

National Business Women's Week Is Successful Affair

The Business and Professional Women's club held its annual dinner Friday night, honoring employers and employees of members. Mrs. Hazel Huffman was in charge of the very interesting program. The meeting, held at the Peter Boscow school cafeteria, started with President Marguerite Linn leading the flag salute and Vice-President Eunice Kimmmerle leading the collect. Mrs. Linn also welcomed the guests. During the dinner the group was led in the singing of some humorous songs by Mrs. Maudie Stannard.

After dinner "Dad" Long and his assistants played some very old songs for the enjoyment of everyone. "Dad" Long is nearly 90 years old and has won many prizes for his fiddle playing. Mrs. Margaret Corwin plays the piano and Mrs. Christine Bauers plays the banjo and drums in the group.

Mrs. Huffman had, for her speaker of the evening, Daniel Boone of the Fuller Paint company. Mr. Boone is a member of Elucidators club in Portland and chose as his subject "Keep Going, Green Lights Ahead."

Mrs. Violet Raschio, a Portland concert artist, accompanied by Mrs. Edmond Nortell, sang two selections in a lovely voice. She sang "Little Star" and a selection from "The Firefly."

Mrs. Evelyn Jones, legislation chairman, reported 100 per cent registration and urged a 100 per cent vote. She introduced J. W. Foynter, superintendent of elementary schools, who spoke on school measures to come before the people, the amendment for 6 per cent tax limitation and the qualifications of voters in school elections.

Miss Hilda Fries of Portland, chairman of North Willamette District, represented the State Federation and brought greetings from President Carmelite Weddie.

Special guests were President Lind Ramp of the Lions club and Mrs. Ramp; Mrs. Ruben Kumtli, vice-president of Oregon Lions Auxiliary; Huber Kimmmerle, representing L. C. Kramien, president of chamber of commerce; and Rev. and Mrs. Nourse. Mayor Griffith and heads of Rotary and other organizations were unable to attend.

Table decorations and menus carried out the autumn motif, hand painted menus having autumn leaves and a chrysanthemum. Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums

Miss Leona Meier October Bride Of Donald Baker

St. Matthews church of Hillsboro was the scene of the wedding on Saturday afternoon, October 9, when Miss Leona Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meier of Hillsboro, became the bride of Donald Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker of Hillsboro.

The church was decorated with salmon pink and white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and ferns, as Rev. J. T. Costelloe read the marriage rites. Darlene Jardee played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of ivory white satin with lace-trimmed finger-tip veil held by a beaded coronet hair. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis on a white prayer book with long satin streamers. A keepsake worn was a gold cross and chain, gift of her godmother, Adelaide Schoenbacher.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Margaret Knox of Beaverton, wearing a gown of powder blue satin with marquisette overskirt. Her flowers were of pink and white carnations and pink roses.

Best man was Robert Baker of Alameda, California, brother of the bridegroom, with Vernon Meier, brother of the bride, and Frank Waibel, cousin of the bride, serving as ushers.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, where the rooms were decorated with salmon pink and yellow gladioli and the motif was carried out in a red and pink rose design. The table was decorated with a three-tiered bride's cake. Miss Polly Wagner poured, with Miss Patsy Baker, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, cutting the cake. Assistants were the Misses Norma Freudenhal, Jeanne Baker, Mary Meier, Jeannette Pinnell, Darlene Dittrick, and Mesdames Louise Rythen and Adelaide Schoenbacher. Miss Alice Coussens was in charge of the guest book.

For her traveling costume the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of roses and stephanotis. The couple went on a short honeymoon trip to the state capitol and Salem airport, and is now at home in Hillsboro at the Ketchum apartments.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro High school and is employed as a secretary at the General Foods office in Hillsboro. The bridegroom is a graduate of Forest Grove High school and Aero Technical School of Aviation at Alameda, California. He is employed by United Airlines at Portland's Columbia airport.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Polaire of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eymann of Canby, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker of Alameda, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Pinnell and daughter Jeannette, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. Casey, Mrs. Allen Kuehle and son Allen of Portland.

Mrs. R. Hornecker gave a miscellaneous shower for the bride at her home on September 20. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by friends and relatives present. She received several beautiful gifts.

Miss Wilson Weds John Dahlgren At Aloha Church

ALOHA—Miss Barbara Adair Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Wilson of Aloha, became the bride of John R. Dahlgren of Scappoose, on October 13 at the Aloha Baptist church with Rev. Erling Monnes performing a candid ceremony.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a white slipper gown with lace-edged illusion finger-tip veil and carried a white Bible with an orchid.

