

Miss Boge Bride Of H. I. Peterson At Beaverton

Miss Arleta Mildred Boge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Veldon C. Boge of Beaverton, became the bride of Harold John Peterson, Beaverton, in a ceremony held by Rev. George W. Suriner at the Beaverton Christian church Saturday evening, June 26 at 8 o'clock. The church was decorated with pink, peonies, snapdragons, and larkspur.

Evelyn Marsh and Peggy Brodmerkle were candlelighters. Mrs. Robert L. Barnes played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. Barnes, who sang "At Dawning and Because."

The bride wore a traditional white satin gown in princess style with sweetheart neckline embroidered with beads and pearls, long sleeves and train, and full length illusion veil. She carried a white prayer book with white orchid.

Miss Mylven Larson of Tillamook was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue organza. The Misses Home Boge, sister of the bride, Mary Myers, and Neva Green were bridesmaids. They wore pink orchid bouquets and all carried bouquets of pink roses, white carnations and pink sweet peas.

John Vanderjag was flower girl and wore a blue organza gown. Johnny Barnes and Peggy Brodmerkle were ring bearers.

Mr. John Barnes, nephew of the groom, was best man, and Messrs. Merwyn Boge, brother of the bride, Ernest Metcalfe, and Donald Metcalfe, both nephews of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The reception was held in the church basement which was decorated with pink roses. Mrs. Melville Jack, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Edwin Swartz, cousin of the bride, poured Mrs. John Barnes out the cake and the Misses Delores Fuller, Kathleen Ackerman, Patricia Campbell, and Nancy Campbell assisted. Beverly Roher was in charge of the guest book and Delores Wright in charge of gifts.

For going away the bride wore a black gabardine suit with Kelly green trim and white accessories. After a trip to San Francisco and Southern California, then to Las Vegas, Bryce Canyon and Salt Lake City, the couple will make their home in Beaverton.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduates of Beaverton high school. The bride attended Oregon College of Education this year, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State college. He was a member of Chi Phi fraternity.

Out of town guests were Messrs. Jean Grant who became a bride Saturday, June 19. The couple will make their home in Portland. Story in June 24 Argus.
