

Annual Harvest Festival Set For October 29

By Jane Joyce
MOUNTAIN HOME—Annual harvest festival will be held in the Sherwood grade school gym Friday evening, October 29. Set this date as something special and plan to attend. Everyone brings something and it is auctioned off with lots of fun for everyone. Pie, do-nuts and coffee will be sold in addition to a large candy sale. All proceeds will go into the hot lunch fund, all grade school children to benefit by it. There is a good program planned. P.C.'s own four flats will furnish songs and fun and other numbers are a secret so you must come and see and hear.
 Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schmelzer and family of Manning, have moved into the house by the Mt. Home school and will remain through the walnut harvest.

Ushers Entertained
 Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hunsberger entertained the three ushers, Marvin Taylor, Bill Wilson and Keith Joyce, with a Sunday dinner. Mrs. Hunsberger was hostess to the Missionary Society Wednesday evening.
Clothing Need Given
 After hearing Dr. A. U. Michelson explain the dire need for clothing for the Christian Jew babies and children in Germany the women of the church have decided to do what they can to help. Anyone having clothing for children or that can be made into something a child could wear it would be greatly appreciated if it was brought to the church or parsonage or call Mrs. Fred Aebischer, 4347, and she will gladly call for it. It is hoped that those coming to the Missionary meeting Wednesday evening will bring enough to pack a box to be shipped immediately.
 Mr. and Mrs. Howard Browning, Eldred, Joyce, Carvlyn Ego and Dwain Hall spent Sunday at the coast.
 Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gangwere and the two youngest children are in Indiana visiting Mrs. Gangwere's father who has been ill.
To Reveal a Service
 Mr. and Mrs. Barry Lindquist and Mrs. Mary Fox, Jennings Lodge, spent Thursday at the R. B. Joyces. The Lindquists are planning to bring out their wire recorder and record the entire church service next Sunday morning and play it to Aunt Fannie Snyder.
 Ivan Dill of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, is visiting his grandfather, Mr. J. Dill.
 Mrs. Lloyd Hemer entertained with a Sunday dinner honoring Sheryl's first birthday. Invited guests were twins Sharon and Susan Collins of Portland and twins Jean and Joan Petz, all celebrating their first birthdays and Sandra Neel, her second.
Nut Harvest Under Way
 Nut harvest has begun. The Edy driver is running full time. Some filbert orchards are all picked, returning a very light yield. Walnuts are dropping and some residents have started to gather them. Clover seed

JOHN TEUFEL, HILLSBORO rose grower, recently supplied the American Legion Auxiliary convention in Miami with roses which had been picked less than 24 hours before. Teufel picked the 1200 blooms an hour before plane time and loaded them in his amphibious plane. He took off from his private landing strip and landed 10 minutes later at Portland-Columbia airport where the flowers were transferred to a United Air Lines plane. Pictured here unloading the blooms (left to right) are Mrs. Wayne Gladden and Mrs. Frank L. Freene of the Auxiliary; Teufel and Earl Oliver, wholesale florist. —(Cut courtesy Oregonian) is being combined during the short afternoons when it is dry enough and some fields giving an excellent return. Earth is turned and crops seeded as fast as possible. One can hear tractors running past midnight, all farmers making good use of good weather.

 You are invited to attend the regular P-T-A meeting Tuesday, October 28, in the Sherwood grade school gym. Chaplain John Beard and his wife will be the speakers, telling about their horseback trip over the Oregon Trail.
