2 MINUTES THAT MAY CHANGE YOUR WHOLE LIFE

It takes just two minutes to read this ad and what you decide as a result of it may change your own life and that of your children for years to come.

The point is simply this: Those whom we elect in this election may well decide most of the vital issues which will affect you directly—peace or war, prosperity or depression, moderate prices or high ones, progress or stagnation.

These are the reasons why it is more important than ever before that we VOTE FOR THE BEST MAN in every office, large or small.

HERE IS A CHALLENGE FOR YOU. Make a real study of all candidates offering themselves for public office in this election. Forget for a moment your own party affiliation and that of the candidate you are investigating. Think only "Is this man, is this woman, the candidate best suited by personal background, ability and record in public and private life for this particular office?" Do this honestly and we are sure that you, too, will vote Republican.

Remember, vote for the best man, may the best man win!

The Japanese Priest Said: "DOMINUS VOBISCU"

It was early Sunday morning in Tokyo. A cosmopolitan congregation had assembled in the Catholic church for the first Mass of the day. Along with the Japanese present, there were English, French and Portuguese sailors, the family of a Belgian diplomat, Filipino business men and a sprinkling of U. S. Military Police.

The Japanese priest was compelled to start the service without an assistant to answer the prayers. He had hardly begun the Mass, when a burly GI rose from his seat, walked to the altar and took the place of the absent server.

"At first," he said afterwards, "I felt a little strange serving a Jap priest in a Jap church. But after he turned around and said in Latin: 'Dominus vobiscum!'... I felt just the way I did when I served Father O'Malley in our church back home."

"Dominus vobiscum!"... "The Lord be with you!"

How familiar and homelike those Latin words sounded... to the English, the French, the Portuguese, Belgians and Filipinos... for they had heard them Sunday after Sunday in their own church at home.

Despite their language differences, each could follow the prayers of the Mass... and the actions of the priest. For each had a double-column prayer book—one column in Latin, one in his native language.

Many services of divine worship in the Catholic Church are conducted in the native language of the people. But the Mass... is generally conducted in Latin because this dead language never changes and is most appropriate to express the fundamentally unchanging worship instituted by Christ at the Last Supper.

Perhaps you have heard Catholics speak of the Mass... or have seen them thronging to Mass on Sunday and other days. If you would like to know more about the Mass... and why the Mass attracts millions of Catholics to church regularly... we will be happy to send you a free pamphlet explaining the Mass and reasons behind it in a clear-cut manner. Write today... ask for Pamphlet No. 6-N.

Two Give Lives

PORTLAND, ORE.—The young people at the foot of Mt. Adams had put on a skit and to this day, Harold cannot recall the lines. But as he went out to milk the cow that night, the scenes kept coming back and out of it Harold made his decision. Then came College and Medical School and now as an M.D., he and Marjory are soon to leave for China—medical missionaries.

Yes, we need more M.D.'s here in America. But the Lord also commands His people to tell the man afar that God had a Son who died for him. To all who hear and believe, God gives new birth, with new days for here and now and eternal life. And when the roll of the saved is filled, the curtain drops on this present age to rise again with Christ seated as World Ruler.

What of the "heathen converts"? Zamaide, young Zulu, would go out as a Bible teacher. But try and try, he could not learn to read. Then he went away for a whole day in prayer. Out of it—God made the Bible talk to me, his words. Many years now he has been a Bible man among the Zulus. Report by Bailey Iverson. You born-again grow up out of Christian babyhood, as you feed on the Bible and pray.
