with gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress and gardenia corsage.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was decorated with roses and calla lilies. Mrs. Henry Desinger poured, assisted by Mrs. Edward Wortman and Mrs. Fred Davidson. Mrs. Don Carter, sister of the bride, cut the cake.

The bride wore a gray suit with white accessories and an orchid for her going away ensemble. The couple will make their home on 2nd E. Hillsboro, after a trip to Seaside. Both attended Hillsboro high school.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Carter and Billy Carter of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Van Grunsven, Mrs. Peter Giesbers, Mary Giesbers, and Theodore Giesbers, all of Forest Grove; and Bob Cassell of Cornelius.

Rev. D. E. Nourse Leaves for Colorado

Rev. D. E. Nourse, pastor of the Congregational church, left Monday for Silverdale, Colo., to attend the summer school conducted by the board of home missions for ministers in the western area. He expects to be gone a month and during his absence the pulpit will be supplied by guest speakers.

At Sunday morning's service, Miss Sally Ratcliffe was the soloist, her selection being "In God's Own Garden" (Cooke).

There will be no choir rehearsal during July and August. Mrs. Fred Sewell will be in charge of the music and will make arrangements for solos, etc.

C. Arthur Pearson, president of the Men's club, will be camp leader at Camp Adams during the period of July 5 to 12.

Dr. Francis T. Cooke will be the guest speaker Sunday. His subject will be "As a Man Thinketh in His Heart, So is He."

Family Reunion Held at VFW Hall

A family reunion and dinner was held at the V. F. W. hall Sunday, June 20, by the I. M. Bybee and Nelson Hume families. There were 36 present. Seven of the Bybees and 10 children were present.

Next meeting of the camp will be July 7.

Visits from Ashland—

Mrs. M. Hanel of Ashland left Monday for home after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Etta Hanel, and family.

RNA Celebrates 28th Anniversary

Fairfax camp, Royal Neighbors, celebrated its 28th anniversary at the last meeting June 18, at the Moose hall. Captain Mabel Campbell was in charge of the program.

The program included a specialty dance by Susan Mann, accompanied by Elaine Dobbins; humorous skits "Gathering of the Nuts," by Mildred Rush and Beulah Morley; Ada Qualls, Katie Fairfax, Fanny Rowe, Harriet Evenson, Jessie Walker and Elaine Dobbins; and piano selection by Lenora Fox.

Katie Fairfax, district deputy, who organized Fairfax camp 23 years ago, made a short talk, and in honor of the occasion presented the camp with a lovely white and gold Bible. The Past Oracles also presented the camp with a dozen silver forks and spoons, presentation being made by Lenora Fox.

Only two charter members were present, Cornelia Johanson and Beulah Morley. They were escorted to the oracle's station and presented with gifts from the camp by Maude Stannard.

The Goddess candidate, Carol Coslett, was an honored guest and was presented with a lovely gift from the camp, Mrs. Stannard making the presentation. Miss Coslett is the daughter of Mrs. Ida Hart, also a Royal Neighbor member.

A musical comedy, "A Family Row," was the closing number. Cast included Maude Stannard as father, Fay Vickers as mother, Marguerite Linn as daughter, and Eunice Kimmerie as son.

A large beautifully decorated anniversary cake, a gift from Mrs. Qualls, was the centerpiece on the long refreshment table. Mrs. Qualls, refreshment chairman, cut the cake. Catherine Wieber and Anna Woodward served, and Etta Cook and Anna Peterson poured. Two large baskets of red roses adorned the table.

Next meeting of the camp will be July 7.

Anna Marie Peters and Henry Moore Married Thursday

VERBOORT—In a double ring ceremony, Miss Anna Marie Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peters, Rt. 2, Forest Grove, became the bride of Mr. Henry J. Moore of Roy, son of Mr. Hugh Moore North Plains, in the Visitation church at Verboort Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. Rev. Pius Moore of San Francisco, uncle of the bridegroom, read the ceremony, assisted by Rev. William Delplaine, cousin of the bridegroom, and the Very Rev. Robert Neugebauer, Mr. Wayne Meusey, Salem, played the wedding music and sang.

The church was decorated with white lilies, blue and white delphiniums, pink and yellow snapdragons and lighted candles with streamers edging the aisles.

The bride's gown was of marquisette with shoulder capelet edged in satin applique, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, and a long train. Her lace-edged veil was held in place by a Mary Stuart lace cap. An orchid with streamers decorated her prayer book, which was carried by her mother on her wedding day.

Four sisters of the bride were her attendants. Miss Frances Peters was maid of honor, Miss Helen Peters was bridesmaid, and junior bridesmaids were the Misses Bernadette and Kathleen Peters. All wore pastel gowns of floral nylon with matching Mary Stuart caps. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of roses, white sweet peas, bouvardia, and fern with streamers.

The best man was Norbert Meusey, son of the bridegroom. Patrick Moore, brother of the bridegroom, and Wilfred Peters, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a noon dinner was held in the C. O. F. hall. Candles and bowls of flowers decorated the tables. Mrs. Ed Webb, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake, and Minnie Peters, aunt of the bride, was in charge of gifts.

Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Mildred Hillecke and Lois Vanderzanden, cousins of the bride. For going away the bride wore a white dress with orchid corsage. After a trip to California and Mexico, the couple will live temporarily in Cornelius.

The bride is a graduate of the Verboort high school and is an employee of the Birds Eye-Sonder plant in Hillsboro. The bridegroom is a graduate of Mohler Barber college in Portland.

Out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Larry Moore, Pius Moore, and Dineen; Mesdames Joseph Moore, Foley, and Peter Brocken; Messrs. Thomas Moore, Jack Moore and Wayne Peterson; and Miss Eileen Moore, all of Portland.

Home from Hospital—

Miss Anna Sias was taken home from Jones hospital Saturday, after a week's treatment there.

Composer Honored At Music Convention

Jean Williams, Portland composer and teacher who has been a music instructor in Hillsboro for several years, attended the Mu Phi Epsilon national convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, June 22 to 26.

The convention choros sang her setting of the Tennyson poem "Ring Out, Wild Bells," which won the national composition contest in 1947 and has been published by Harold Flammer, Inc., of New York.

From Cleveland Miss Williams went with relatives for a summer vacation in Chatham, Mass., and the Cape Cod country.
