

Miss Kenaston Is Bride of Homer Justice

At a quiet wedding ceremony held Saturday, August 14, at the Methodist Parsonage, Vancouver, Wash., Miss Christine Kenaston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kenaston of route one, Hillsboro, was married to Homer Justice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Justice of Portland. Rev. Roy E. Pared read the marriage rites at 8 p. m.

The bride wore a gray suit, with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Joan Kenaston, maid of honor, wore a blue suit with brown accessories. Her bouquet was of white roses. Best man was Clyde Justice of Portland, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, for immediate relatives and friends. The couple made the first cut in their three-tier wedding cake. Miss Betty Jo Justice poured, with Mrs. Henry Gregg, sister of the bride, cutting the cake. Miss Anna Lou Justice was in charge of the guest book.

The couple is now at home in Kennewick, Wash. Mr. Justice is employed as a painter at White Bluffs, Wash. He spent six weeks in the navy, much of that time overseas. The bride was employed for the past nine months at Perfection Bakery, Hillsboro.

Now Available

McCormick-Deering

CORN BINDERS

ONE-ROW POWER-DRIVE CORN BINDER
ONE-ROW GROUND-DRIVE CORN BINDER

Vertical Type with

Conveyor Bundle Carrier
Tractor Hitch

DEAN GRAHAM MOTORS, Inc.

DESOTO — PLYMOUTH

1st and Washington Hillsboro, Oregon Phone 3861

We Can REPAIR
All Types of Farm Machinery

and Farm Implements

Specialized Service on
OLIVER and CLETRAC
EQUIPMENT

OLIVER SALES & SERVICE

SERVICE WITH $ VALUE

W. Baseline at Dennis — Hillsboro
Bill Gabelman, Ken McGrath, Walt Newman

Lose Pounds and Inches

Safely and Completely

NO DIETS — NO EXERCISING

Visit Our Slenderizing Department

— in —

Oregon's Most Complete
Head-to-Toe Beauty Salon

FREE

September 2nd and 3rd

FACIAL AND SKIN ANALYSIS

by New York Representative of Princess Nyla Cosmetics
By appointment only

Benefit Dance and Style Show

For Childrens Recreational Fund

Saturday, Sept. 11th — Shute Park

8:30 p. m.

DOREL'

Beauty Complete

379 E. Main St.—Hillsboro Phone 2374

Don Johnston
Pat Jackson

Aileen Hermens
Mary Thornton

Clea Powers
"Billy" Shipley

Court Christie Donates Clothes

Court Christie No. 1370 Catholic Daughters of America met Thursday evening in the Moose hall, Stella St. Busch, Grand Regent, presided. She requested that the donations of new clothing for children be turned in to the committee by August 23. Clothing is to be sent to the Holy Father.

Lola Plagg, package adoption chairman reported one package sent in July.

The annual C. D. A. K. C. and Catholic Day picnic to which the boys from St. Mary's are invited, will be Sunday at Baln Grove. Being your own cream and sugar. A very active committee is working hard towards the success of the picnic.

A "white elephant" sale, with some very interesting "elephants" took place after the meeting. Mrs. Sylvia Peters was the auctioneer. Over $50 was netted from this sale.

Refreshments were served by the following committee: Patricia Dierickx, chairman; Rita Hermens, co-chairman; Ellen Jarde, Honorette; Jesse Elizabeth Kromer, Edna M. Kirk, Dorothy L. Klein, Mary D. Kraft, Rose Marie Krautshied, Frances M. Callahan, Elsie Lillegard, and Alma B. McCoy, hostesses.

Return from Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Pleschik of Gaston and their four daughters, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. Krieger of Forest Grove, returned last Thursday from a trip through Idaho, Utah, Arizona and California. They went for a swim in Great Salt Lake and visited the Grand Canyon. In Utah they experienced a storm of thunder, lightning and rain such as never seen in Oregon. They had a very fine trip.

Barbara Johnson Is Bride of Gordon Mann

Hillsboro Methodist church, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, August 14, when Miss Barbara Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Johnson of Hillsboro, became the bride of Warren Gordon Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mann of Hillsboro. Rev. Robert L. Warren, pastor of the church read the canonical ceremony at 2 p. m.