Miss Shirley Wilson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a rose tulle gown with matching net headpiece and mitts. She carried a colonial bouquet of Talisman roses and pompon chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ingrid Anderson, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore an aqua gown with matching net headpiece and mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of Talisman roses and pompon chrysanthemums.

Sven Dahlgren, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ingrid Anderson was usher.

A reception followed in the church basement, with Mrs. Carl Settler, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. S. Wineburg, aunt of the bridegroom, pouring Mrs. Ray Stobis cut the cake. Mrs. Clarence Carson, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Wilma Britton, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Gus Elle, aunt of the bride, served the cake.

The bridal couple went to California for a wedding trip. They plan to live in St. Helens.

Camp Fire Girls News of Week

Two members of the Kawanai Alan Horon club, Virginia Patterson and Joan Pacey, completed the requirements for their Fire Maker's rank by taking the other members of their Horizon club to Camp Adahi for the week-end. Camp Adahi is the Camp Fire Girl's camp located five miles from Forest Grove on the Gales Creek road. The two girls did the planning and buying of the food and packed the necessary equipment. Last Thursday night all the girls went to Portland and saw the play "The Desert Song" at the Mayfair Theatre. The girls enjoyed the play. New officers were elected at their buffet dinner meeting at the home of their adviser, Miss Blanche Britton. They are: Patty Kennelly, president; Virginia Patterson, vice-president; Joyce Suen, secretary-treasurer; and Sharon Casey, scribe.

The newly-organized Elata Koda Camp Fire group, whose members are first graders at the Peter Boscow school, elected Sara McCann as their president. Working with Sara will be Danna Tording, vice-president; Janet Davidson, secretary; Jo Ann Holliday, treasurer; Dixie Stoltenberg, courtesy chairman; Sharon Burdett, song leader; Lorraine Mellinger, game leader; and Virginia Huntington, scribe. The girls' first project was making and selling greenery. The girls gathered part of the plants, small trees and fern, and moss and arranged them in attractive containers. The girls met every Monday afternoon after school at the Peter Boscow cafeteria. Mrs. James Burdett is the guardian and Mrs. Lee MacIntyre her assistant.

The Peppy Blue Birds have elected as their new officers, Patty Gail Reynolds, president; Sandra Batchler, vice-president; Velma Haley, secretary; and Judith Talley, treasurer. At their last meeting, the girls made a ditch garden for their mothers. Mrs. Warren Haley is the leader of the group and Mrs. Alvin Batchelar is her assistant.

Unit Begins Work At North Plains

The North Plains Extension Unit began its active program for the year at the home of Mrs. Ray Johnson, Tuesday, October 12, with Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain and Mrs. Joe Baker acting as project leaders. The demonstration on the making of Halloween and Christmas decorations was greatly enjoyed by the 16 members present. Cuttings from the great variety of shrubs grown by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beach, lent special charm to the swags, wreaths and corsages made by the women. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Alfred Meyers and Mrs. Art Larsen of Cherry Grove; Mrs. Delbert Hutchens and Mrs. Albert Bolma of Forest Grove; and Mrs. Cecil Henderson of Banks.

Two new committee chairmen were named by Mrs. Jake Van Domelen, president. Mrs. Emma Dierdorff was named lunch chairman and Mrs. Chris Lange, librarian. Mrs. Edgar Leaning, Mrs. Clarence Meek, Mrs. Claude Bartness, Mrs. Frank Connel, and Mrs. Lester Cypher were named as a committee to arrange for the collection of rummage material for the county-wide rummage sale to be held at the Bump Law office in Hillsboro, November 13. Clothing, food, dishes, books, plants, and canned goods will be solicited. The funds from the rummage sale will go toward financing a co-operative dormitory for girls on the Oregon State campus. Mrs. James Power presented plans for a special "Parcel Post" booth at the sale. Packages from friends throughout the United States will be offered for sale at twenty-five cents each, exactly as they are received through the mails.

Several individual projects for raising funds for the building fund were made known, among them the sale of geranium slips by Mrs. Frank Connell, apple cider by Mrs. Joe Bart, and a school for making plastic and lucite buttons by Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected recently by the Christian church at the church's annual meeting, according to Rev. Clifford N. Trout, pastor.
