

TO LIVE AT HUBER—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lundgren (Shirley Varnier), who will be at home in Huber after September 1. They were married July 25 at Highway Chapel, Beaverton, with reception at Baptist Gospel Chapel, Hillsboro.—(L. C. Harrell photo)

Miss Varner Weds George Lundgren At Beaverton

The Highway Chapel at Beaverton was the scene of the wedding on Sunday, July 25, of Miss Shirley Varnier, daughter of Mrs. Hilda Phelps of Hillsboro, and George A. Lundgren, son of Mrs. L. G. Lundgren of Miami, Fla. The chapel was decorated profusely with gladioli, as Rev. O. Poulin read the marriage ceremony at 2:30 p. m. Wedding music was provided by a trio consisting of Rev. and Mrs. Poulin and Mrs. D. Stevens, accompanied by Miss Betty Hogan.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride wore a wedding gown of brocade, a long train and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and lavender sweetpeas.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Evelyn Davis of Billings, Mont., in a gown of lavender. Her bridesmaids were of coral and yellow gladioli. Junior bridesmaids were Misses Norma Fox in lavender, and Norma Fox in yellow. The bride carried nosegays of hydrangeas and gladioli.

Best man was L. Stevens of Portland.

A reception was held at Baptist Gospel chapel, Hillsboro. Table decorations were hydrangeas, with Norma Fox pouring and Lenore Fox cutting the cake.

The couple will be at home in Huber after September 1.

Camp Fire Girls News of the Week

Washington county Camp Fire Girls attending the Pirates Alley session from July 25 to July 31, report an enjoyable time with a breakfast cook out and overnight hike as the climax of their busy week. Campers earned many honors in outdoor craft, creative arts, sports and games. Eleven passed Follwing swim honors and will get Red Cross beginner's skill test awards. Washington County Health nurse personnel are instructing in more advanced first-aid. "Pirate of Pooh" and "Pink Parrot" are their dramatic presentations.

Mrs. John Huson, camp director, has maintained a library of books for each group and it is a very successful venture as the girls are reading many books. Mrs. Georgia Smith, Hillsboro Librarian, has aided in the selection. Jewelry made from shells and candleholders in a rustic manner are very clever articles on display in the handicraft work. Two campers, Mary Jo Megargel, and Joan Horning received their Woodgatherer rank while at camp. All campers worked on ranks and bead awards were very much in evidence. Name honors were awarded to: Juanita Landauer, Nancy Lehnus, Patty Gibbons, Marilee McCoy, Joyce Milen, Donna Jean Brown, Mary Jo Megargel, Sharon McGrath, and Diane Eastman.

Miss Ann Marie Reeling is a new Councilor and Miss Jean Broderick is back acting as Councilor. Camp Fire Girls from Hillsboro are: Joanne Settlemeier, Carol Ann Shaw, Rosemary McGinn, Carol Jean Robbins, Mary Carol Davidson, Carol Thompson, Joann Garrigus, Donna Jesse, Sharon Love, Lett, Lola Thomas, Jo Ann Robinson, Nora Trussell, Norma Ready, Bonnie Coons, Jill Meke, Jacky Wilcox, and Mary Cowden. Joyce Steinbach, Lorna Kummer, Pauline Hering, Ann Munford, Naomi Turk, Maxine McDaniel, Dana Buchanan, Lois Oriet and Joan Botham are from Cornelius.

Memorial Flower—A geranium taken from a plant, which was planted by her mother years ago, was brought into the Argus office Friday by Mrs. Loverna Harrington just 30 years to the day from when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wahl of Scoggins Valley, were killed in an automobile accident near Dilley.

Name Omitted—The name of Mrs. Ed Brandaw as one of the hostesses was inadvertently left out in a news item last week for the Mildred Brandaw bridal shower, held at St. Peter's Lutheran church, south of Cornelius.

Teaches in Alaska—Miss Helen Pearson of Hillsboro will leave August 21 for Anchorage, Alaska, where she will teach fifth grade.