The church, which had been decorated by the bride's brother, Donald Johnson, was lovely with white and pink gardenia, white dahlias and pink poms. Pink and blue bouquets centered with white poms were on the end of each pew.

Miss Barbara Gabelman played the wedding music with "Breeze" and "Oh, Promise Me" sung by Miss Margaret Hart.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white satin with draped shoulder and a full length train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of white flowers. The wedding bouquet consisted of white gardenias centered with a sprig of three gardenias. The little flower girl, Susan Mann, sister of the bridegroom, wore a dress identical to the bride's and carried a blue basket with pink and white flowers.

Maid of honor was Miss Bernice Hansen, wearing a gown of pale blue with pink dots and white gardenia. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Lou Johnson, sister of the bride, wearing a pink dotted dress with white gardenia. The bride's brother, Donald Johnson, was the best man, wearing a white tuxedo with a pink rose and white carnations. The groom's brother, Warren Mann, was the best man, wearing a white tuxedo with a pink rose and white carnations.

Best man was Norman Mann, brother of the bridegroom, of Berkeley, Cal. Jim Johnson, the bride's brother, was groomsmen. Donald Johnson, the bride's brother, of Portland.

At the reception in the church parlors, the table was decorated with a centerpiece of white gardenia, pink roses and white carnations and also the three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and surrounded with white gardenia. Mrs. J. Kennedy and Mrs. W. Gabelman poured, with Mrs. Marshall Binkard cutting the cake. Assisting were Mrs. J. B. Thomas and Mrs. Dale Engelen. In charge of gifts were Misses Phoebe Brown and Pat Kennedy, with Miss Barbara Jean Thomas taking care of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnson wore a gown of blue crepe with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Ella Johnson, the bride's grandmother of Davenport, Neb.; Miss Harry Gable, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisk Peters, Miss Mary Withycombe and Mrs. J. M. Withycombe, all of Portland.

The bride's going-away ensemble consisted of a brown Glen plaid suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. Following their short honeymoon trip along the beaches, the couple is at home at an apartment at 145 East Oak. They are both graduates of Hillsboro High school.

150 Attend Meet Of Wilkes Clan

The annual reunion of the descendants of Pheasant and Anna Dallas Wilkes, a pioneer family which arrived in Oregon in 1845 and settled on the site where the town of Base is now situated, was held Sunday at the Community hall at Dundee. There were 150 members of the Wilkes clan present.

Mrs. Orville G. Wilkes of Tillamook, retiring president, conducted a short business meeting at which Mrs. Elsie Wilkes Danner of Monmouth was elected president for the ensuing year and Miss Elsie Wilkes of Portland was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Plans were made for next year's reunion to be held at Tillamook on August 21, 1948.

After a bounteous pot-luck dinner the afternoon was spent visiting, recalling memories of pioneer days and viewing a collection of old family pictures. Musical entertainment was furnished by Mary Jane Wilkes Mitchell of Tillamook, Virginia St. James and Jack Dyer III of Portland.

Visit Lakes—

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Qualls of Banks have returned from a 10-day vacation trip to a couple of lakes in the vicinity of Spokane. They report fine weather and very good fishing, boating and swimming.

Brother Visits Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Qualls of Powder Springs, Tenn., arrived Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Qualls of near Banks. Jess Qualls is a younger brother of P. A. Qualls.

WED RECENTLY—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gordon Mann (Barbara Johnson), who were married August 14 at Hillsboro Methodist church. The couple is now at home in Hillsboro after a short wedding trip. —(Carleah Studio photo)

September 16-18 Are Dates Set for Legion Convention

The Oregon convention of the Legion and Auxiliary will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 16-18, at Astoria. This is the 28th annual department convention and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Deadline for registration of delegates is September 2.

All business sessions of the Auxiliary department will be held at the First Methodist church.

A ritualistic contest will be held by Auxiliaries on September 15, at 8 p. m., and units planning to enter this contest should notify Malvina Steele, Clatskanie. Past district presidents and district presidents' breakfast will be held September 13 at First Presbyterian church. Gold Star Mothers tea will be held September 16 from 4:30 to 5 p. m. Rocketeer hour will be held September 17 from 5 to 6 p. m. in the Elks Temple lounge. This club is made up of members who have brought five new members in to the Auxiliary. Unit presidents and past presidents' banquet will be held at Club 13, at 6:30 p. m. Friday, September 17.

