

Miss Elliott Weds Fred Danielson At Monmouth

Monmouth—The First Christian church of Monmouth was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony at 4 o'clock on Saturday evening, July 10 when Miss Betty Lou Elliott became the bride of Fred Danielson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Danielson of Hillsboro.

The bride walked down the aisle beside her father, Roy D. Elliott, who gave her in marriage. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Willard A. Elkins of Salem, a former pastor of the Monmouth Christian church. The bride was radiant in a gown with bodice of white lace, fashioned with a low, scalloped neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt of white satin, with a short train. Her finger-tip length veil of net was caught at the top with sprays of fresh bouquet. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Attendants at the ceremony included Mrs. George Wallace of Salem, mother of the bride, who wore a long gown of aqua shiraz, short aqua lace mitts and carried a nosegay of sweetpeas in mixed colors. A cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Warren T. Elliott of Medford, brother of the bride, and Gene A. DeMent of Monmouth.

Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Hamann of Monmouth and Mrs. Arlene Wanker of Portland. The bridegroom wore a peach-colored sharkskin, fashioned with light bodices, short sleeves and long full skirt. They wore short, peach-colored lace mitts and carried old-fashioned nosegays of sweetpeas.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Elliott chose a dress of rose rayon crepe, fashioned with a low neckline and wide Bertha collar, gold accessories, rose lace mitts and small flowers in her hair arrangement.

Wilt-Demaree Vows Solemnized At Bride's Home

Miss Dorothy Gladys Demaree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Demaree, and Mr. Albert Alfred Wilt, son of Mrs. N. Wilt of Corvallis, were united in marriage at eight o'clock in the evening Friday, July 9 at the home of the bride's parents in Newport. Rev. Jones of the Nazarene church performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ruffled not gown with finger tip veil held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Doris Karlinger, was her sister's only attendant. She chose a gown of pink tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of florets. Mrs. Neil Wilt, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Mrs. Myron Winget, the bride's aunt, played the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a flowered crepe.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served to thirty-five guests. Mrs. Margaret Greenwood, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake.

Camera Club Plans Officer Election

Hillsboro Camera club will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. at 911 E. Lincoln, at which time an election will be held for the office of president. Members are urged to attend.

For her going-away suit, Mrs. Danielson wore aqua cotton gabardine with gold buttons, an orchid corsage and hat and gloves of white eyelet pique.

The young couple left for a wedding trip to Crater Lake and points of interest in Northern California, after which they will be at home in Aloha.

Mrs. Danielson will teach the 5th grade there this fall. Mr. Danielson will be employed at Hillsboro during the summer months and attend dental school at Portland this winter.

Scholz-Stark Wedding Vows Exchanged Friday

In a setting of candlelight and white gladioli and carnations, Miss Donna Scholz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Scholz of Cornelius, and Willis Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stark also of Cornelius, were united in marriage Friday night, July 9, at 8:30 o'clock in St. Peter's Lutheran church south of Cornelius. Rev. O. H. Mueller performed the double ring ceremony.

Alvin Schultz of Sherwood, uncle of the bride, played the wedding music and also accompanied Mrs. Eldon Baurer of Portland, who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with lace yoke and long train and a lace-edged fingertip veil of imported French illusion held in place by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid and streamers.

Miss Iris McVay, maid of honor, wore a gown of aqua nylon voile and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Ruth Scholz, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a yellow tulle gown and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

Earl Meyer acted as best man and Bob Scholz, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Ushers were Elmer Gurske and Jim Scholz, brother of the bride.

At the reception following in the church parlors Mrs. Harry Wolf of Portland poured and Mrs. Ed Rehwalt cut the cake. Miss Lois Rehwalt, cousin of the bride from Eden, Idaho, was at the punch bowl while Miss Ann Scholz, Miss Helen Ruecker, Mrs. Ernest Meyer, and Jay Wright were in charge of gifts.

Miss Thelma Scholz and Miss Faye Cantrill were in charge of the guest book. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Bernice Ehler, Mildred and Marcella Brandaw, Arlene and Norma Muhly, Dolores Brandaw and Darlene Cantrill.

For her going-away ensemble the bride chose a teal blue suit with white accessories. After a trip to Canada the young couple will be at home at route 2, Cornelius where the bridegroom will continue to assist his father on their farm.

The bride graduated from Hillsboro in the class of '46 and has been employed for the past 2 1/2 years by Griffith and Meeker, realtors. The bridegroom graduated from Hillsboro in 1945.

Among out-of-town guests were Miss Lois Rehwalt of Eden, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Iden, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, and their twin sons from Chicago, Ill.
