

Miss VanBeveren Weds Mr. Kelley At Forest Grove

St. Anthony's church of Forest Grove was the scene of the wedding on August 22 when Miss Irene VanBeveren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanBeveren of Forest Grove, former residents of Hillsboro, became the bride of Art Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelley of Pendleton. The vows were read by the Rev. Daniel O'Connell. The church was decorated with baskets of white and yellow gladioli, palms and candelabra.

Mrs. Chet Evans accompanied Jackie Royce who sang "Ave Maria" preceding the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with sweetheart neckline and long train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of apple blossoms and she carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Lorraine VanBeveren, who was dressed in a light blue gown of net over satin. Miss Dorothy Warren of Pendleton, the bridesmaid, wore a pink dress identical to that of the maid of honor. Both attendants carried nosegays and wore picture hats and muffs to match their gowns.

Jack Kelley of Pendleton, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Jenger, Pendleton, and Julian VanBeveren, Walla Walla, Wash., brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. VanBeveren wore a pink crepe dress with white accessories. Mrs. Kelley, mother of the bridegroom, wore a grey dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of lavender gladioli and white carnations.

Dinner was served at noon to about 40 relatives and friends and later the couple was honored at a reception at the Forest Grove city hall. Pink asters with baby's breath were used in the table decorations. Mrs. Raymond Clancy

Fowlers Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fowler of Hillsboro returned Saturday from a three-week vacation visiting Reno, Nev., Lake Tahoe, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Cal., and Long Beach, Wash. They were accompanied by their son, Jerry, and daughter, Joan.

One of the highlights of their trip was experienced at the ghost town and Knott's Berry farm near Pomona, Cal. The manager of the famous eating establishment informed Fowler that they serve 5000 dinners Sundays and 4000 week days.

Fowler stated that "people were just not buying" and that reservations in hotel hotels along the way were plentiful, due undoubtedly to high cost of rooms and meals.

The only warm weather was found motoring from Lake Tahoe to Sacramento, Cal. A low overcast prevailed at Los Angeles during the day.

The Fowlers completed their vacation at Washington prior to returning here. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with sweetheart neckline and long train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of apple blossoms and she carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Lorraine VanBeveren, who was dressed in a light blue gown of net over satin. Tolson-Kembel Wedding Held At North Plains

The Church of Christ in North Plains was the scene of the wedding on Sunday, August 22, at 4 p. m. of Miss Molly Kembel of Vancouver, B. C., and Ward Q. Tolson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Tolson of Hillsboro. The church was decorated with five large bouquets of pink and white gladioli, mixed with white asters and dahlias, and candelabra.

Mrs. Mildred James, pianist, played the wedding music and accompanied Billy Piter, soloist, who sang "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by E. J. Johnson of Portland, wore a dress of white satin on train with sweetheart yoke and peplum of white lace. Her knee-length veil was of white net with a wide lace border and held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. Her flowers were white gladioli with white roses in their centers, accented with stephanotis and three rubrum lilies.

Bridesmaids were Misses Doris Berg of Nampa, Idaho and Dorothy Johnson, cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Berg wore a gown of pink tulle and carried pink gladioli centered with white roses. Miss Johnson wore a grey-green gown, carrying white gladioli centered with pink roses.

Best man was Sanford Will, cousin of the bridegroom. Usher was Walter Philpott, who also lighted the candles with Miss Johnson. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of grey jersey with an orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Will. The wedding cake was four-tiered, with green and pink flowers and topped with a white bell and a bride couple. Mrs. Cecil Welch, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake with Mrs. Cecil Tupper helping.

The bride's going-away ensemble was a brown suit with white accessories. The couple went to Vancouver, B. C. on their wedding trip. To see her father, who was unable to attend the wedding and then on to Banff. They will return to Nampa, Idaho, where they are both seniors in Bible school.