Camera Club Plans County Fair Exhibit

One hundred feet of the new quonset building at the County Fair grounds will be allocated for exhibit of the Hillsboro Camera club. It was announced this week. Members are urged to resubmit all previous salon displays along with new photographs for consideration for the exhibition to Lowell Krusen at Kramien's Drug store, Hillsboro as soon as possible.

Visit From California—

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rouse left Tuesday morning for their home in San Diego, Cal., after visiting about a week with Mrs. Rouse's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Gibbens, and family. Another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, were overnight guests at the Gibbens home on Thursday, while they were en route to their home in Sacramento, Cal.

Births

Births at Jones Hospital—

Parks—To Mr. and Mrs. Dale Parks of Hillsboro, August 15, a girl, Linda Marie.

Penn—To Mr. and Mrs. Russell Penn of Orem, August 14, a boy, no name yet.

Doern—To Mr. and Mrs. John Doern of Beaverton, August 14, a girl, Linda Marie.

Chadwick—To Mr. and Mrs. Verland Chadwick of Aloha, August 14, a girl, no name yet.

Burns—To Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Burns of Hillsboro, August 17, a girl, no name yet.

Tankersley—To Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tankersley of Buxton, August 17, a boy, no name yet.

Hertel—To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hertel of Hillsboro, August 18, a boy, no name yet.

Parties Honor Peggy Chapman

Mrs. E. A. Messer was hostess last Friday at Forest Hills Country club at a luncheon for 10, honoring Miss Peggy Chapman, bride-elect of Elbridge Andersen. Guests included the honoree's mother, Mrs. R. W. Chapman, and grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Chapman. Present also were her maid of honor, Miss Mimi Crockett, and Miss Gloria Bates, who will be soloist for the wedding this Saturday, and other friends of the family.

The table was decorated with white asters and candles, with a color motif of green and white. The hostess presented Miss Chapman with a gift of Kensington ware.

Among other parties honoring Miss Chapman was a dessert party given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack McWilliams at their home Monday night for Miss Chapman and her fiancé. There were 12 present.

Mrs. Michael Cerino of Portland honored Miss Chapman with a bridal shower at her home on Saturday afternoon. There were 20 present, mostly relatives and old friends of the family.

Chandlees Join Oregon Trails Group in Oregon

Joining the Oregon Trails association caravan at Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Chandlee accompanied the travelers to Walla Walla, Wash., where they visited the Whitman mission, then to The Dalles and over the Barlow trail to Portland. They returned home Thursday night.

There were 12 cars in the caravan from all over the United States, including Dr. Howard Driggs of New York, National American Pioneer Trails president; Mrs. Clyde Porter of Kansas City, Mo., who won the Pulitzer prize on her story, "Across the Missouri," and also Adler Fairbanks of Salt Lake, Utah, who designed the Centennial stamp which will be used.

Monuments were re-dedicated all along the way, including two at Baker. The group was entertained at Baker with an outdoor steak dinner by the Gentlemen's association of eastern Oregon. The Union County Pioneer association entertained in LaGrande. In Pendleton a chuck wagon dinner was served the party, and at The Dalles a salmon dinner was served. On Friday night a picnic dinner was served at Council Crest, Portland, and the Centennial banquet was held at the Masonic Temple, Portland.

Prior to joining the Oregon Trails association at Baker, Mr. Chandlee made a 4-day pack trip up Wallowa mountain, where he took many moving pictures.

Family Reunion Held—A family picnic and reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Gibbens, with 35 relatives and friends attending. Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bolton of Owasso, Mich.; Irene Camp of Henderson, Mich.; Mrs. Bernice Richard of Lansing, Mich.; and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rouse of San Diego, Cal.

Pomona Grange Picnic Sunday; Local Grange Busy

The Hillsboro Grange met Saturday for an all-day session, with a pot-luck dinner at noon and an important announcement being made of the Pomona picnic to be held Sunday at Shute park.

The Grange convened at 10:30 a. m. with three candidates given the third degree obligation. Mr. and Mrs. R. Hornecker were presented with silver certificates for membership of 25 years. The fair committee chairman, Kate Burkhalter, and all members of the Grange met in the club rooms in the Grange hall basement Monday night to work out plans for the picnic, which they will arrange at the fair. An invitation was read from Aloha Grange to attend Boosters night, with open meeting and program, Maude Stannard and Ada Qualls will put on a number for the program.

