

Miss Nielson Weds Orville Schoen On August 7th

One of the prettiest summer weddings was held Saturday evening, August 7, at Trinity Lutheran church in Hillsboro when Miss Geneva A. Nielson of Hillsboro became the bride of Orville J. Schoen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Schoen. The church was lovely with pastel shades of gladioli, delphiniums, and roses, and candles lined the aisles and the altar as Rev. George Heule read the marriage ceremony at 8 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by R. L. Burnett, wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin with a bustle and long train. She had a full length veil of lace and net, with face (brush) veil. Her flowers were an all white bouquet of straight roses, stephanotis, babies' breath, and white gladioli, centered with white butterfly orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Norma Lou Kroeger, wearing a gown of light blue slipper satin with bustle, back and elbow-length gauntlets and headpiece of same material as the dress. She carried a rainbow bouquet of anthuriums, which had been flown from Hawaii for the occasion. Bridesmaids were Jean Benson, Marion Weiss, and Sally Weverka, all wearing dresses and carrying flowers identical to the maid of honor's.

Best man was Ronald Zagel of Portland and serving as ushers were Howard Schoen, Donald Schoen, and Harold Anderson. Judy and Jimmie Robb were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Judy wore a floor length white slipper satin dress identical to those of the bridesmaids, also gauntlets and headpiece.

Soloist was Kathryn Reule, singing "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Edwin Kieckhefer, who played the wedding music.

For her son's wedding, Mrs.

Schoen wore a floor-length gown of grey crepe with a grey Juliet cap and corsage of anthuriums.

A reception was held following the wedding at Hillsboro Grange hall for 500 guests. The table was lovely with white candles, white gladioli and pink cactus dahlias. Following his trade as baker, the bridegroom had baked his own wedding cake—a huge affair weighing 100 pounds. There were five tiers, with three layers to each tier. Mrs. Frank Klein poured, with Mrs. R. L. Burnett and Mrs. Howard Schoen cutting the cake. Assistants were Mrs. Keith Bechtel, Mrs. Ernest Loeden, and Mrs. Daryl Cayoeca. In charge of gifts were Polly Wagner and Kathryn Reule, with Betty Treblehorn taking care of the guest book.

The bride's going-away ensemble consisted of a burgundy suit with grey accessories and a butterfly orchid corsage. The couple went on their honeymoon to the Canadian Rockies and will be at home at 446 East Main, Hillsboro, after August 15.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school, class of '43, and is presently employed as office nurse for Doctors Robb and Pierce. The bridegroom attended schools in Salem and Hillsboro, graduating from Hillsboro high in 1945. He attended Concordia Academy in Portland, later serving overseas with the navy for 14 months. He graduated with honors from Dunwoody Institute of Bakery, Minneapolis, Minn.

Two Ordained at Baptist Gospel Chapel Sunday

A very large crowd was in attendance at the public ordination service held in the Baptist Gospel Chapel at Fifth and Baseline, Sunday afternoon.

The service began with the congregation singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" after which Pastor Muford read a poem entitled "As Ye Go Preach." A duet by Norma and Lenore Fox was entitled "Speak My Lord." The pastor then delivered "A Parable for Preachers," Art Beals sang a solo "The Closer I Walk," which was followed by a reading, "Your Pastor and Mine." Rev. W. T. Muford sang a special solo "Do Not Lose the Vision," then delivered his ordination sermon "The Preacher and His Power."

Beginning the Ordination ceremony, the candidates, Rev. Donald C. Bailes and Rev. Dewey C. Beffa knelt on the platform. Rev. Muford read the ordination vows, and the candidates, Rev. Donald C. Bailes and Rev. Dewey C. Beffa, placed their hands on the heads of the candidates and formally set them apart to the work of the Gospel Ministry with prayer.

A movie was taken of the whole proceedings and will be shown in the near future. The candidates immediately families greeted and congratulated them, followed by the congregation. The Chapel has sent forth four candidates into the Gospel Ministry during its brief history of four years.
