

Rebekah Lodge Has Busy Month; Also Lawn Party

July has been an active month for Hillsboro Rebekah Lodge. After their first meeting on the 13th, 30 members drove to the Odd Fellows Home in Portland and entertained the brothers and sisters there with a short program, later serving homemade cake, ice cream and punch. Marshmallow favors were given to each one—supposed to represent a "cow" but which they decided represented a "donkey" as the Democratic convention was in the limelight at the time. The home residents enjoyed the party, especially the homemade cake.

After the second meeting the 27th, about 60 members were entertained with a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ramey. Grilled hamburgers with all the trimmings were served. Committee members, Mrs. Edwin A. Bowman, Mrs. Arline Eslinger, Mrs. Virginia Hamby, Mrs. Carol Babcock, Miss Kathryn Weik, Mrs. Cecil Hanna.

Picnic Slated

W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church will hold their picnic and general meeting Wednesday, August 4, at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. P. J. Kalkwarf on east Oak street.

Tualatin Slate Lists Three Tilts

The three-way tilt of Tualatin Valley League baseball play may be broken Sunday when rained out games of June 20 are played. Hillsboro, Forest Grove and Banks are currently tied for first place honors with five wins and one defeat each.

Hillsboro is scheduled to play Beaverton there Sunday, and Banks will tangle with Verbonet at Banks Forest Grove, which was scheduled to play Yamhill June 20, will remain idle because Yamhill has withdrawn from the league. If Hillsboro and Banks win Sunday, this situation will complicate league standings, leaving Forest Grove with one less game played.

In case a play-off is necessary after Sunday's games, arrangements will be announced next week.

Tilt Rained Out

The Banks-Forest Grove clash in the state semi-pro baseball tournament was rained out Tuesday night. The game was scheduled for the following night.