During the business meeting, many matters of vital interest to the farmers and the community were discussed on the floor. Sister Erna Vandehey was elected to the office of Ceres. It was voted to have an attendance and membership contest with Ada Qualls as manager and Ida Hornecker and Elta Cook as captains. The contest will run from August until December 31, with the losing side to entertain.

In the afternoon during the lecture hour, the Home Economics club put on a fine program under the able direction of Ida Hornecker, chairman. A very interesting and humorous program was very much enjoyed by all.

The next regular meeting will be Thursday night, August 26. There will be a game sponsored by Ada Qualls, lecturer, at this meeting under the good of the order. All members are requested to attend this meeting.

At the September 11, Saturday, all-day meeting, there will be an old-fashioned country fair, with members dressed in costumes of bygone days. Members will display their handwork, hobbies and farm products. There will be a fine program and all members are urged to attend this meeting. Visitors are also welcome to come and enjoy a full day with Hillsboro Grange. The Home Economics club will meet at the home of Ada Qualls, near Banks, Tuesday, August 24, with pot-luck picnic dinner at noon.

Visits Son—

Mrs. S. E. Olson is spending the week with her son Onas in Salem.

WEDDING CAKES

are a specialty of ours.
We like to make them...
We take special care with our wedding cake orders.

Your best Baker displays the "Fresh Baked" seal of quality—shop for it!

PERFECTION BAKERY

HILLSBORO
Main St. Phone 541

Thursday, August 19, 1948—Hillsboro (Ore.) Argus 7

Annual Picnic Slated

The members and families of Canton and Auxiliary, Yamhill No. 6, are holding their annual picnic in the park at McMinnville on Sunday, August 22. Coffee and cream will be furnished. Come out and make it the best picnic yet.

Here From Philippines

Mrs. Maria Lander and grandson of the Philippines arrived the last of the week by plane to visit her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Dixon and family of Cornelius. She will be here for some time and brought a lot of souvenirs from the islands.

ONLY ONCE A YEAR

A Rare Beauty Opportunity

Cara Nome Creams, favorites for two generations, are rarely offered at a sales price. We want you to know how economical these $2 sizes are. You'll love the rich-textured, thorough cleansing and refreshing quality of these marvelous creams. For twenty days only you may have Cara Nome Cold Cream for dry skin, or Cara Nome Cleansing Cream for oily skin, as you prefer.

August 22 Through September 10 Only

THE EXCITING 20 DAY BEAUTY OFFER!

FOR DRY SKIN FOR OILY SKIN

CARA NOME

The $2 jar $1 EACH YOUR CHOICE

*Plus Federal Excise Tax

AVAILABLE REXALL EXCLUSIVELY

Delta Drug Store

59th Year of Service
The Rexall Store
TWO REGISTERED PHARMACISTS
Fred Engeldinger — Alfred Sylvester
Phone 251 Hillsboro, Oregon

'Cabinets-by-Douglass'

With every "Cabinet-by-Douglass," there's a smile of pride! Designed for beauty, engineered for efficiency, and built for durability. "Cabinets-by-Douglass" offers the maximum in value for the investment. Every buyer is assured of a product that will contribute greatly to their convenience and complete satisfaction.

Available either with "TRACY" Stainless Steel Sinks and Drainboards or the less expensive "FAR-LITE" cigarette-proof and stain-proof phenolic resin tops.

DOUGLASS BUILDERS SERVICE

Sash - Doors - Frames - Cabinets
Paints - Hardware

1/2-mile East on Hillsboro-Portland Highway

Phone 5721

Auction Sales

If you are planning on holding an Auction Sale — SEE US!

We make all arrangements and hire the Auctioneer of your choice. No fuss nor bother — and

WE SAVE YOU MONEY

Our credit arrangement gets you better prices.

The COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK of Hillsboro
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORP

a tasty lunch

A sandwich and a bottle of delicious, refreshing Mission Orange answers the noon-time question of what to eat. Try it today!

... drink

MISSION ORANGE

ROYAL SODA WORKS

345 E. Main Street

Hillsboro, Oregon