

County 4-H's Win PI Calves In PI Scramble

Eugene Evers, member of the Verboort dairy club, Maynard Sprecher and Stanley Maruge, both members of the Kinton calf club, won calves for themselves at the calf scramble held at Pacific International Livestock exposition this week.

Each year at P. I. 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America have the opportunity to enter the scramble. Animals caught, haltered, and led out of the ring became the property of the boy, who must exhibit them the following year and sell them at public auction. All proceeds are retained by individual boy.

In addition to winning a calf, Evers won grand championship in judging, and first place in showmanship. Edward Neill, member of the Mountain Home dairy club, placed first in dairy and second in showmanship in the Holstein senior yearling heifer class. Homer Zuber placed first in White Leghorns in the poultry division; Wilbur Zuber second, and Wayne Sager, third. A. J. Hornecker of Hillsboro had the grand champion Chester White sow in the open swine class.

Couple Honored at Surprise Farewell

By Mrs. Betty Philpott
NORTH PLAINS — About 20 friends gave a farewell surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Jasa. They presented the couple with a mirror. Hostesses were Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Chick Jones, and Mrs. Louis Wence.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Vanderzanden September 30, a boy, Alfred Joseph.

Week-end guests at the Louis Wence home were Miss Maxine Lisky of Portland, and Mrs. John Burkhardt of Twin Falls, Idaho.

Demonstration Slated

Bob Hiatt of Scholls will demonstrate his new invention, a nut harvester, on the Fred Beach farm October 8 at 2 p. m. The machine picks up, cleans and sacks nuts in a one-man operation.

Say you saw it in the Argus.

Timber Store Manager Moves

By Mrs. George Tolson

TIMBER—Willis Nyberg moved his furniture out from Portland Friday evening. He is the new manager of Timber Mercantile Store. The Brandstetter, who recently sold the store to Mr. Dunbar of Portland, moved their household goods to Sheridan Thursday evening. Mr. Brandstetter had a heart attack and is in Jones hospital in Hillsboro.

Sidney Gerling of Portland spent the week-end here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy McCambelle.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tallman and daughter Lorraine accompanied Mrs. Tallman's mother, Mrs. Nellie Page, to her home in Walla Walla, Wash., Friday evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Harpster went to Portland Monday, where she spent several days at the home of Mrs. Ethel Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond and son of Austin, Minn., spent from Friday to Sunday at the home of Mr. Raymond's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don O'Brien.

Jessie Meyers Maxwell of San Francisco, Cal., was a guest Saturday through Monday with Mrs. Ida Kilburg and Mrs. Mae Tallman. Mrs. Maxwell has spent the past three weeks in Portland where she visited relatives and friends. She will return to her home in California this week.

Charles Phillips and two children Richard and Linda Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belce, and Mrs. Ricardo Marquer and daughter Mary, all of Portland, were week-end visitors of Mr. Marquer here. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Belce went hunting.

Because of teachers' institute the grade school pupils had a vacation Monday and Tuesday.

Guests at the Ray McCoy's over the week-end were Mrs. Emma McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hickey and daughter, Joyce. Miss Alma Hickey, daughter of Mrs. McCoy, Enid Jones, Mrs. Annie Rogers, mother of Mrs. McCoy, all of Portland, and Betty Hickey and Louise Kosar of St. Helens.

McCoy's Get Deer
The Ray McCoy's were lucky hunters and shot a 3-point buck early Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Middleton spent Sunday at Wheeler fishing. They caught two nice salmon.

Jim White, Klamath Falls, and Ronald Baty of Portland spent Thursday and Friday nights at the Denver Middletons. Mr. White and Baty were here on a hunting trip but had no luck. Mr. White is a Southern Pacific brakeman and formerly lived here.

Guest at the James Burks over the week-end were Mrs. Burks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rueff, from Camp McGregor.

Week-end guests of the Ed Petersons were their son Robert, who attends O. S. C. at Corvallis, and Virginia Blanc of Portland.

Guest of the Vernon Peterson's over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Phillips of Hillsboro.

Returns from California
Mrs. Guy Griffith returned to her home here Saturday after spending the last month in San Francisco and Los Angeles, visiting her sister, Mrs. Griffith also attended the wedding of a niece in San Francisco. Her sister and sons accompanied her home. Mr. Griffith met them at Eugene and drove them home.

Mrs. William Huffman of Forest Grove and daughter Mrs. Boyce Parker of Portland spent Friday with Mrs. Huffman's sister, Mrs. Ida Kilburg. Their husbands were among the many who went hunting. Mrs. Dorothy Reynolds went to Portland Wednesday where she visited with her daughters, Misses Lelia and Barbara Reynolds. Barbara returned home with her mother Saturday for a short visit, returning to Portland Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smouse and children, Scott and Stepheny of Tillamook were visitors at the Ed Olmstead home last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Extension Unit Begins Activities

By Mrs. B. Anderson

FERN HILL — A preparatory meeting of the Fern Hill Extension Unit met at the Community Hall for an all day session with picnic lunch September 28. Twenty ladies were present. Program books for the coming year were filled out. Chairman Mrs. Henry Hering explained the duties of the different offices. Members are required to attend at least three meetings during the year to hold their memberships.

Rummage Sale Set
Date for the first rummage sale has been set for November 13. Children's clothes, plants and bulbs are especially desired.

Mrs. Alfred Meyer and Mrs. Ed Durford of Cherry Grove had an interesting display of crafts, including chemise corsages, woven belts and hot holders, wooden animals and other novelties. A meeting has been arranged for textile painting at the Community Hall October 12 beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Newman have the excavating completed for the basement of their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jepson and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierce are enjoying a hunting trip in Eastern Oregon.

An addition has been made to the Bert Anderson home including a complete new water system.

Beaverton Opens Fire Prevention

A Fire Prevention Week kick-off banquet was held at the Beaverton American Legion club Monday night by the Beaverton junior chamber of commerce, to aid the firemen in a week-filled program of activities.

T. J. Fohl, chairman of the event, outlined the schedule which included distribution of fire prevention posters and fire inspection blanks to merchants and industrial plants, home fire inspection blanks to all school students, bombing of Beaverton and surrounding areas with fire prevention leaflets showing of fire prevention films at local theatres as short subjects preceding the feature, mailing of "How to call a Rural Fire" cards to all neighboring areas, and aiding firemen in fire drills at all schools.

In addition to the plan, Beaverton Jaycees distributed pamphlets "60 Ways to Prevent Fire," at all theatre entrances preceding the evening show, flushed fire department hydrants and standpipes, greased caps, and checked all water mains. Painting of hydrants and standpipes was also included by the Jaycees.

Attending the banquet were volunteer firemen, local insurance agents and prospective Jaycee members as guests. Fire Chief Archie Olson was guest of honor. Chet Hunkapiller is president.
